

- Europe will be freed from German menace, 37.
- Factories for returning soldiers, 98.
- Faith and Hope, 44.
- Fancy, 84.
- Farm and town intermingled, 92 ; one community, 93.
- Farm life to be made pleasant, 92.
- Farm labor problem, 94.
- Farming, conditions of success in, 89 ; the best foundation for local industries, 92 ; both capital and skill required, 89 ; diversified and intensive, 92 ; educational preparation for, 90 ; greater rural population needed for, 96 ; personal equation in, 89 ; prosperity will continue, 67.
- Farms, large and small, 89.
- Fleet, the British, 32, 38.
- Folly and Pretence in domain of humour, 74.
- Future Life, 43.
- Gaiety and cheerfulness, 49.
- Galician dairy farming, 104.
- Gentlemen, courage of, 50.
- German aggression, the cause of war, 33 ; plan for invasion of England, 33 ; atrocities, 31 ; campaign ruined, 27 ; foreign trade ruined, 25 ; object of frightfulness, 32 ; national ideal of Kultur must be shattered, 40.
- Germanic, South, a pure race, 23.
- Germany, her commercial development, 25 ; economic condition, 35 ; paper money, 36 ; industrial organization, 25 ; defeat, 37 ; deterioration, 30 ; international morality, 30 ; military organization, 25 ; religion, 28 ; steel ramparts, 33 ; spying and treachery a national trait, 25 ; vandalism, 30 ; will be freed from Prussian domination, 39.
- Goethe, 22.
- Golden West, its lure destroyed, 87.
- Gratitude, 80.
- Grist Mills, 92.
- Heroes, Our, reflections on death of, 20.
- Hill, Miss Octavia, Her work in English slums, 62.
- Home life at base of character, 58 ; will be improved through the war, 59 ; to be secured to all women, 59.
- Homelessness, ill effects on children, 60 ; a cause of misery, 60.
- Homes for the unemployed, 65.
- Homesteads, 18 ; farm homesteads, 62 ; and women, no dower rights in, 62 ; unsuccessful without capital, 103.
- Honor, 31, 44.
- Hope, 44, 81.
- Humanity wasted, 61 ; happiness and capacity in future life, 51.
- Humor and character, 75.
- Humor, its many benign purposes, 75 ; in literature, 76 ; essential to sound judgment, 77 ; a sure guide to truth, 79.
- Huns, name applied to Germans, 21.
- Imagination, its free range, 83 ; its purpose, 83 ; usefulness of, 86.
- Immigration from Europe and the United States, 67, 97.
- Imperial thinking in Canada, 68.
- Imports, 69.
- Indemnity, Belgian and other to Germany, 35.
- Industrialism and Commercialism, a noble side to, 44.
- Industries, 12 ; local, 11 ; local amid farms, 92.
- Inflation, 9 ; temperamental in the West, 12.
- Intensive and diversified farming, 92.