NEWS OF A DAY

Montreal Specialist Here
Dr. Edward Archibald, the surgical specialist of Montreal, arrived in the city yesterday for the purpose of performing an operation on E. Young's son, William. He will be assisted in the operation, which will take place this morning at the General Public Hospital, by Dr. G. G. Corbett, of this city.

The Canadian Coal Case

The case of F. P. Shaw and others vs Robinson and others was continued yesterday morning at 10.30 before Chief Justice Barker in the Chancery Division. Mr. Robinson testified yesterday morning. M.G. Teed, K.C., appeared for the plaintiffs and Hon. H. F. McLeod, K.C., and W. W. Allen, K.C., for the defendants.

A Presentation.

James Martin, a barber, who has for some time been employed in the Grand Union Hotel shop, left yesterday for Grand Falls, where he has accepted a position. Before his departure and on behalf of a number of his friends he was presented with a dress suit case by John Kelly, and Water-Proof Tents—Rain Will Not Spoil the Exhibition.

A sudden downpour of rain or a long-continued drizzle will have no effect on the patrons of the great Howe's London Shows when it exhibits here. The reason of this will be apparent to everyone who sees the huge tents that will be erected for the performance. They are all constructed of "mercized" ducking. This marvelous invention for the waterproofing of material has been in use for rain coats, but up to this year it has never been used for tents. People who have used "mercized" cloth know how it sheds water, and it was the knowledge of this that caused Howe's Great Shows to have all their tents made out of this material. It is quite a stride in advance of other shows, but it is only in keeping with the progressiveness of the management of these shows. Beneath these tents spectators can sit in comfort and ease during the heaviest of rains and be as dry as if in the finest theatre in the country. This is only one of the many novelties that have been added to these shows this season.

It is respectfully suggested that the children attend the afternoon exhibition, where ample time is given to view the large managerie, likewise avoiding the night crowds. Uninformed ushers will attend every want of the little folks, and the care and attention paid to ladies and children is the first consideration of the management.

The only big circus that will visit here this year is Howe's Great London Shows, and the date is July 28, on the Fairville grounds.

WILL SET NEW MARK FOR AMATEUR PRODUCTIONS.

The Lion and the Girl by Miss Sadie Calhoun and Local Cast Monday and Tuesday at the Opera House.

Something new in the line of dramatic productions by local artists will be seen at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week when Miss Sadie Calhoun, remembered for her great work in Sweet Clover and The Dixie Girl, will produce the wonderful Canadian drama The Lion and the Girl. This is one of the greatest plays produced in the past decade and has never been played in St. John by either a professional or amateur company. Usually the success of an amateur production depends largely upon the number of people brought upon the stage but this will not be the case with Miss Calhoun's production.

There are but six parts in the play, but they are of a class as to test the metal of the best local talent. Associated with Miss Calhoun in supporting the roles are Messrs. Godfrey Kenney, Rupert E. Walker, A. E. McKinley and Frank Corr, all of whom have been seen to advantage in the productions of the St. John Dramatic Club. Mr. George Lund, a New York leading actor, who is in the city for a few weeks, will also have a prominent role.

MISS SADIE CALHOUN In the Lion and the Girl.

There will be specialties between the acts which will also serve to introduce other local favorites. The seat sale opened yesterday at the Opera House box office and all the praisers are a good demand for tickets. The indications are that crowded houses will greet the play and acts each performance.

Western Features for Nickel.

For the third of the week the Nickel has a programme, which for variety and general interest, should attract liberal patronage. The prime feature of this bill is the western story "Way Out West" by the Essanay Co. of Chicago, whose pictures of life on the prairie are famous. The Edison Co. will contribute an instructive picture showing the United States Life Saving Drill on the New England Coast, on the seaboard so dangerous to mariners who call at St. John and other Maritime ports. "The House on the Hill," also by the Edison Co. will depict a pretty little homestead melo-drama, whilst the Selig comedy "The Little Girl Don't Cry" and the farce entitled "Chicken" by the same company will complete the important part of the programme. Miss Betty Donn in Neapolitan costume will repeat her success of last evening the Italian waltz-craze "Ciribiribin" and Mr. George Lund of New York will have a new film-talk. The interest in this talented gentleman's lectures seems to increase daily, and his description of the New York Ghetto was greatly appreciated.

