W. J. Johnston

Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, respecting the fishing grounds at French Bay; and in reply, I beg to inform you that I have written to the Department of Fisheries, requesting a compliance with the suggestions contained in your letter, in order that the alleged injustice done the Indians in the matter of the fishing grounds may be removed.

Yours,

Sr,

Your obedient servant,
W. J. Johnston
