One Sabbath evening, with my family excured me, we were talking over the seene of the text. In the wide open eyes and the quick interrogations and the bleached checks I realized what a old city, shorter by name than any other city in the ages, spelled with two question. On a former occasion, in a streightforward, face to face fight, they had been defeated, but now they are going to take it by ambuscade. General Joshua has two divisions in his army. The one division the battlewern commander will lead himself, the other division he sends off to encamp cety of Ai. No torches, no lanterns, no sound of heavy battalions, but 30,000 swarthy warriers moving in silence, ereaking only in a whisper; no clickirg of swords against shields, lest the watchmen of Ai discover it and the strategem be a failure. If the roistering soldier in the Israelitish army forgets kimself, all along the line the

Joshua takes the other division, the one with which he is to march, and puts it on the north side of the city of Ai and then spends the night in reconnectiving in the valley. There he is, thinking over the fortunes of the coming day with something of the feelings of Wellington the night before Westerloo or of Meade and Lee the night before Gettysburg. There he stands in the night and says to himself: "Yender is the division in amtush on the west side of Ai. Here is the division I have under my especial command on the north side of Ai. There is the old city slumbering in its sin. Tomorrow will be the battle.' Look! The morning already begins to tip the bills. The military officers of Ai look out in the morning very early, and, while they do not see the division in ambush, they behold the other divisions of Joshua, and the cry "To arms! To arms!" rings through all the streets of the cld town, and every sword, whether hacked and bent or newly welded, is brought out, and all the inhabitants of the city of Al pour through the gates, an infuriated torrent, and their cry is, "Come, we'll make quick work with Joshua and his

than Joshua gives such a command as he seldom gave-"Fall back!" Why they could not believe their own ears! Is Joshua's courage failing him? The retreat is beaten, and the Israelites are fiying, throwing blankets and canteens en every side under this worse than Bull Run defeat. And you ought to hear the soldiers of Ai cheer and cheer. But they huzza too soon. The men lying in ambush are straining their vision to get some signal from Joshua that they may know what time to drop upon the city. Joshua takes his burrished spear, glittering in the sun like a shaft of doom, and points it toward the city, and when the men up yonder in the ambush see it with hawk-like swcop they drop upon Ai and without stroke of sword or stab of spear take the city and put it to the torch.

So much for the division that was in ambush. How about the division under Joshua's command? No sooner does Joshua stop in the flight than all and he fell back and back, down lowhis men stor with him, and as he wheels they wheel, for in a voice of pit below pit, until he seemed to strike thunder he cried "Halt!" one strong the bottom of objurgation and scorn arm driving back a torrent of flying and torture. Oh, the long, loud, jubiltroops. And then, as he points; his ant shout of hell at the defeat of the spear through the golden light to the Lord God Almighty! fated city, his treeps know that they are to start for it. What a scene it was when the division in ambush which had taken the city marched down against the men of Ai on the one side, and the troops under Joshua doubled up their enemies from the other elde, and the men of Ai were caught between these two hurricanes of Israelitish courage, thrust before and belind, stabbed in breast and back. ground between the upper and the nether milistones of God's indignation! Woe to the city of Ai! Cheer for Is-

VICTORIOUS RETREAT.

Lasson the first: There is such a thing as victorious retreat. Joshua's falling back was the first chapter in Tis successful besiegement. And there are times in your life when the best thing you can do is to run. You were ruce the victim of strong drink. The demijohn and the decanter were your flerce fees. They came down upon you with greater fury than the men of Ai upon the men of Josana. Your only safety is to get away from them. Your dissipating companions will come around you for your everthrow. Run for your life! Fall back! Fall back from the drinking saloon! Fall back your advance; your retreat is your victory. There is a saloon down on the ruin of your soul. Then why do you go along that street? Why do you rot ross through some other street rather than by the place of your calamity? A spccnful of brandy taken for medicinal purposes by a man who 20 years before had been reformed frem Grunkenness hurled into inebriety and the grave one of the best friends I ever had. Retreat is

Here is a converted infidel. He is so strong now in his faith in the gospel are you reading? Belingbroke? Andrew Jackson Davis' tracts? Tyndall's Glasgow university address? Drop them and run. You will be an infide before you die unless you quit that. These men of Ai will be too much for file of unbelief. Fly before they cut

* WASHINGTON, April 8,-From an with their javelins. There are peop overwhelming temptations, and men of Ai made a morning meal

So, also, there is victorious retrea in the religious world. Thousands of times the kingdom of Christ has seen ed to fall back. When the blood of the Scotch Covenanters gave a deeper dy the Vaudois of France chose extermin thrilling drama it was. There is the ation rather than make an unchristian surrender, when on St. Bartholomew's day mounted assassins rode through the streets of Paris, crying "Kill letters, A, I, Ai. Joshua and his men the streets of Paris, crying "Kill went to take it. How to do it is the Blaceletting is good in August' Kill Death to the Huguenots! kill!" whe Lady Jane Grey's head rolled from the executioner's block, when Calvin was imprisoned in the castle, when John Knex died for the truth, when John But yan lay rotting in Bedford jail, saying: "If God will noip me and my physical life continues. I will stay here until the mass grows on my eyebrows rather than give up my faith." The days of retreat for the church were days of victory.

