

DOCKYARD EMIGRANTS TO CANADA.

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 10 August 1870;—for,

COPY "of EXTRACTS from any REPORTS received by the Admiralty as to the Arrival in the Dominion of Canada, and Disposal of EMIGRANTS from HER MAJESTY'S DOCKYARDS and ARSENALS, recently conveyed thither in Transport Ships (in continuation of Parliamentary Paper, No. 403, of Session 1869)."

Admiralty, }
10 August 1870. }

T. JAMES,
Pro Chief Clerk.

EXTRACT from a LETTER from the Canadian Government Immigration Agent at Quebec to the Emigration Commissioners, dated 17th June 1870.

"The 'Tamar' arrived yesterday; a few children and one soldier had scarlatina, and were sent to hospital. To-day I had them all ticketed and sent on by boat. The Paymaster paid them on board. They were a very fine lot."

EXTRACT from a LETTER from the Canadian Government Immigration Agent at Quebec to the Emigration Commissioners, dated 8th July 1870.

"I now beg leave to inform you that the 'Crocodile,' having on board 147 married men and their wives, 163 single men, 101 single women, 162 boys between 12 and 1 years, 144 girls from 1 to 12 years, 25 male and 17 female infants, and a few families of pensioners, arrived in port on Friday the 24th ultimo at 6 p.m., all well. The Grand Trunk Railway not having sufficient cars to accommodate them, they remained on board the vessel until Monday the 27th, when they were landed and dispatched to the various inland agencies.

"The Dominion Government granted them all free transport, at a total cost of 2,087 dollars 47 cents., equal to 428 l. 18 s. 8 d. sterling.

"I am pleased to be able to add that the inland agents report that they have all found employment."

EXTRACT from a LETTER from Her Majesty's Ship "Tamar," at Quebec, dated 17th June 1870.

"IN answer to your letter 5075—14, I have the honour to report the late cruise of this ship, with emigrants, quite successful, and have to enclose a copy of the resolutions passed by the emigrants themselves, and given to me on the quarter-deck."
