LATE REV. JOHN DE SOYRES BURIED TODAY
Impressive Services Very Largely Attended.

Large Number of Local Clergy Took Part in the Services

A largely attended meeting of the Episcopal clergy of the city was held this morning at the Church of England Institute, to make arrangements for their part in the funeral of the late John de Soyres, M. A., LL. D. A committee consisting of Rev. Rural Dean Raymond, Rev. Canon Richardson and Rev. W. H. Sampson was appointed to draw up a resolution in regard to the death of their late beloved fellow clergyman.

The vestry of St. John's church met this morning at two o'clock and drew up the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Church Warden and Vestry of Saint John's church, in the Parish of Saint Mark, in the City of Saint John, hereby record their sense of the great loss sustained by Saint John's church and its congregation in the death of Rev. John de Soyres, M. A., LL. D., for nearly seventeen years rector of this parish.

A distinguished graduate of the University of Cambridge, he united to great natural gifts the highest education, aided by extensive travel, and associated with men of distinguished ability and reputation. His powers of keen analysis, his rapidity of thought and concentration of mind, accompanied by unrelenting study, made him an authority on nearly every subject likely to be discussed in any assembly. His eloquence in the pulpit, the bright effervescence of his lectures combined with their instructiveness, and his brilliancy in conversation were alike remarkable and rare. His death is to be deplored by the community in which he lived, as well as in the larger world of letters. The great loss which this church and congregation have sustained can only be fully appreciated by those who have been privileged to see him as pastor at the bedside of the sick or dying, or in the discharge of other solemn offices of the church, and who have at such times witnessed a rare spiritual exaltation revealing his true beauty of soul.

And further resolved, that the tender sympathy of the congregation be extended to the members of his family in their bereavement, that the Christmas decorations be removed and the church be draped in mourning; that the vestry of the church send flowers to the funeral of the late rector, that these resolutions be entered in full in the minutes and that the same be engrossed on parchment.

A private service was held at the late residence of the brilliant clergyman, after which the casket was taken to the church, followed by the vestry of St. John's.

The church was draped and the floral tributes were many and most beautiful.
The following is a list of the floral offerings:

Vestry of St. John's church, set piece;
The Church Workers, wreath; superintendent, teachers and scholars of the Sunday school, wreath; The Gleasons' Union of St. John's church, wreath;
The Senior Girls' Association of St.
John's church, wreath; flowers from Lady Tilley, Mayor and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pugsley, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bancroft, Mr. and Mrs. G.
C. Coster, Miss Thorne, Mrs. McAllister and Mrs. Clarkson, Mrs. C. H.
Fairweather, Mrs. W. W. Turnbull, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLeod, wreath; Mrs. Geo. P. Smith and the Misses Smith, wreath; Choir of St.
John's, harp of flowers; Mrs. Frank Stetson, bunch of flowers; 3d Regt.
Canadian Artillery, crown; E. T. P.
Shewen, flowers; C. M. Bostwick, Jr., star; Rothery school, wreath.

The Episcopal clergy dressed in their clerical robes, occupied the main body of the church for the vestry, the colonel and officers of the 3rd Regt. Canadian Artillery and the Rothery Collegiate school. The service was conducted by the Rev. A. W. Daniel, rector of Rothery, who is a son of the late Rev. W. Daniel, who was for twenty-six years warden of St. John's church. Rev. Mr. Daniel was assisted by Rev. Josiah Smith. His LL. D. ship Bishop Kingston was unable to attend on account of ill health.

The following was the order of the proceedings:

Rothery Collegiate School, Officers of 3rd Regt. Canadian Artillery,
Clergy of Other Denominations, Evangelical Alliance,
Deanery of St. John.

Hearse

Mourners and Vestry of St. John's Church,
Trinity Vestry,
Other Vestries,
Young Men's and Other Associations, Parishioners,
General Public.

There were no pall-bearers, the casket being carried by the vestry.

Interment took place in the vault in Fernhill until the lot which has been selected for his last resting place is prepared.