The pilgrim fathers fell back from the other side of the sea to Plymouth Rock, but now are marshalling a con-tinent for the Christianization of the world. The church of Christ falling back from Piedmont, falling back from Rue St. Jacques, falling back from St Denis, failing back from Wurtemberg castles, falling back from the Brussel market place, yet all the time triumphing. Netwithstanding all the shocking reverses which the church of Christ suffers, what do we see today? Twelve thousand missionaries of the cross on heathen grounds, eighty thousand ministers of Jesus Christ in this land: at kest four hundred mallions of Christians on the earth. Falling back, yet advancing until the old

The Lion of Judah shall break the chain And give us the victory again and

REASONS FOR RETREAT

But there is a more marked illustraion of victorious retreat in the life of our Joshua, the Jesus of the ages. First falling back from an appalling height to an appalling depth, falling from celestial hills to terrestrial valleys. from throne to manger; yet that did not seem to suffice him as a retreat. Falling back still farther from Bethtehem to Nazareth, from Nazareth to Terusalem back from Jerusalem to Golgotha, back from Golgotha to the mausoleum in the rock, back down over the precipices of perdition until he walked amid the caverns of the etercome out against the troops of Joshua nat captives and drank of the wine of Ahabs, and the Jezebels, and the Belshazzars. Oh, men of the pulpit, and men of the pew. 'Christ's descent from heaven to earth does not measure half the distance! It was from glory to perdition. He descended into helf. All the records of earthly retreat are as nothing compared with this falling back. Santa Anna, with the fragments of his army flying over the plateau of Mexico and Napoleon and his army rereating from Moscow into the awful snows of Russia are not worthy to be mentioned with this retreat, when all the powers of darkness seem to be pursuing Christ as he fell back, until the body of him who came to do such wonderful things lay pulseless and stripped. Methinks that the city of Ai was not so emptied of its inhabitants when they went to pursue Joshua as perdition was emptied of devils when they started for the pursuit of Christ, er, down lower, chasm below chasm,

But let not the powers of darkness rejoice quite so soon. Do you hear that disturbance in the tomb of Arimathea? I hear the sheet rending! What means that stone hurled down the side of the hill? Who is this coming out? Push him back! The dead must not stalk in this open sunlight. Oh, it is our Joshua. Let him come out. He comes forth and starts for the city. He takes the spear of the Roman guard and points that way Church jubilant marches up on one side and the church triumphant marches down on the other side. And the powers of darkness being caught between these usnks of celestial and terrestrial valor nothing is left of them save just enough to illustrate the direful overthrow of hell and our Joshua's eternal victory. On his head be all the crowns. In his hands be all the scepters. At his feet be all the human thearts; and here, Lord, is one of them.

SIN'S TRIUMPH BRIEF. Lesson the second The triumph of the wicked is short. Did you ever see an army in a panic? There is nothing so uncontrollable. If you had stood at Long Bridge, Washington, at the opening of our sad civil war, you would from the wine party! Your flight is know what it is to see an army run And when those men of Ai looked out and saw those men of Joshua in a next street that has almost been the stampede they expected easy work. They would scatter them as the equinox the leaves. Oh, the gleeful and jubilant descent of the men of Ai upon the men of Joshua! But their exhilaration was brief; for the lide of battle turned, and these quondam conquerors left their miserable carcusses in the wilderness of Bethaven. So it always is. The triumph of the wicked is short. You make $20,000 at the gambling table. Do you expect to keep it? You will die in the poorhouse. You made a fortune by iniquitous traffic. he says he can read anything. What Do you expect to keep it? Your money will scatter, or it will stay long enough to curse vour children after vou are dead. Call over the roll of bad men who propered and see how short was their prosperity. For awhile, like the men of Ai, they went from conquest to you. Turn your back on the rank and conquest; but after awhile disaster rolled back upon them, and they were you with their swards and transfix you divided into three parts. Misfortune took their property, the grave took their body, and the lost world took their soul. I am always interested in the building of palaces of dissipation. I like to have them built of the best granite and have the pillars made very firm. God is going to conquer them, and they will be turned into asylums and art galleries and churches. The stores in which fraudulent men do stores in which fraudulent men do business, the splendid banking institu-tions where the president and cashier put all their property in their wives' hands and then fail for $500,300, all these institutions are to become the places where honest Christian men do

