*When I was young I attended St Andrews Presbyterian Sunday School and there met your mother Sir whom all we girls admired and loved.
Many a happy gathering we had at your residence on Beverley Street.
Your dear mother and your Sister entertaining us. I have a very lovely picture in my mind of your father and mother walking along King Street passing our door Sunday mornings (My father was Head Gardener & Superintendent of old Government House, King and Simcoe Streets) Your father was so tall and stately and your mother so beautiful with her lovely curly hair and lovely countenance. Those were happy days one likes to dwell on and which, alas, are in the past.*
