LOCAL GOVERNMENT IN SESSION WEDNESDAY

Big Power Plant Will be Developed at Grand Falls—J. V. Anglin's Salary Will be $2,500.

The local government held several meetings in the city Wednesday and got through quite a lot of work. They sat first as the asylum commissioners and appointed Dr. Anglin, now assistant superintendent of the Verdun asylum in Montreal, to the position of superintendent of the New Brunswick Provincial Hospital for the Treatment of Nervous Diseases. Dr. Anglin's salary is to be $2,500 per year, the same as was paid his predecessor, Dr. Geo. A. Hetherington, and in addition he will be allowed a reasonable though not a fixed amount for living expenses. The appointment is to date from Sept. 1st.

It is understood that a short time ago, when Premier Tweedie and Attorney General Pugsley were in Montreal they met Dr. Anglin, and made a proposition to him, with the result that on Tuesday his application for the superintendency of the N. B. Asylum was received. It was considered at the meeting in Fredericton and the appointment finally made in St. John yesterday.

Dr. Anglin comes highly recommended by the best Canadian medical men. He is about forty-five years of age and married. The government next resolved itself into the board of education, at which Chief Superintendent Dr. Inch was present. B. S. Palmer of Hampstead was heard, and applied for an order for the establishment of a school at Hampstead. Mr. Palmer stated that the district is a rich one, quite able to support a school, although there are not a great many children in the place. Those children who now attend school have to travel too great a distance. The necessary order for the establishment was passed.

The question of appointing a board of trustees for the consolidated school at Riverside, Albert Co., came up, but was allowed to stand over until a further meeting of the board on July 12th, at which time the trustees will be appointed and all necessary orders passed in regard to the consolidated district.

The government next sat as executive council, the meeting being an adjourned one. A. P. Barnhill, solicitor for the Electro-Manganese Co., was present. The proposed agreement with reference to the development and manufacture of ferro manganese from bog ores was considered and determined upon. These ores are found in districts all over the province, and especially in Albert county. The process of manufacturing ferro manganese from them is said to be a remarkably inexpensive one, but great power is required, and in order to obtain this power the company ask the right to harness Grand Falls. The water power found there will be utilized for the production of electricity which will be used in the manufacture. It is expected that the industry will be developed to one of some importance. The ores will be transported to the plant which is to be erected at Grand Falls and all the work done there. The agreement respecting the harnessing of Grand Falls was also considered and decided upon.

The government decided to bring the question of appointing a board of trustees for the consolidated school at Riverside, Albert Co., came up, but was allowed to stand over until a further meeting of the board on July 12th, at which time the trustees will be appointed and all necessary orders passed in regard to the consolidated district.

HORSE SHOW. To be Conducted Along With the Exhibition.

Big Upper Canadian Firm Secures Lots of Space—Natural History Exhibit to be on a Grand Scale.

St. John is to have a horse show as well as an exhibition this year. This was decided at a meeting of the executive of the Exhibition Association held last evening at which a number of important matters in connection with the coming fair were discussed.

It was decided to appropriate six ad. It was decided to appropriate $800 additional to the prize list, this sum to be devoted to prizes for the horse show. Last year's event was such a success that the directors felt assured that another of the same will add greatly to the attractiveness of the exhibition.

Although the first and last show held in St. John was on a pretty large scale, the next one will be of even greater magnitude. This concern has been devoted to this part of the exhibition, and the show will take place on the green. In front of the grand stand a sufficient number of boxes will be arranged. It is probable that a special committee of horsemen will be asked to assist the Exhibition Association in making this show a big success. The programme will be published as soon as possible.

Other work in connection with the exhibition is going along splendidly. Special amusement features are to be provided and although no particular attractions have been decided upon, the executive has determined to secure an entirely novel and attractive programme for amusement hall. Shurly & Dietrich of Galt, Ont., the big saw manufacturers, yesterday secured a very large space in the main building and will place there a magnificent exhibit. This concern has for years been among the largest exhibitors in Toronto and Ottawa, and the space secured by them here is sufficient for a most prominent display.