How long will it take your boys to get through you ill-gotten gains? The wicked do not live out half their days. For awhile they swagger and strut and make a great splash in the newsand make a great splash in the news-papers, but after awhile it all dwindles lown into a brief paragraph; "Died uddenly, April 3, 1900, at 35 years of age. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funerat on Wednesday, at 2 o'clock, from his late residence on Madison square. Insome of them took prussic add, Some of them took prussic add, Some of them took prussic add, Some of them fell under the snap-of a Derringer pistol. Some of them spent their days in a lunatic asylum. Where are James Fisk, the libertine, and all the other misdemeanants? The wicked do red do up, Hildebrand and Henry II. and Robespierre, and with blistering and blaspheming and asher livering and bogue. O world of darkness! ming and ashen lips, hiss out, The triumph of the wicked is short!

AWATTING OPPORTUNITIES. Lesson the third: How much may be complished by lying in ambush for pportunities. Are you hypercritical Joshua's manoeuver? Do you say that it was cheating for him to take that city by ambuscade? Was it wrong for Washington to kindle campfires on Jersey Leights, giving the imreasion to the opposing force that a I feel on my head the hands of Christ great army was encamped there when there was none at all? I answer, if the war was right, then Joshua right in his strategem. He violated no flag of truce, he broke no treaty, but by a lawful ambuscade captured the city of Ai. Oh, that we all knew how to be in amough for opportunities to serve Cod. The best of our conortunities do not lie on the surface, but are secreted. By tact, by strategem, by Christian ambuscade, you may tak almost any castle of sin for Christ Come up toward men with a regular eslegement of argument and you will e defeated, but just wait until the door of their hearts is set ajar, or they are off their guard, or their severe caution is away from home, and then drop in on them from a Christian ambuscude. There has been many a man up to his chin in scientific port-theological opponents, who nevertheless has been discomfited and captured for God by some little 3-year-old child who has got up and put her snowy larms around his sinewy neck and asked some simple question about God. a march on the devil! Cheat that man into heaven! A $5 treatise that will stand all the laws of homiletics may fail to do that which a penny tract of Christian entreaty may accomplish. Oh, for more Christians in ambuscade not lying in idleness, but waiting for a quick spring, walting until just the night time comes! Do not talk to a man about the vanity of this world on a day when he has bought something at "12" and is going to sell it at "15." But talk to him about the vanty of the world on the day when he has bought something at "15" and is compelled to sell it at "12!" Do not rub a man's disposition the wrong way; do not talk in perfervid style to the phlegmatic or try to tickle a torrid temperament with an loycle. You can take any man for Christ if you know how to get at him. Do not send word to him that tomorrow at 10 o'clock you propose to open your batteries

folios which proved there was no

upon him, but come on him by a skilful, persevering God directed ambus-

Lesson the fourth: The importance of taking good aim. There is Joshua, but how are those people in ambush up yonder to know when they are to drop on the city, and how are these men around Joshua to know when they are to stop their flight and advance? There must be some signal-a signal to stop the one division and to start the other. Joshua with a spear on which were ordinarily hung the colors of battle, points toward the city. He stands in such a conspicuous position, and there is so much of the morning light dripping from that spear tip. that all around the herizon they see it. It was as much as to say: "There is the city. Take it!"

Glod knows and we know that a great deal of Christian attack amounts to nothing simply because we do not take good aim. Nobody knows, and we do not know ourselves which point we want to take when we ought to make up our minds what God vill have us to do and point our spear in that direction and then harl our body, mind, oul, time, eternity at that one target. In our pulpits and pews and Sunday schools and prayer meetings we want to get a reputation for saying pretty things, and so we point our spear towards flowers, or we want a reputation for saying sublime things, and we point our spear toward the stars, or we want to get a reputation for historical knowledge, and we point our spear toward the past, or we want to get a reputation for great liberality, so we wing our spear all around, while there the old world, proud, rebellious and armed against all righteousness, and instead of running any farther away from dits pursuit, we ought to turn around, plant our foot in the strength of the eternal God, lift the old cross and point it in the direction of the world's conquest till, the redeemed of earth, marching up from one side, and the glorified of heaven marching down from the other side, the last battlement of sin is compelled to swing out the streamers of Emanuel. O church of God, take aim and con-

ASTRACA PERMANENTLY CURED.