The following telegram was received this morning from Wyckiffe College:

Toronto, Ont., 4th February, 1905.
To the Church Warden of St. John's Church:

Please convey to Mrs. de Soyres and sympathy of the faculty and council of Wyckiffe College in the great loss sustained by you and the whole church.

(Sgd.) J. P. SHERATON.

At a meeting of the Deanery this morning, it was decided out of respect to Rev. Dr. de Soyres to postpone the regular meeting of the clergy, which was to have been held tomorrow, till the next regular meeting in May.

All Quiet 'in the Vicinity of Shang Tung--- Second Railway From Yalu River to Lio Yang.

TOKIO, Feb. 6.—Official announcement is made that everything is quiet in the vicinity of Shang Tung with the exception that the Russians are strenuously entrenching.

The Russian force which attacked Chitaishan, Feb. 4, retired northward Feb. 5.

On the afternoon of Feb. 4 and the morning of Feb. 5, the Russian army made a flitting tribute to the memory of the late John de Soyres in the following resolution:

The St. John's Evangelical Alliance desires to place on record its deep sense of the loss sustained by the sudden demise of their esteemed and beloved brother, Rev. John de Soyres, rector of St. John's church. His unselfish and devoted labors won for him the warm regard of those who came under his ministry. His broad-minded views and sympathetic appreciation of all sincere and earnest thoughts commanded the respect of those who differed most widely from him in opinion and kindness. His gentle and kindness drew to him both young and old and his loyalty and evangelical truth made him a tower of strength. The alliance humbly recognizes the hand of God in the sudden and mysterious dispensation and prays that the great Shepherd of the church should take up the work laid down by our departed brother and minister to the congregation now sorely bereaved.

Other business to engage the attention of the alliance was the following:

S. L. Gorbell, manager of the Seamen's Mission, invited the pastors of the alliance to conduct special services for seamen on the last Sunday in February. On motion the request was accorded to.

Rev. Dr. Gates read a paper entitled:
"Paul's Letter to the Galatians." A vote of thanks was tendered him.

The secretary of the alliance was instructed to take immediate action on the part of the committee having in hand the appointment of a chaplain for the jail.

Other business at today's meeting were Rev. S. Howard, in the chair; Rev. Dr.
Fotheringham, Rev. W. C. Hamilton, Rev. D. Lang, Rev. Dr. Sprague, Rev.
J. W. A. Nicholson, Rev. W. S. Fritchard, Rev. Dr. Gates, Rev. E. A.

AN OFT TOLD TALE.
McIntyre Discharged With Much Wholesome Advice from the Bench.

The story of youthful dissipation which has been brought out in the trial of the boys Henry Maher and William McIntyre for the stealing of liquor from the saloon of P. J. McGuire, was retold this morning before Judge McIntyre with new and astounding vividness.

Maher, it will be remembered, confessed his guilt on Friday and was discharged. The other boy, McIntyre, who was charged with the same offence, pleaded "not guilty." E. S.
Ritchie defended, while C. H. Ferguson prosecuted for the crown. The trial was conducted under the Speedy Trials Act.

The witnesses examined were: Thos.
Donovan, driver for the Dominion Express Company; Geo. McElhinny, a lad sixteen years old, a member of the gang of boys; and Officer Finlay, who made the arrest. Their evidence was largely a repetition of that taken at the previous hearings. However, there was nothing in it that directly incrim-inated McIntyre as one of the thieves of the liquor. If anything, it was in favor, as two of the witnesses swore that McIntyre remained in the barn all that night up to the time of his arrest and when the liquor was brought in and produced refused to take a drink.
Some of the boys drank to intoxication and there was enough rum to keep them going for a couple of days. A half a dozen bottles taken from the barn were produced in court, two of them being untouched. They were whiskey bottles.

It came out in the evidence that the boys were congregating in this barn, which is the Dominion Express Company's barn on Pond street, against the instructions of Manager Abbott.
His honor upbraided Donovan for abusing his employer's confidence.

