SIXTEEN TO FIVE WAS TUNE TO WHICH ROSES WON OVER THE MAPLES

Last Evening's Game in St. Peter's League Was, However, More Interesting Than Score Indicates.

Last night's game in the St. Peter's League was not nearly as one-sided as the score would indicate. Aside from the first inning when the Maples booted the ball all over the lot, McGuire on third being the chief offender, it was a game worth watching. O'Connor started in the box for the Maples and it was not his fault that the Roses got seven runs in their first. Mahoney relieved him and he was replaced by Bolland in the fourth. McGowan was on the receiving end and played his usual steady game. Hansen was on the firing line for the Roses and was in good form. O'Toole handled his shoots in great style. Hansen struck out five men, O'Connor struck out one and Bolland five. Poor judgment was shown in placing McGuire on third base, as it is not his position. The score by innings follows:
Roses 7 5 0 0 0 1 1 16
Maples 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 5