The natural history feature of the exhibition this year will be far better than those undertaken by any other exhibition in Canada. W. A. McIntosh has been engaged to superintend this work. The school children's weed competition is arousing much interest and already over 200 entries have been received from children representing every county in the province. City workmen are now engaged in making the necessary repairs on the roof of the exhibition building and considerable color washing will later be done on the inside.

Bicyclists and all athletes depend on BENTLEY'S Liniment to keep their joints limber and muscles in trim.

JURY DISAGREE

In the Assault Case of Starkey v. Ferris.

In the circuit court yesterday afternoon hearing in the case of Starkey v. Ferris was concluded. Evidence was taken and counsel addressed the jury. The jury retired at ten minutes to five and after an absence of over an hour returned to court and stated that they were unable to agree, whereupon they were discharged. It is stated that the jurors were unanimously in favor of the defendant on the first count in the declaration and stood four to three on the second count.

This action was for assault, the plaintiff claiming that he was assaulted by the defendant, who is postmaster at Young's Cove, when he went there to get his mail on Christmas day last, and on the following day, and a second assault on the 10th, whereupon they were discharged. It is stated that the jurors were unanimously in favor of the defendant on the first count in the declaration and stood four to three on the second count.

The first witness examined was D. Russell, who identified the accused as the persons whom he saw at the station in St. John on Friday last, one of whom, Williams, he identified as the man who jostled him while entering the first-class car of the Montreal express. He detailed the position of the prisoners and of Mayor Baxter and other passengers when entering the car, and explained how all three of accused were attempting to block the passages leading to the seats. He then detailed the steps leading to the arrest of prisoners after the robbery was discovered, and of the suspicious actions of the prisoners while on the second-class car. His evidence, while it proved nothing conclusively against the prisoners, yet cast grave suspicion on them.

The second witness was Dr. Henry M. Amel of the geological survey, Ottawa. He swore that while stepping down from the train he was assaulted by the prisoners, trying to block his way. He believed it to be the prisoner Williams, but would not swear positively. Nothing more developed in his examination.

The next witness was Count de Bury of St. John. His evidence merely detailed his movements Friday afternoon, and he stated that he saw nothing of an incriminating nature against the prisoners. The last witness was James Shea of Fairville, who swore to finding Baron de Halsewyn's pocketbook with the money gone, along the track of the C. P. R.

No other witnesses were present for the prosecution and an adjournment was made till tomorrow morning. The prisoners were taken to the jail, and the accused counting the money on the train, will be heard.

FREDERICTON, N. B., June 23.—The preliminary examination of the three pickpockets, Williams, Howard and Grant, was continued this morning before the police magistrate in the presence of a large crowd of spectators. They were without the American legal adviser, he having left on the evening train for Boston yesterday. During the time he was in court he did not impress the judge or spectators with his ability. In fact, he rather amazed all hands with his interruptions.

The court did not sit until after the arrival of the noon train bearing Baron de Halsewyn from Montreal, one of the persons robbed. The first witness examined was James R. Gardner, C. P. R. policeman at McAdam, who arrested the prisoners, searched them, and brought them to Fredericton Friday night. He detailed the circumstances of the arrest and of searching the prisoners. On Williams he found $83; on Grant he found $45, all Canadian money, and on Howard $7 in American $1 bills. No tickets or baggage was found on the prisoners when searched, and none claim to have any except Howard, whose small hand bag went to Vancouver, and which has not yet been recovered.

At 2:30 Baron de Halsewyn gave his evidence. He told of having been jostled in the crowd at the depot at St. John when leaving the train, and of discovering his loss almost immediately afterwards and of the steps taken to arrest prisoners, as detailed by Mr. Jack in his evidence yesterday.

