POLICE TRAP GANG IN BARN

Get Express Matter Worth $20,000—Big Van Followed by Detectives Packed Into Small Wagons

New York, May 11.—No ordinary citizen who saw two small delivery wagons trailing a ponderous van through East Side streets Monday realized that the procession was a police chase after $20,000 worth of stolen property.

The delivery wagons contained 20 detectives in charge of Lieut. Vachris and assisted by chief special agent Joseph Mayo of the U. S. Express company. They were packed into the small carts like sardines in a box.

The van, heavily loaded with express matter, was followed on each side of the street by men sauntering singly or in pairs. These were the men whom the police had marked for arrest.

The "chase" led from the branch office of the U. S. Express company, 38 West 3rd street through West Broadway, Spring street and the Bowery, to a stable in Rivington street, between the Bowery and Chrystie street.

The stable is in the rear of a big tenement and is reached through an alley from the street. The van turned in. So did the men who had been following on foot.

A block or two back the detectives left their delivery carts and most of them went into a dry goods store to examine shirts and cravats.

Half an hour later a signal rang out from the direction of the stable. Detective Fawcett had been informed that a big express robbery was being planned. It was expected that the attempt would be made Thursday, but nothing happened then. Ever since then the neighborhood of the express company's branch offices have been constantly covered by detectives, disguised as laborers and drivers.

Late on Monday afternoon a van of the Doctermans van and express company, which does considerable work for the U. S. Express company, drove up to the Third street office.

It was loaded with all sorts of valuable express matter, cut glass, clothing, furs, books, etc., which had been shipped for Pennsylvania and western points. It was to go to the Liberty street ferry and across to Commack.

As it started off a group of eight men was seen to separate and follow it. At the same moment a young fellow alighted from the seat of a delivery cart, picked up a heavy horse and drove after the van. The young fellow was Detective Upton of the central office.

The other cart, filled with private detectives, got into the chase a little farther down the line of march.

The alleged robbers seemed to have no idea of their danger. They found themselves trapped in the stable.

The men under arrest are Charles B. Miller, Michael Palinsky, Herman Green, Rudolph Turner, Joseph Ross, Isador Bolina, Morris Berger, Harry Miller, Samuel Fischer and Michael Rich. The latter two were in the stable when the van arrived. They denied any connection with the robbery.

The police would not say which prisoner was the driver of the van. They said that Green, Palinsky, Ross, Harry Miller and Berger were represented in the rogues' gallery.

There have been several serious express robberies within a few months. About a month ago a van containing $50,000 worth of goods disappeared and was found empty at 1st avenue and 22nd street.

MAY ADJOURN HOUSE
UNTIL AUGUST 1

Ottawa, May 10.—Parliament will adjourn, as previously intimated, not later than May 23, probably on May 19, and will assemble for the concluding portion of the session not earlier than July 18.

The arrangements for the adjournment of the session were discussed by the committee on adjournment this afternoon. The possibility of delaying the reassembling until Aug. 1 was discussed.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier frankly stated that it was in the hands of the house in the matter, but to ensure the later date he believed it would be necessary to vote in favor of a supply for a longer period than Sept. 30.

E. N. Lewis and Dr. Sprague took strong ground against the adjournment regulations that prevented bank clerks marrying. The former said that he found on Wednesday that many overworked youths were paid but $250 and $300 a year.
