

this field that a mighty work of grace is in progress, and that ere long a multitude of people will be won for the kingdom of God. The eagerness of the caste people to listen, their ready and often hearty assent to the truth of the message proclaimed, and the evident genuineness of the work of grace in the hearts of the converts, fills us with hope that the Lord is indeed getting ready on this great field "a people for His name."

STATISTICS.

Churches, six ; members, 564 ; preachers, eleven ; teachers, thirteen ; day schools, thirteen—scholars, 250 ; Sunday schools, forty-six—scholars, 400 ; Bible women, six ; Boarding school, 1—scholars, seventeen ; villages in which Christians live, forty-two.