He did not positively identify the prisoners, but their presence was somewhat familiar to him. The last witness was Miss Margaret Sadler of Calais, Me., who saw the prisoners counting the money on the train. She could not tell how much there was, neither could she identify them. She was positive in her identification of Williams, the stout man, as being the person who received most of the money counted out. She could not identify the others, although they resembled in appearance the two men whom she saw with Williams.

This concluded the evidence and the prisoners were remanded till Saturday.

Hitherto the prisoners have refused to be photographed, but today the police magistrate told them that the ends of justice required that they should have their pictures taken. If they would not do so peacefully then it would be his duty to have their pictures taken by force. In due time they submitted and consented to be photographed. The pictures will be sent to Boston and the points to see if the police there can identify them.

The blacksmith shop of George McFarlane & Son at Nashuak was totally destroyed by fire this morning. The blaze caught from one of the chimneys and before sufficient aid arrived the structure was a total loss. The large carriage factory nearby was saved with considerably difficulty. The building was insured for $200, but the loss upon building and stock and tools will be nearly $1,000.

J. W. Clark, of Mauderville, Sunbury Co., brought down to St. John yesterday a lot of cabbage. The price received was encouraging, as high as 70 cents being paid per dozen.

FREDERICTON, June 23.—The preliminary examination of John Williams, James Grant and James Howard, charged with robbing the persons of Mayor Baxter of Portland, Me., and Baron de Halsewyn, secretary to the French consul general at Montreal, was begun at eleven o'clock this morning before Police Magistrate Marsh.

The first witness examined was D. ST. PETERSBURG, June 23, 6:16 p. m.—A report has just reached the Associated Press correspondent that the Russian ironclad Neiron was rammed and sunk. The composition of the Russian force has not been ascertained beyond the fact that it is said to have consisted of all branches of the service. The officials here do not confirm the report.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 23, 6:30 p. m.—The submarine boat Defin sank on her mooring in the Neva off the Baltic shipbuilding yards at 11 o'clock this morning with the loss of an officer, Lieut. Cherkoff, and twenty men. The accident was due partly to the excessive number of the crew, mostly inexperienced men, and chiefly to the unfortunate attempt of a man to escape while his comrades were descending down the manhole cover. The officer and men detailed for submarine boat instruction had assembled at the Baltic yard and three officers decided to go down in the Defin although the captain was not present, relying on the competence of his skilled crew. A score of novices were anxious to go with the three officers. The Defin's capacity is ten men, instead of which thirty-two entered the boat, bringing her manhole in dangerous proximity to the river level. Just then a tug passed, sending a heavy wash against the boat. So soon as the water splashed into the submarine boat's interior it created a panic among the novices and one of the tried to get out of the manhole, while the other hands were screwing down the manhole cover. The water rushed in and as the submerged vessel sank like a stone the officers and some of the men were saved by being blown up through the manhole by the rush of escaping air. The Defin shortly after was raised. The Defin underwent a successful trial in 1903.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—The total losses in the Dalmian fight are not yet known. Eighty wounded have arrived here and on Sunday last a hospital train with 200 passed, going to Lido Yang. The fighting lasted the whole of June 26 and June 27, and the Japanese successfully pushed the Russians from three positions, occupying them with artillery as the defenders retired. Wounded Russians recounting the two days' fight say that the Japanese again demonstrated their reliance on their artillery and that they were greatly superior both in number of men and in guns. On the second day of the fight they brought up a battery of heavy guns, which they used to shell the Russian positions, and caused severe loss. The Japanese artillery practice, however, was inaccurate, and as is usual, they several times shot at empty positions or at the Russian columns, where they shot over the Russian columns.

A Russian rifle brigade held the position until noon, but the face of a heavy artillery fire, but the Russians were finally outflanked by infantry and cavalry. The Japanese actually getting a field battery in the rear of the Russian position. When the brigade fell performance of the Russian position, forced a general retreat.