For a Number of Years Mrs. Whetham, Mount Forest, Ont., Suffered From Asthma. Doctors Said Nothing Could Help, but Catarrhozone Cured Her After All Else Had Failed.

After All Bise Had Failed.

"For a number of years," writes Mra. Whetham, "I was a great sufferer from asthma. I tried without avail a great number of remedles and spent a great deal of money on doctors and specialists, but nothing seemed to help me. At times I was so bad that I found it necessary to have the doors and windows open to get my breath, and despaired of ever finding relief. Finally our druggist asked me to try Catarrhozone; all his customers, he said spoke well of it. I did try it, although I did not expect to receive any benefit from it. In a few days I began to feel a little better and kept on using Catarrhozone, and within a month I was perfectly cured. That was about four months ago, and since then no symptoms of my old trouble have returned. I take pleasare in recommending Catarrhozone as a perfect cure for asthma. It is pleasant and convenient to use."

The success of Catarrhozone Treatment for Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis and Throat Troubles has been unique. It never fails to cure the most chronic cases, and the method of treatment, that of inhalation of medicated air, is a very pleasant and effective one.

You simply breathe in the medicated air; it does the curing. It spreads to all portions of the lungs, bronchial tubes and Putnam's Corn Extractor cures corns and warts without pain in 24 hours. Try it.

God would strike me dead if I dared to point the spear in any other direction. Oh, for some of the courage and enthusiasm of Joshua! He flung two armies from the tip of that spear. It is sinful for us to rest unless it is to get stronger muscle and fresher train and purer heart for God's work. in a new ordination. Do you not feel the same omnipotent pressure. There is a work for all of us. Oh, that we might stand up side by side and point the spear toward the city! It ought to be taken. It will be taken. cities are drifting off toward loose religion or what is called "liberal Christianity," which is so Mberal that it surrenders the rectitude of the throne of the Almighty. That is liberality with a vengeance. Let us decide upon the work which we as Christian men have to do and in the strength of God go to work and do it.

It is comparatively easy to keep on a parade amid a shower of bouquets and hand clappings and the whole street full of enthusiastic huzzas, but it is not so easy to stand up in the day of battle, the face blackened with smoke, the uniform covered with the earth plowed up by whizzing bullets and hursting shalls, half the regiment pen a scimeter flung into the heart of out to pieces, and yet the commander crying "Florward, march!" Then it requires old fashioned valor. My friends the great trouble of the kingdom of God in this day is the cowards. They do splendidly on a parade day and at communion, when they have on their but in the great battle of life, at the first sharpshooting of skepticism, they dooge, they fall back, they break We confront the enemy, we ranks. open the battle against fraud, and, lo we find on our side a great many people that do not try to pay their Jebts And we open the battle against intemperance, and we find on our own side a great many people who drink too much. And we open the battle against profanity, and we find on our side a great many men who make hard speeches. And we open the battle against infidelity, and, lo, we find on our own side a great many men who are not quite sure about the book of Jonah. And while we ought to be massing our troops and bringing forth more than the united courage of Austerlitz and Waterloo and Gettysburg ve have to be spending our time in nunting up ambuscades. There are a creat many in the Lord's army who would like to go out on a campaign with satin slippers and holding umbrellas over their heads to keep off the heavy dew and having rations of canvasback ducks and lemon custards. If they cannot have them, they want to go home. They think it is unhealthy among so many bullets!

A YEAR OF MERCIES. I believe that the next year will be the most stupendous year that heaven ever saw. The nations are quaking row with the coming of God. It will be a year of success for the men of Joshua, but of doom for the men of Ai. You put your ear to the rail track, and you can hear the train coming miles away. So I put my ear to the ground, and I hear the thundering on of the lightning train of God's mercies and judgments. The mercy of God is first to be tried upon this nation. It will be preached in the pulpits, in the atres, on the streets-everywhere. People will be invited to accept the mercy of the gospel, and the story and the song and the prayer will be "mercy." But suppose they do not accept the offer of mercy-what then? Then God will come with his judgments, and the grasshoppers will eat the crops and the freshets will devastate the valleys, and the defalcations will swallow the money markets, and the fires will burn the cities and the earth, will quake from pole to pole. Year of mercies and of judgments; year of invitation and of warning; year of jubilee and of woe. Which side are you going to be on-with the men of All or the men of Joshua? Pass over this Sabbath into the ranks of Israel. I would clap my hands at the joy of your coming. You will have a poor chance for this world and the world to come without Jesus. You cannot stand what is to come upon you and upon the world unless you have the pardon and the confort and the help of Christ. Come over! On this side are your happiness and safety; on the other side are disquietude and despair. Eternal defeat to the men of Ai! Eternal victory to the men of Joshua!
