Letter to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR,

Dear Madam:

Your excellent publication serves a district which has sent numerous competitors to the musical competitions of the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto. Quite naturally the interest of many non-competitors in your territory was aroused. Increased volume of inquiries would indicate that the interest this year will be greater than ever.

We are enclosing a copy of the 1932 syllabus which will afford you an idea of the scope and diversity of these competitions and the work we are doing for the advancement of music in Canada. The whole movement is supported by voluntary contributions. Publication of the following brief paragraph in your paper will be appreciated by the Bureau and by the friends of music not only in your district but throughout all Canada. Our hearty thanks go to you herewith.
—Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music. —J. S. Atkinson.

Musicians and friends and admirers of music throughout the Dominion of Canada will learn with keen satisfaction that the activities of the Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music have not been adversely affected by disturbed economic conditions. Rather is the reverse true. Competitors and their friends from this district will learn with pleasure that the Bureau has received more enquiries than ever before for the competitions at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto. Classes will be offered in the following:

Ladies choirs (three parts); ladies' choirs (four parts); men's choirs; vocal quartettes and duets; vocal solos, including a special class for choir boys only; violin; cello and viola solos; stringed instruments—trios and quartettes; piano solos and duets; cornet, trombone and Euphonium solos; brass quartettes; harmonica solos and bands; bagpipe competitions and Old Time Fiddlers competitions.

J. S. Atkinson, Director, Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music, room 420, Confederation Life Building, Toronto, will be pleased to furnish any further information.

Atlanta, Ga., J Miss Florence M. Read, president of Spelman College, has just been notified that one of her alumnae, Miss Ida Louise Miller, has been for the second time awarded a year's scholarship in Mount Holyoke College, where she is now in school.

The award was made by the Racial Minority Scholarship Committee of the college, which administers a fund established there to provide an annual scholarship for some Negro girl of outstanding promise. This scholarship was awarded last year to Miss Miller, then a student in Spelman College, and has been renewed for a year in recognition of the fine record she has made so far at Mount Holyoke. It provides $1,000 a year for board and tuition.

Miss Miller is an Atlanta girl and attended Booker Washington and Spelman high schools, before entering Spelman College. In college here she took highest rank in scholarship, was president of the freshman class, served on the student council and the staff of the college paper, and was prominent in dramatics.

New Head at Memphis

Memphis, Tenn.—Dr. Louis Levy, president of the Council of Social Agencies, has been elected chairman of the Memphis Interracial Committee and has entered upon his duties in that connection, according to an announcement by J. D. Burton, Interstate Interracial Secretary for Alabama and Tennessee. Dr. Levy's acceptance of the chairmanship augurs well for the work of the committee, in view of his wide contacts and rich experience in welfare work. Memphis with a large population of both races, is a strategic city in race relations, and one in which there is particular need for an active and effective agency for mutual understanding and adjustment.

The Memphis committee includes many representative and influential citizens, among them being representatives of the departments of health and schools, the juvenile court, the children's bureau, the Tuberculosis society, the civic clubs, and other social agencies.
