PACTORY DISTRIBUTORS ESTABLISHED 1889 HAMILTON, CANADA

On October 13th the Belgian Govern ment was transferred to Havre, France.

Thirteen thousand wounded Belgians are now in England. One hundred thousand Belgians in all fled from Ostend to England on the approach of the Germans.

Twenty-two thousand Belgian and British troops last week entered Holland to escape from the Germans, and will be interned there during the war.

The British cruiser Hawke was sunk in the North Sea on October 16th, by a German submarine.

At time of going to press, good news has again come from the firing line of After occupying Ostend on the Allies. October 15th, the Germans pressed westerly along the coast, but were met by the French and British, and driven back more than thirty miles. The French have also regained Armentieres, northwest of Lille, and have checked the Germans at the river Yser, which bounds the little corner that is all that is left to the Belgians. In the East, eighteen attempts of the Germans to cross the Vistula have been repulsed by the Russians. . . On October 18th, moreover, the British cruiser Undaunted, with four torpedo - boat destroyers, sunk four German destroyers off the mouth of the Scheldt

During the first seven weeks of the war Great Britain lost 267 officers killed, 550 wounded, and 329 missing, a total of 1,146 out of the 6,500 officers in the field. This large death-roll is accounted for by the statement of German prisoners that every German regiment has sharpshooters provided with powerful glasses, whose business it is to pick off the

Chapter XV The street lamps were already lighted

on the following afternoon-when Ruth, with Peter and Miss Felicia alighted at the small station of Corklesville. All through the day she had gone over in her mind the words of the despatch:

Explosion in tunnel. MacFarlane hurt-serious-will recover. Break news gently to daughter.

Bolton, Asst. Engineer.

Other despatches had met the party on the way down; one saying, change," signed by the trained nurse, and a second one from Bolton in answer to one of Peter's: "Three men killedothers escaped. MacFarlane's operation successful. Explosion premature."

Their anxiety only increased: Why hadn't Jack telegraphed? Why leave it to Bolton? Why was there no word of him,-and yet how could Bolton have known that Peter was with Ruth, except from young Breen. In this mortal terror Peter had wired from Albany: "Is Breen hurt?" but no answer had been received at Poughkeepsie. There had not been time for it, perhaps, but still there was no answer, nor had his name been mentioned in any of the other telegrams. That in itself was ominous.

This same question Ruth had asked herself a dozen times. Jack was to have charge of the battery-he had told her so. Was he one of the killed?-why didn't somebody tell her ?-why hadn't Mr. Bolton said something ?-why-why - Then the picture of her father's mangled body would rise before her and all thought of Jack pass out of her

As the train rolled into the grimy station she was the first to spring from the car, she knew the way best, and the Recent tests by noted scientists at 14 leading Universities, prove the Aladdin gives more than twice the light and burne less than half as much ell as the best round wick open flame lamps on the market. Thus the Aladdin will pay for itself many times over in oil saved, to say nothing of the increased quantity and quality of pure white light it produces. A style for every need.

Over Three Million people now enjoy the light of the Aladdin and every mail brings hundreds of enthusiastic letters from satisfied users endorsing it as the most wonderful light they have ever seen. Such comments as "You have solved the problem of rural home lighting"; "I could not think of parting with my Aladdin"; "The grandest thing on earth"; "You could not buy it back at any price"; "Beats any light I have ever seen"; "A blessing to any household"; "It is the acme of perfection"; "Better than I ever dreamed possible"; "Makes my light look like a tallow dip"; etc., etc., pour into our office every day. Good Housekeeping Institute, New York, tested and approved the Aladdin.

We Will Give $1000 to the person who shows us an oil lamp equal-to the Aladdin (details of this Reward Offer given in our circular which will be sent you), Would we dare invite such comparison with all other lights if there were any doubt about the superiority of the Aladdin?