News of Kirk Brown

Kirk Brown is to open at the Lee Avenue Theatre, Brooklyn, N. Y., on August 1, and is to play a month's engagement. The theatre is controlled by Corse Payton, and Mr. Brown was once Mr. Payton's leading man in one of his Brooklyn companies. Miss Marguerite Fields will be Mr. Brown's leading lady, and this talented actress will again tour with him next season.

J. R. Currie Married.

News of the marriage of J. R. Currie, of the Dominion Exhibition, to Miss Lily Woodman of Brooklyn, N. Y., at the bride's home in that city on Friday July 8th, came as a pleasant surprise to Mr. Currie's many friends here. Miss Woodman was formerly of Nova Scotia. The happy couple have returned to Saint John, where they will reside.

MR. ROBERT MAXWELL MADE ELOQUENT ADDRESS AT THE BORDEN CLUB'S EXCURSION

Progressive Policy of the Hazen Government Compared With Indolence, Indifference and Corruption of Preceding Administration—What Has Been Accomplished by Honesty and Energy

The address delivered by Hon. Robert Maxwell at the Borden Club Moonlight Excursion on Wednesday night was received too late to be published in yesterday morning's Standard.

Mr. Maxwell said in part: "It would be absurd for me to expect you to listen to me for any time, after the privilege you have had of listening to the eloquent speakers who have preceded me, and while the beauty of the moonlit river, the music and the dance invites you to enjoy them. The Borden Club has conferred a great favor upon us. Not often have we the pleasure of hearing so eloquent and instructive a speaker as Mr. Foster, Canada's greatest finance minister, in spite of the venomous assault of the partisan press anxious to kill him, is very much alive, and still able to do good to the last ten years. Our great party we are proud to call our own. His speech this evening was a masterpiece of eloquence, and it is a lesson of patriotism and power of eloquent expression for which Mr. Foster is so justly famous."

"One thing about his address impressed me particularly, and that was the way he sought to inculcate the sense of their duty to work for the elevation of public life. Our great leader Mr. Borden has made in the past decade and has never been played in St. John by either a professional or amateur company. Usually the success of an amateur production depends largely upon the number of people brought upon the stage but this will not be the case with Miss Calhoun's production. Above all things today we owe it to ourselves and to our country to lift the politics out of the mire of graft and corruption which has permeated politics for the last ten years. It is too true that many of our people are apt to shrug their shoulders when they read of men whose lives have not been clean, men who have not been honest in provincial affairs, men who have not been honest in the councils of the Dominion. And because that is so, because our moral sense is not so keen as it ought to be to resent the degradation of politics, Mr. Foster's eloquence for the times, a valuable message for the times."

"Permit me to say a few words along the lines of the eloquent premier of this province. In the past two years the Hazen government has done more to give this province an honest, energetic and straightforward administration, and to elevate the tone of public life than any of its predecessors in the last 25 years. Mr. Hazen is well known to you, and I think I may say that you know he is that type of a man who rather than depart from the straight and narrow path of probity, and yield to the powers of graft in any form would relinquish office. In many ways he has shown himself to be a tower of strength and righteousness, a fit leader and exponent of all that is best in our people, and I have been happy to be a follower of him."

"Of course he has been made the target of the bitterest campaign of barefaced falsehood and misrepresentation that has ever been waged against a man in public life in this province. But we know the reason of this absurd and foolish campaign—we know it is inspired by men anxious to crush him and his administration and bring in a new era of corruption and mismanagement. And his worth is only made more evident by the base and contemptible attempts to discredit him."

An Imbecile Attack.

