

(SUGGESTED TUNES—A. &amp; M. 58; H. C. 61; C. H. 339, 508.)

Hark the glad sound! the Saviour comes, The Saviour promised long; Let every heart prepare a throne, And every voice a song. He comes, the prisoners to release In Satan's bondage held; The gates of brass before Him burst, The iron fetters yield.	He comes, the broken heart to bind, The bleeding soul to cure, And with the treasures of His grace To bless the humble poor. Our glad hosannas, Prince of peace, Thy welcome shall proclaim; And heaven's eternal arches ring With Thy beloved Name. Amen.

IV. Bible Lesson. Read Exodus ii. 1-10.

The Deliverer.

[From Stock's "Lessons on Israel in Egypt and the Wilderness," No. ii.]

i.—Appearance of the Deliverer.

Whom had God chosen to be Israel's Deliverer?
Did the Deliverer come as a conqueror? No: as a helpless babe.

ii.—His Danger and Preservation.

Who sought his life? Pharaoh, the enemy of God's people.
Who sought the life of the infant Saviour?—S. Matt. ii. 13.
What did the mother then do?—v. 3.
Who was set to watch? Did she do what she was bidden?
What was the result of her obedience? She saved the life of him who afterwards saved the nation.
How was the infant discovered?—v. 5.
What clever suggestion did Miriam then make?—v. 7.
What was the result?—vv. 8-9.

iii.—His Training.

What did the mother do when the boy was grown?—v. 8, 10.
Where did he spend his youth? In Pharaoh's palace.
What do we know of his education?—Acts vii. 22.
To what decision did he come when he grew up?—Heb. xi.
24-26.
Did the Israelites accept him as their deliverer? (vv. 13-14.
Compare Acts vii. 35.)
Did the Jews accept our Saviour as their Messiah?—S. John i., 10, 11; S. Matt. xxvii. 22.
Was Moses an Israelite? Yes, he was one of themselves.
(vs. 1, 2.) He considered them his brethren.—v. 11.
Is our Saviour one of ourselves? Yes, He took our nature upon Him.—Rom. i. 3; Gal. iv. 4, 5; Heb. ii. 14-17. He calls us brethren.—S. John xx. 17; Heb. ii. 11, 12.
What was necessary before Israel could be saved by Moses?
They must believe in him and follow him.
Is this necessary for us before we can be saved by Christ?
Yes.—S. John i. 12; iii. 15, 35, 36.

QUESTIONS FOR SENIOR SCHOLARS.

Give the names of Moses' father and mother.
What else are we told about Miriam in the Bible?
How old was Moses when he "refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter?"
In what respects was Moses a type of Christ?
