ANARCHY'S VICTIM

All Europe Plunged in Grief by the Murder of Austria's Beloved Empress.

The Assassin Gloats Over the Success of His Fiendish Design.

Arrangements for the Funeral - What the Autopsy Disclosed-The Emperor's Fortitude.

London, Sept. 11.-Queen Victoria and the Prince and Princess of Wales telegraphed their condolence to Emperor Francis Joseph last night.
The court circular to-day says:

The court circular to day says:

The Queen mourns profoundly the loss of her imperial majesty, with whom she had been on terms of friendship for many She feels likewise as deeply for honored and bereaved emperor, who as experienced so many trials during is long and beneficial reign."

The terrible news has thrilled Europe from end to end and everywhere but one operations is asked—"how can society proct itself against anarchism?" Special dispatches from every capital describe the effect produced and news-paper comments that palpitate with bitindignation that a defenceless weman, who shunned politics and did nothing but should be selected, at the moment the approaching jubilee, for the as-King Humbert, with his own hand, wrote a telegram expressing the deepest sympathy. We pray that God may bestow upon the house of Hapsburg that peace and tranquility which it merits by eason of the sentiments toward church and the papacy."

The pope ordered selemn mass in the churches of Rome for the repose of the soul of the deceased. It is understood that the Prince of Naples and Emperor

General Weyler in a Rage and the Senate in an Uproar as a Result of the Dispute.

Madrid, Sept. 13.—Gen. Polavieja, formerly governor-general of Cuba and the Philippines, has issued a manifesto declaring his readiness to place himself at the head of a neutral party in Spanish politics. He denounces the "exils exish politics. He denounces the "evils existing in the present political system," and declares that "every department needs cleaning." His programme, therefore, begins with "a drastic purging of the administration," then advocates "reform in taxistion" and "purification of the electoral system." After pledging his "unwavering loyalty to the throne" Gen. WORSE THAN DEATH.

The Fate in Store for the Geneva Assas-sin Will Be a Living Torment.

New York, Sept. 13 .- A dispatch to the World from Geneva says The life-imprisonment with solitary confinement in store for the Austrian Empress' assassin is declared by those acquainted with Swiss prisons to be vastly worse than death. A correspondent who recently visited the chief prison of the Canton of Vaud, where the assassin will be confined, de-scribes as sad indeed the result of solitary life imprisonment. One man whom he saw, the perpetrator of a series of murders in the mountains, had been in the cell for fifteen years, with the result that he completely lost his reason. The governor of the prison confessed that in view of this and other similar cases his views of capital punishment had undergone a complete change, and that he was now strongly in favor of the death pen-atty.

Mr. Ridgely, the American consul here, was informed last night by a cabinet officer that, much as it would please the authorities to send the assassin to Austria. for trial, it cannot be done under the constitution. Had the crime been committed in the private apartment of the Empress instead of on the public street extradition would have been possible. Upon a sentence of life imprisonment the assassin will be placed in a small, dark cell, from which he will never emerge, and will be fed just enough to enable him to support life.
