Fredericton Correspondence.

FREDERICTON, Feb. 28.

Two occurrences of some interest to the readers of the Journal took place in the House yesterday.

Mr. McPhelin asked the Provincial Secretary a question about petitions from traders in Woodstock for cancelling of bonds given for duties on goods destroyed in the great fire. He wished to know what action the Government had taken in the matter; and whether the Secretary, when the House went into committee of supply, would be prepared to ask an appropriation in order to allow the Govt. to cancel these bonds.

The Provincial Secretary replied that the petitions were now under consideration of the Govt.; and that it was not necessary, if the Govt. decided to cancel the bonds, to ask an appropriation for that purpose.

Mr. Connell seemed decidedly irritated that Mr. McPhelin should have dared to ask a question touching Carleton, and explained that he had kept the matter in mind, and was looking after it himself, although he had not at present thought it necessary to ask the Secretary any formal question about it. Does Mr. Connell really suppose that Carleton is his own peculiar property, about which no other member of the House must dare to open his mouth?

Soon after Mr. Wilmot asked another question, which Mr. Connell probably was not at all anxious to ask. Mr. Wilmot asked the Attorney General about the Hoyt case. Mr. Fisher replied that while he was endeavoring to make inquiries through the Police the boy turned up. He and Tilley stated that he had been seen on board a steamer coming to St. John by Mr. Caldwell of Woodstock and Mr. John H. Reid of Fredericton. Mr. McPherson in reference to the story that Hoyt shipped upon the Avon for Liverpool, stated that this vessel was freighted by himself, that having heard this story of Hoyt, whom he well knew, being on board, he went on board the vessel, then lying outside Partridge Island, purposely to see if the boy was on board. There were sixteen darkies in the crew, but Hoyt was not among them. When the vessel arrived at Liverpool he again inquired if Hoyt had turned up, and was told that he had not. Mr. Tilley thought this very strange, as the mate of the vessel had written to Fredericton, stating a conversation which he had with Hoyt on board the vessel.

It does seem to me that, in view of these contradictions, this matter has not yet been properly cleared up.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

FREDERICTON, March 19.

Fisher refuses to resign Attorney Generalship. Has been dismissed from Executive Council. Tilley, with the other members, carry on Government, pending further action.

Tilley moved supply. Wilmot moved an amendment, "That it is not expedient at present to take into consideration the granting supply to Her Majesty, pending Report of Land Committee."

Wilmot, Gray, Connell, McPhelin, Lawrence, Allan, Botsford, spoke in favor of the amendment. They urged no necessity for haste and in view of the important interest involved in Land Investigation, which to some extent might implicate other members of Government, made it desirable that before granting supply the report of Investigation Committee should be made. Sympathy with Fisher generally expressed, and belief that Surveyor General and other members of Government were proved sufficiently delinquent, to warrant on ground of general responsibility, retirement of Government. Intimated if supply granted dissolution will follow. Against the amendment, the speakers were Tilley, Steadman, Smith, Chandler, End, Hamington, Brown, and Watters. They contended sufficient delay already waiting action of Committee. No intention of dissolving House without full discussion of the report of the Committee, and all incident matters. Expressed regret at Fishers course. Questioned sincerity of expressed friendship by opposition. Charged upon advocates of the amendment being influenced not from any patriotic motives but merely to embarrass the Government and taking advantage of present circumstance to have revenge for past defeats. Tibbits moved adjourn debate to Friday allow Report, lost, 17-21. Debate then adjourned till to-morrow at 2 P. M.

Tibbits reported, Inches declined giving names of partners on grounds such reservation understood before sworn. In answer to questions, members of the Committee denied any understanding with Inches that he should be allowed to reserve testimony on any point.

MARCH, 20.

Yesterday Tilley moved supply at 12. Wilmot moved amendment, that inexpedient go into supply until Land Committee Reported.

Debate on amendment lasted all day, and was resumed to day at two. Gray, McPhelin, Lawrence, Allen pitched into Govt. Tilley, Smith, Steadman, Watters, and others replied. Sharp debate has been for years. Speeches of Lawrence and McPhelin particularly telling.

Conservatives came out strong and had the best of it by all odds.

We have received the Report of the Board of Commissioners and Superintendent of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum.

We are glad to see that there is at length some probability of the erection of the contemplated addition to the building, as the want of the room necessary for the proper care of its numerous inmates, has constantly been a serious drawback to the efficiency of the establishment.