"Many of the attacks on Mr. Hazen look like ravings of lunatics. The other morning one of the imbecile party, a man in a new era of corruption and mismanagement, was asked 'What is Hazen going to do about it?' I asked myself what has the premier been doing now, and proceeded to read the article with the alarming headline. It was made up of extracts from an address of Earl Grey recently delivered in England, and dealing with immigration and various phases of public life in Canada. Could anything be more absurd than to seek to convey the impression that Mr. Hazen is responsible for the statements of the Governor General of Canada? Yet that is a sample of the means employed by the partisan press to misinterpret heavy express, or general delivery other than named in section 1."

TRADESMEN WILL HAVE CHANCE TO WIN TROPHY

Possibly in no department of the live stock show will such a trophy be received with more satisfaction. It will afford to the numerous business houses of St. John and Eastern Canada an excellent opportunity to enter their commercial horses in open competition where they can be judged by competent authorities from disinterested communities. Furthermore, the Toronto Open Air Horse Show, which Manager Good of the St. John exhibition is the founder, thus recognizes for the first time any competition in commercial horses other than its own. The slogan of this very commendable organization is the improvement of the business horse and it is safe to predict a hearty co-operation on the part of Maritime Provincial owners and will bring about one of the most interesting contests in the whole big show.

NATIONAL DIVISION ELECTS OFFICERS

Rev. G. A. Lawson of Halifax
M. W. P.—Next Meeting in Connecticut—Mass Meeting
Last Evening—Presentations

Nova Scotia and New Brunswick are well represented in the councils of the National Division, Sons of Temperance, the result of the election of officers yesterday. Rev. G. A. Lawson of Halifax heads the order for the next year. Rev. Chas. Flemington of Pettitcodiac is M. W. Chaplain, and E. S. Hennigar of this city, M. W. Sentinel.

The report of the committees on obituaries and appeals were then read and adopted, the former showing 144 deaths in the order since the last meeting.

The next business before the meeting was the election of officers. The Nova Scotia representatives claimed the right to nominate Rev. G. A. Lawson of that province, who has been an active member of the order since 1848, for the office of Most Worthy Patriarch. Mr. Lawson is also president of the Nova Scotia Temperance Alliance. He was unanimously elected with loud applause.

P. M. W. P. Wagner expressed his satisfaction at the election of so worthy a man to the highest office in the gift of the order.

The following officers were also elected:
Most Worthy Associate, E. L. G. Hohenthal, G. W. P. of Connecticut. Mr. Hohenthal was a candidate for the position of governor of that state in a recent election on a prohibition ticket.

Most Worthy Scribe, Ross Slack, of New Jersey. Mr. Slack held this position last year also.

Most Worthy Treasurer, M. M. Evanson.

Most Worthy Chaplain, Rev. Chas. Flemington, of Pettitcodiac, (re-elected).

Most Worthy Conductor, Mrs. Nettie Kibby, of Worcester, Mass.

Most Worthy Sentinel, E. S. Hennigar, of St. John.

Trustees: Messrs. Gildersleeve, Orr and Rawlings.

In this connection it is worthy of note that the National Division has honored the New Brunswick Grand Division by the election of two officers from that province, namely, Rev. Chas. Flemington, M. W. C., and E. S. Hennigar, M. W. S.

It was unanimously decided to accept the invitation of the Grand Division of Connecticut to meet in that state at a place to be decided by the officers, on Tuesday, July 19th, 1911. Reports of the committees on constitution and consolidating Y. P. work, were read but not adopted owing to lack of time. The M. W. S. was asked to reply to those who had sent their regrets on being unable to attend.

In the afternoon the visiting delegates as guests of the N. B. Grand Division, were given a sail up the St. John river in the S.S. Majestic. The steamer left Indiantown at 2 o'clock and returned about 5. The weather conditions were ideal and the delegates expressed themselves as charmed with the picturesque scenery of the Rhine of America.

Mass Meeting.

