THE ST. JOHN CHRONICLE, published every Friday afternoon, by WILLIAM DURANT, at his Office in the Brick Building of Messrs. L. H. Dore & Son, west side Prince William Street.

MEMOIR OF M. PAUL DELAROCHE, THE GREAT HISTORICAL PAINTER. France—or, more properly speaking, Europe—has just sustained a severe loss by the decease of a man as remarkable for the originality of his genius as for the elevation and firmness of his upright character.

Delarocbe, in our thinking, "The Death of the Duke de Guise," exhibited in 1824. Truth itself shines in terrible reality in every countenance and attitude.

Maternal Insurance Company. JOSEPH FAIRWEATHER, Esq., President. Directors—J. W. LAWRENCE, S. K. FORBES, C. H. ESTABLISH, JOHN ANTONIO, SOLLICITORS—L. M. ROSSIGNOL, Esq., Secretary—ISAAC WOODWARD, Esquire.

ALARMING DISORDERS. Dyspepsia and derangement of the liver, the source of infirmity and suffering, and the cause of innumerable deaths, yield to these curatives, in all cases, however aggravated, acting as a mild purgative, alterative and tonic; they relieve the bowels, purify the fluids, and invigorate the system and the constitution at the same time.

UNDER COATS. In Dress, Frock, Jacket, Sack and Shooting Coat Styles—in Superfine Broad Cloth, Cassimere, Dooskin, Tweed, Housepan, Flannel, &c.

Miscellaneous Selections. HERAT—WHAT AND WHERE IS IT? Herat was formerly the capital of Khorsan. It is a city of no great architectural pretensions, whatever may be its importance of situation.

That, however, which most strikingly classed Paul Delarocbe as the leader of the new school, which took form and power towards the year 1820, was not so much the manner of his composition.

Among the paintings of this period, there is one which stands alone by its simplicity, boldness, and peculiar charm. It consists of a single figure, "A young Virgin Martyr," who has been taken into the tower, her hands bound with harsh cords, the beautiful countenance resting on the surface of the water.