A much needed improvement also has been effected, viz., the supply of water, by means of pipes from the Carleton Water Works.

The state of the asylum continues to be satisfactory, and gives further evidence, if that were needed, of the fitness for the office of the present Superintendent, Dr. Waddell, in his very plain and sensible Report, refers to the large number of patients who are a charge upon the public funds, in comparison to those who are provided for by their friends. Judging from the number given, one would suppose that insanity was a disease almost entirely confined to paupers, a fact which does not seem to have heretofore been recognized by medical statisticians.

We are in receipt of the Reports of the Chief Superintendent of Schools, the Postmaster General, the Chief Commissioner of Public Works, the Commissioners of the Marine Hospital of St. John, and the Board of Agriculture, and shall, as soon as we can possibly, devote a sufficient amount of time and space to doing them justice, make such remarks on each of them as may to us seem called for.

Arthur's Home Magazine for March has been received, as well filled as usual with useful matter.

The Agricultural Board terminated its session on Thursday last. The Provincial Exhibition will be held in Sussex Vale on the first Tuesday in October next, and will continue through the week. The Government have determined to appropriate $4,000 to be expended in procuring articles to be sent to the Great London Exhibition to be held there next year. The duty of selecting such articles as will serve to show to the world the mineral and agricultural wealth of New Brunswick, as well as the mechanical and manufacturing skill her people possess, and the inducements this Colony offers to settlement, will devolve upon the Executive Committee of the Board. The gentlemen composing the committee, are the following:—

R. Jardine, Esq.,	St. John.
J. D. M. Keator, Esq.,	Hammond River K. C.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE ETNA.

New York, March 14.

A debate had taken place in the House of Commons with relation to the Slave Trade, upon a Resolution declaring that all the efforts of Her Majesty's Government had been unable to suppress it.

Free labor in the West Indies was considered most efficient.

Lord Palmerston, and Lord John Russell, condemned the policy of the United States, which while preventing a search, permitted the prostitution of her flag!

Mr. Buxton said, he feared that the Southern Confederacy would revive the Slave Trade; and he trusted that Her Majesty's Government would not recognize that Confederacy, until stipulations were entered into, to the contrary.

On the second reading, the House of Commons agreed to the principle of the Bill for abolishing Church Rates.

In the French Senate, the Address in response to the Emperor's Speech, fully sustains his policy, and hands his protection of the Pope.

The Pope, on the other hand, declares that the Emperor Napoleon III., is responsible for all his recent troubles.

The Paris Bourse is drooping.

Nothing had been heard of the missing Steamship "Australasian."

Cousins Old Flour has declined 6d. Provisions dull, and declining. Cotton quiet.

There had been a serious insurrection at Sen-tai.

The Chinese rebels had captured Woosung, and a general massacre was taking place, when the French interfered on the score of humanity.

The inauguration of the Italian Parliament has been celebrated in several Venetian towns.

Victor Emanuel will shortly be proclaimed King of Italy from the Capitol.

The recent pamphlet was mutilated at the last moment to please some of them.

The Austrian Gazette remarks that the fall of Gnetz must necessarily react upon the Roman question, and France, pressed by England and Sardinia, cannot do otherwise than abandon the Pope as it has abandoned Francis II.

United States.

WASHINGTON, March 13.

The Southern Commissioners are still here. They have not yet been received by President Lincoln. They now await instructions from President Davis.

A Government messenger from Fort Sumter, brings despatches from Major Anderson, stating that the troops are well, but that the stock of salt provisions will be exhausted in a fortnight, and only limited supplies can be obtained from Charleston.

General Beauregard, Commander in Chief of the Army of the Southern Confederacy, telegraphs that he is prepared at all points, and that he defies the Government at Washington to reinforce, or supply Fort Sumter!

Affairs in Virginia lead to the conclusion that this State, well known as, "The Old Dominion," will secede, unless its demands be granted.

In accordance with the conciliatory course of policy laid down by Secretary Seward, it is now believed, that Fort Sumter, at Charleston, and Fort Pickens, at Pensacola, will be immediately evacuated, and left to be taken possession of, by the troops of the Southern Confederacy.

Agents for the Confederacy, located at Baltimore, are enlisting men, chiefly old soldiers, and marines, and forwarding them, in considerable numbers, to the Army of the Confederate States. The Emperor of the French has offered his mediation to settle the difficulty, between the United States and Peru.