The largest and most hearty mass meeting in St. David's church in years was held under the auspices of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance last evening with J. L. McCarthy, M. W. P., in the chair. After a hymn led by the choir the chairman extended a welcome to the public and to those in sympathy with the temperance movement. He then called upon those who had been present when the Coldstream Army was organized here 56 years ago, of whom there were three attending the convention, to take seats on the platform. V. J. Gies, M. W. C., of the Rhine of America, spoke of his record as a prohibitionist. He said that he had joined the Coldstream Army of John Gough when it was started at the Mechanics' Institute in 1847. Fifty years afterwards he was on the platform in the same building with 13 others on the occasion of its jubilee. He had never touched a drop of liquor in his life and only smoked half a cigar in his twelfth year.

The New M. W. P.

Rev. G. A. Lawson, of Halifax, M. W. P., elected, thanked the division for electing him as its head and counted it a privilege to serve in the cause of temperance. He pointed out that the strongest obstacles to prohibition were, first, the appetite of man for drink; second, the strength of the liquor people, which was not to be despised; and third, and most important, the apathy of Christians themselves on the subject. He said there should be no harsh words for the liquor people and appealed for earnest and progressive work was in the beginning of a new body. He also suggested suitable counter attractions be given to men who drank, because they only went to the bar because they did not have any other place to spend their leisure hours.

A Solo by Mr. Hills

A solo by Mr. Hills was followed by an address by E. L. G. Hohenthal, of Connecticut, who is connected with the anti-union league in his state. He spoke hopefully of the outlook for the future. Referring to conditions in Connecticut he said that there were towns in the state where the prisons and asylums would not hold all the users of alcohol.

Rev. Chas. Flemington sang The Clover Leaf.

Rev. Chas. Flemington sang The Clover Leaf, by special request of members from across the border. Everybody joined in the chorus. Gen. W. P. Wagner, of Philadelphia was the last speaker, choosing as his "text"—"It was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, which he fitted to his own case, calling himself the "was" of an office of the division, and his successor as the "shall be."

Business Sessions.

After the mass meeting, the regular sessions of the National Division were resumed in the basement of the church, Mr. McCarthy still presiding. The feature of the session was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Hennigar of this city, of a handsome monochrome covered chest of engraved silver. V. T. Evanson, most worthy treasurer, made the presentation, with an eloquent address in which he referred to the hard and prolonged labors of the grand worthy temple of the New Brunswick division, and especially to their extreme kindness and hospitality in caring for the delegates and strangers from other cities.

Mrs. Hennigar replied in a fitting speech of thanks.

Mr. Hennigar in expressing his thanks to the division, referred to his having entered the order at the age of 18 from the cause of temperance. He had never regretted it and was going to work as long as he was permitted by the Great Patriarch above.

The rest of the meeting was taken up with a lengthy discussion on the conditions of the temperance cause entering the order from the juvenile temperance lodges.

The session closed about midnight without any definite decision being arrived at, to resume again at 9 o'clock this morning.

CHANCERY COURT.

Shaw et al. vs. Robinson et al.
The case of Frederick Pierpont Shaw and the Canadian Coal Corporation, Limited vs. Robinson and Puddington was resumed yesterday morning at half past ten in the Chancery Court. His Honor Chief Justice Barker presided. The four witnesses were examined at yesterday's session for the defendants. Alexander G. Robinson and J. J. Fraser Winslow testified for the defendant Robinson and James Holland and Archer C. Puddington for Mr. Puddington.

Runaway on Main Street.

On Main St. yesterday morning a horse owned by E. Walsh, Brussels street, driven by Stewart Kincaid, ran away. While turning the corner of Elgin street the horse collided with a street car and bolted. Later he struck a team owned by A. L. Goodwin and the force of this collision threw Kincaid from his seat, and in falling, his clothing caught in the shaft, holding him between the team and the ground, in which perilous position he was dragged until they reached Indiantown. At the foot of Main street he fell to the ground, the wagon passing over his body. He was picked up in a semi-conscious condition with no serious injuries other than face and hands cut and clothes torn to ribbons. The horse was caught
