SLEEPING OUT OF DOORS IN MONTREAL

Montreal, July 15—This is the second sweltering day with the temperature reaching eighty-eight degrees, and there have been numerous prostrations in consequence. While no record is kept of such cases at the hospitals, the ambulances have had a somewhat busy day picking up people suddenly overcome from the humidity, which has been extreme. PRESIDENT OF C.P.R. SETS RUMORS AT REST

No Necessity for Further Issue of Capital Stock at Present Sir Thomas Shaughnessy Says.

Montreal, July 15.—In order to set at rest rumors about any issue of new stock and other disquieting stories about Canadian Railway affairs, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy today issued the following statement:

"After the payment of all fixed charges and dividends the company entered upon the new fiscal year, July 1, with $36,000,000 in cash and $14,000,000 in equipment securities, after having spent upwards of $30,000,000 on railway and steamship construction, for which four per cent. consolidated debenture stocks have been authorized, but not offered on the market.

The end has nearly been reached with all the important work of construction and improvement that were in progress and only a comparatively small portion of the money in hand will be required for their completion.

No new works of any magnitude are contemplated at present, and therefore no necessity exists for the further issue of capital stock. It is not unlikely, however, that the directors will, at the meeting in October, recommend to the shareholders that the authorized ordinary share capital be made to conform to the amount for which the company has legal warrant, so as to provide for the future capital requirements as and when they arise.

E. R. Teed Tells About The Campaign Fund

Royal Commission Resumes Hearing in Crown Timber Limit Charges.

NOT ONE CENT FOR PERSONAL USES.

Total Sum of $55,165 Kept Intact in Some Form or Other — Money For Party Purposes.

One of the most interesting sessions yet held of the investigation into the charges against Hon. J. K. Flemming in connection with the crown timber lands of the province was that which occupied all day yesterday.

The commission resumed in the morning and after John E. Moore, J. A. Rundle and C. Fenderson, all lumbermen were examined E. R. Teed of Woodstock was called. Mr. Teed acted as treasurer of the fund and during the day he told of receiving money from W. H. Berry and of the manner in which he had guarded and invested it.

Mr. Teed stated that the total sum which found its way into his hands was $55,165. It was kept intact in some form or other in a safety deposit vault in the Royal Bank of Canada but was withdrawn from time to time and converted into interest earning securities. While the form of the fund was changed from time to time, sometimes being in stocks or other securities and at others in cash or deposit receipts the total was always intact. Earnings from the money invested in stocks were used for party expenses or added to the original fund.

Not one cent of the money was used for personal purposes.

The funds were shown to have been well invested and cared for. Mr. Teed had not finished his evidence when the court adjourned and he will be recalled this morning.

A. R. Gould was an interested spectator in the court room during the afternoon.

Hon. J. K. Flemming was in the court but L. A. Dugal, who laid the charges, was conspicuous by his absence.

MILITANTS WIELD THE HORSEWHIP

Slash State Secretary For Scotland After Calling Him a Pig—Butler Rescues Him.

London, July 15—It required half a dozen policemen for the removal from the Marlborough street police court today two kicking, clawing, screaming militant suffragettes, who earlier in the day had attempted to horsewhip the Right. Hon. Thomas McKinnon Wood, secretary of state for Scotland. Only for the timely intervention of his stalwart butler, it is very probable that the secretary would have been soundly thrashed. He was just leaving his residence when a woman rushed up, horsewhip in hand, exclaiming: "You Scottish pig, if you don't stop the forcible feeding of women we shall smash you."

The militant lashed him across the chest, but before she could deliver a second cut the butler, who was standing on the steps, seized her and threw her sprawling to the ground, leaving him free to tackle the second woman, who was shouting: "Let me get at the Scotch pig."

She made a rush with her whip at the secretary for Scotland, and was still struggling in the butler's grip when the police arrived and bundled both women to the police station, where they were searched. On one of them was found a decomposed egg, labelled, "Refreshing fruit."

