

254014-32

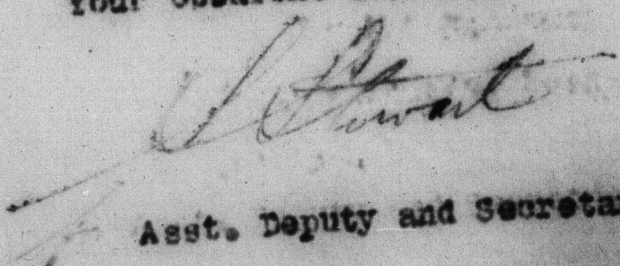

Ottawa, 30th April, 1913.

Sir,-

Referring to resolution of the Six Nations Council dated 4th instant, I beg to say that the Department approves of the Council's decision to grant orders to the amount of $1.50 a week to Henry Davis, until the Spring distribution of interest money is made to the members of the Six Nations Band.

The Department I may say approves of the resolution passed by the Six Nations Council to the effect that J. S. Johnson find a home for Phoebe Gould, the aged Indian woman who is reported as destitute.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Gordon J. Smith, Esq.,
Indian Supt.,
