Larceny seems to be on the increase the city, judging from the record or the last few days. This morning Stephen Barnford Raymond, named for a wellknown divine, was charfied with steal ing $17 from a man in a house in Sheffield street. The victim was John Cossebonn, a Nova Scotian. He fell in with Raymond and they wended their way to Sheffield street. Confiding in his friend. Cossebonn gave him his purse to keep, as he was more experienced in "the ways that are dark," for which the street is so celebrated, and thought he would secure his money. When he asked for his money Raymond returned his purse minus the $17, only leaving $1 with which the owner could treat his friends. The Nova Scotia lad was not quite so green as to quietly accept the situation, so he sought a police-man and gave his purse-bearer in charge. The money was found on his person. Raymond denied stealing the money, but the evidence was convincing, and he had no defence. He said he had money of his own, did not require to steal, and was just making arrangements to board at house in Brittain street. The Magistrate sentenced him to board for six month with Mr. Quinton, in an institution known as the penitentiary. The ma burst into tears when he heard his sent ence. The balance of the money was returned to Cossebonn by the Magistrate, who lectured him for going to such a place. He, a respectable Nova Scotiar to be found with such a dissolute charac

In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J.
