

of the Parish failing to make the payment of £100 to the Board of Missions, the clergyman shall be withdrawn.

c. Clergymen of settled parishes now existing, where the congregation pay or secure to the Mission Board any annual sum, shall be entitled to draw that sum from the Board.

4. That all District Branches now employing a travelling missionary or missionaries shall be entitled to the maintenance of such missionary or missionaries, on transferring their funds to the Board of Missions, and on their continuing to contribute the necessary sums, (including the funds so transferred) for his or their support, provided that such district branches recommend the same. But that in all other cases the requirements of the District Branches for missionaries be submitted by each locality to the Board of Missions, who will decide upon the order in which the said requirements are to be carried out according to their urgency and necessity; but that the appointment of all missionaries rests absolutely with the Bishop, and that no Clergyman shall be recognised by the Board, unless he shall have previously received the Lordship's License.

5. That Board of Missions shall have power to make such rules and regulations to carry out this by-law as they may deem necessary.

The XVIII. article of the Constitution is amended so as to read thus:

In connexion and correspondence with the Society District Associations shall be established, comprising one or more Districts, (as shall be approved by the President, the same to be composed of the Clergy resident within the bounds of the district, and all other Members who shall contribute in aid of the Society's Funds; the Archdeacon