McIntyre was discharged by his honor, who said: "I am astounded that parents should allow their children to be out so late at night. It is simply disgraceful. I warn you, Mc-Intyre, to call a halt, or you will get into that path which ends in shame and disgrace. Keep good company and by doing so you will avoid the taint of bad influences. You are young men and you are too good a boy to be found in the company you were in on that night. Let my advice mean to you the turning over of a new leaf. The fact that your employers bailed you out shows that there is some good in you and I believe you are able to wipe out this blot against you. You may go."

The regular meeting of the W. C. T.
U. will be held at the rooms on Germain street at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

THE LOCAL CHAMPIONSHIP.
It is not yet decided in which rink the M. P. A. A. championships will be held this year, which in itself will be a matter of considerable concern among the flyers, as the different rinks afford special advantages or disadvantages to the skaters, all of whom seem to have a style peculiar to themselves.
Now that Price has bobbed to the front and Logan's stock has taken so big a boom, there is sure to be a lot of great hustling when the skating premiership of Lower Canada is to be decided. If Bart Duffy enters the arena, also, along with Bolyea, Merritt, Dalton, Willis and others, the field will afford a lot of uncertainties.

FROST AND FRUIT.
Letters were received in the city today confirming the cable reports of some days ago of the great damage done to oranges and lemons in Spain by recent heavy frosts.

The Allan line Parian with a large consignment of Spanish oranges is due here tomorrow. The fruit was shipped from Spain before the frosts struck there and is consequently all right.
Today's advice, however, states that all further shipments will not be fit for re-shipment as the frost has had the effect of drying up the fruit and in other ways damaging it.

The steamer Tartar left Yokohama Saturday afternoon for Vancouver.

(Special to the Star.)
MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—A deputation of the American Fish and Game Protection Association, which included John T. Finnie, vice-president; E. T. D.
Chambers, secretary; ex-Governor Nelson W. Fish, of Vermont; and H. G.
Elliott and H. R. Charlton, were received by Hon. Raymond Prefontaine this morning. They presented a report signed by Premier Tweedie of New Brunswick, president of the association, and adopted at the recent annual meeting at St. John, N. B., praying for the re-passing of the order in council of Feb. 1902, prohibiting seining in Mississquoi Bay, where pike-perch, of which $6,000,000 were planted by the United States government in four years, come to spawn at the time netters are permitted to take them. Mr. Prefontaine promised to ask the provincial government to suspend the issue of netting licenses pending consideration of the total prohibition of seining operations.

WOODSTOCK FIRE.
Clark's House on Albert Street Badly Damaged.

(Special to the Star.)
WOODSTOCK, N. B., Feb. 6.—A house on Albert street, occupied by Harleigh Clark, was badly scorched by fire yesterday afternoon. It is supposed the fire originated from a defective fuse. The fire department was soon on hand and had to use the water freely before getting the flames in hand.
The house and furniture were badly damaged. Both were covered by insurance.

IT WAS ALE, NOT SOFT BEER.
A complaint was made this morning by Liquor License Inspector John B.
Jones against George Baxter, who is the holder of a beer license and conducts a small shop on Main street, near the head of Long Wharf.

On Saturday evening the Inspector, in company with Sergeant Kilpatrick, visited all the beer shops on Main street and vicinity, but in all, with the exception of Baxter's, they found the law complied with. At Baxter's they made quite a haul, finding forty-four bottles of ale.

At first glance, or in fact by a careful inspection of the outside, the bottles looked harmless. The corks were in in the peculiar fashion of root beer bottles, each carefully tied down with a string. When one of the bottles was opened the fact was soon apparent, as it contained ale.

The officers claim that the bottles were purchased from a local brewer and that his labels have been washed off and the capsules and wire removed from the corks and necks of the bottles and string and cord substituted.
It is understood that the matter has been going on for some time.

George Dunham, of C. K. Short's pharmacy, will leave on Wednesday commence a drug business at Stanley, York county, a district in which there has never been a store of that kind.
Mr. Dunham, who is president of the Drug Clerk's Association here, is very popular and will be greatly missed.

Captain Richard Stackhouse, of Portland street, North End, one of the old-time shipbuilders, is seriously ill.
