W. A. Allison Arrested in San Francisco Thursday for Passing a Bogus Draft Two Years Ago.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 16 .- Two years ago J. G. Herr of this city advanced on a worthless $50 draft on the New Brunswick Newspaper Association of St. John signed by W. A. Allison of St. John, an elderly stranger who had won his friendship. The draft was eventually returned from a Canadian bank marked "no authority to draw." All efforts to locate Allison were un availing until yesterday, when Herr came across him in a San Francisco saloon, immediately recognizing him and turning him over to the police. Allison alleged that he had full authority to draw on the association funds, and assures the police that his family in New Brunswick will make good the amount.
