MARRIED MEN LESS OFTEN CRIMINALS

HUSBANDS RUN TO SUICIDE

Possessors of Wives Predominant Among Those Tried for Attempting to Die.

New York, July 7.—Unmarried men are more often criminals than married men, according to the figures in a report of the work of the district attorney's office published yesterday by Chief Clerk Henry D. Sawyer, of Mr. Whitman's staff. The same is shown in regard to women prisoners.

In the last year 789 married men were convicted in the courts of general sessions and the criminal branch of the supreme court, and 2,068 unmarried men. The records for women offenders show sixty-six married women convicted and 100 unmarried.

While the percentage of unmarried criminals is high in practically every sort of crime the report shows that suicide is an exception. Three times as many married men attempted suicide and were tried for it in 1912 as unmarried. A comparison for the last nine years gives 7,470 convictions of married men for all sorts of crimes, and 18,406 convictions of unmarried men.

The report indicates that there is a gradual increase of crime among young men, the male criminals under the age of 30 years having increased in number from 1,700 in 1904 to 2,200 in 1912, during the last year many offenders were between the ages of 15 and 20. Assault charges show forty under 20 years and sixty-four from 20 to 30 years. Third degree burglary, 218 for younger period and 205 for the older; grand larceny in the second degree, 184 criminals under 20 years and 238 from 20 to 30; petit larceny, 157 under 20 and 144 from 20 to 30 years; and twenty-two from 20 to 30 years and twenty-two from 20 to 30 years. The total shows 940 under 20 convicted last year and 1,278 from 20 to 30. Only 404 offenders from 30 to 40 years were convicted.

The report shows that the district attorney's office disposed of 4,827 cases last year, with 8,028 convictions after indictment and 2,898 convicted upon pleas of guilty. There were 821 trials which resulted in acquittals.

Most Women Criminals Under 30.
The statistics for women prisoners show that two-thirds of the women brought to court were under 30 years. The convictions for larceny stand highest, grand larceny, eighteen; second degree grand larceny, fifty-five; petit larceny, forty-two. The total number of women brought before the higher criminal courts was 166.

Making averages, the usual sentence imposed was five years and six months and the total state prison terms amounted to $391. A gradual increase in the length of sentence imposed since 1904 is noted. The increase was from

Writing of murder convictions, Mr. Sawyer explains:

"Many prosecutions of unusual importance from the public standpoint have been undertaken during the last year. In the first place I desire to call attention to the fact that there have been far more convictions of murder in the first degree than in any other year in the history of the county so far as can be learned from the records. Thirteen persons have been convicted of first degree murder, while the highest number recorded heretofore has been eight in one year, thus exceeding the previous record by five."
