Every Candidate who passes in not less than three of the total number of Optional Subjects, in addition to the preliminary subjects, will be entitled to receive the School Certificate of the University.

No Candidate will be considered as having passed in any of the above Optional Subjects, unless he has obtained at least one fourth of the total number of marks obtainable in that subject.

Any Candidate who passes in more than one subject of any section, and who in at least one of those subjects obtains more than half the total number of marks, will be entitled to a Certificate of creditable answering, in that section.

The total number of marks gained by every Candidate, including both Preliminary and Optional subjects, shall be added up, and the Candidates arranged in a printed list, at the close of the Examination in the order of these totals. No Candidate to count his marks in any subject unless he has gained at least the minimum number of marks in that subject.

§ 2. MODE OF EXAMINATION.

The Examiners shall be appointed annually by the Corporation, and shall consist partly of Professors of the University or of Affiliated or other Colleges, and partly of Teachers in Schools sending up Candidates for Examination. Every paper shall, if possible, be set and examined by one University and one School Examiner, or by one person combining both characters. All the answers to be open to the inspection of the whole body of Examiners.

The examination in the Optional Subjects to be wholly by written papers; and the preliminary examination to be principally by written papers; but viva voce examination may in this be allowed (1) in subjects requiring this method, and (2) in other subjects in part, as may from time to time be determined by the Examiners.

The examinations may be held in any place or places, in which there shall be candidates, such places to be from time to time appointed by the Corporation. Candidates from other places may present themselves at any of the places so selected. The examinations in each subject shall be simultaneous in the several places of examination, and shall be held in the presence of at least one examiner appointed by the Corporation.

The regular time for holding the examinations shall be in the beginning of January.