In the court the women gave their names as Janette Wallace and Bertha Watson. They were fined twenty shillings each, but refused to pay and were sent to jail for four days.

NEW BRUNSWICK MAN IN HONOR LIST AT BISLEY

CORROBORATES STORY TOLD BY NEGRO MAID

Another Witness in the Freeport, N. Y., Murder Case Tells of Mysterious Tall Woman.

Mineola, N. Y., July 15.—When the grand jury investigating the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey in Freeport on June 30 and the alleged complicity of Mrs. Florence Carman completed the work marked out for it today but three more witnesses remained to be heard. These will appear upon the resumption of the proceedings tomorrow morning. District Attorney Smith said he believed action of some kind might be expected by noon or soon afterwards.

Whether Mrs. Carman herself will testify before the grand jury only the jurors themselves can solve. Their final decision is expected to be made tomorrow morning.

The most important witness today was Frank J. Farrell. Farrell's story as he told it to District Attorney Smith, was that on the night of the murder, being out of a job and hungry, he started for the back door of the Carman home to ask for food. He was rounding one of the rear corners of the house when he saw a tall woman, dressed either in a long cloak or a kimono, come from the back door, go directly to a window in what he now knows to be the doctor's office, and break the glass. Farrell said he did not know whether the woman had a revolver or not. If she did, he did not see it. Farrell's story continues that he heard a shot and quickly hurried off, for he had no desire to be around any place, he said, where bullets were liable to be flying.

Farrell's story furnishes corroboration for Celia Coleman, a negro maid in the Carman residence, whose story told yesterday was to the effect that her mistress, dressed in a kimono, rushed through the kitchen directly after the shot was fired.

CANADA'S MARKSMEN DID WELL YESTERDAY

Spectators See Remarkable Shooting in Competition for the Wimbledon Cup—Several Extra Shots Fired To Decide Tie.

Bisley Ranges, July 15.—Canadian successes in the sweekstakes today included Col. Sergt. Stoddard, of the 91st Regiment, Hamilton, who tied for first place at 200 yards with a possible 35. Sergt. Armstrong, of Halifax, was third at 600 yards with 34. A total of 33 by Sergt. Martin, of Calgary, at 900 yards, brought him into first place at this distance. Another Canadian to do well at the morning series was Private Falconer, of New Brunswick, who finished in second place at the 1,000 yards. Gunner A. D. Noble, of Montreal, was third at 600 yards in the evening series, and Sergt. Russell, of Ottawa, second with a score of 82 at 1,000 yards.

An extraordinary tie occurred in the shooting for the Wimbledon cup at 1,100 yards, Barnett of Ulster, finally winning. Barnett and Ransome of Felixstowe, each began with a magpie and finished with fourteen central bullseyes, thus making a total of 87 each out of a possible 90. Five extra shots were fired, at the conclusion of which the tie had not been broken, each scoring 23. Single shots were then fired, Barnett making a central at six, and Ransome a plain bullseye at five, the former thus winning by a point. Oxford University won the Humphrey cup by defeating Cambridge University, by 84 points.

The Halford memorial was shot for during the morning, under ideal conditions and in fine weather, which, however, turned to rain later in the day. The winner turned up in Captain Campbell, of Scotland, who has been doing consistently well throughout this year's shooting, winning today with a score of 167, being 87 at 1,000, and 80 at 1,100 yards. Maurice Blood, of the Irish Rifle Association, was second with 163, and Robinson of the English Eight Club third with 161. Campbell used King's Norten ammunition, made practically at the last moment to replace the disqualified Ross ammunition. The disqualification has caused some dissatisfaction amongst the competitors, many of whom, having considerable quantities of ammunition still on hand considered that longer notice should have been given.

Practising this morning for the MacKinnon Cup, which will be competed for tomorrow, Lieut. McLean, of Nova Scotia made a possible in a 900 yards sweepstake.
