

Church and a life Governor of the Montreal General Hospital. He spent the evening of his days in well earned retirement, respected by the citizens as a whole, and surrounded by a large family of children and grand-children, and died universally regretted, in 1894.