MEN'S CLOTHING

MADE TO MEASURE AND READY TAILORED

OUR ethics in the business world are: "To sell the best goods obtainable; to mark them as low as good merchandise will allow; to guarantee every article sold; to cheerfully rectify any mistakes; and to treat each person who enters the store as a guest, extending the same courtesy when looking as when purchasing. We hold the confidence and patronage of many hundreds of New Brunswick people, and we want to do the same with you. Won't you give us an opportunity?"

PROVINCIAL HOSPITAL
PATIENT ARRESTED;
IS BURGLAR SUSPECT

Moncton, N. B., March 25—(Special)—In the street of Benjamin Leblanc in the attic of a house in Cross street this morning, the Moncton police took in charge a man who escaped recently from the Provincial Hospital, St. John, and believe they have put a stop to petty burglaries here. Last night Givane steam laundry was entered by a ladies shopping bag was all that was stolen. This morning Sergeant Atkins and Policeman Beliveau arrested Leblanc. On his person and in the attic they found goods identical with those stolen from the laundry. While in the Provincial Hospital, Leblanc was sent to the St. John's institution. He will come before Magistrate Kay this afternoon.

Leblanc escaped from the Provincial Hospital on March 14. In 1909 he was sent to the Provincial penitentiary for burglarizing a house in Shediac Road. While in the Provincial Hospital, he became demoralized and was sent to St. John's institution. He was released from the institution on March 14. He will come before Magistrate Kay this afternoon.
