

008023

11116 90th Avenue.

Edmonton.

Sept. 15. 1926.

My Dear Meighen

Letters of sympathy will not be as numerous as would have been congratulatory messages so I hope you'll find time to read this of mine. One can always find passages of Scripture apposite, and the remarks of the Psalmist regarding the quite common immunity from punishment of the wicked, and his flourishing like the green bay tree appear to fit this occasion.

The Electorate in Ontario and Manitoba have evidently been able to swallow MCK. K. and his worthy lieutenant Jacques Bureau as the Edmontonians have swallowed Chas Stewart and rejected Burg.

The Solid Quebec octopus has tentacles reaching far into the other Provinces - The French Polls did nobly for both Stewart

MEIGHEN PAPERS, Series 4 (M.G. 26, I, Volume 144)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA