"Oh, she is too much the lady to be perfectly sincere!" I heard a young girl say. And a girl that I know always excuses her own rudeness by saying, "Well, I was perfectly truthful." I wonder how many of you girls think with them, that to be truthful one must be rude, and to be lady-like one must be untruthful?

Two young girls where I was visiting had each received a pretty chair for Christmas, and soon after my arrival I inadvertently sat down in each of them.

"I believe I have taken your chair, Lucy," I said in the first instance.

"I don't care if you have: I can take another," she replied.

But when I said, "Why, Sally, I am taking your chair," she said shyly, "You may sit in it because it is mine."

Both girls were perfectly sincere in wishing me to sit in their chair, but one reply was rude; and the other so charmed me that I have remembered it for years.

A little country girl was helping to prepare lunch with a friend in the city; they were making milk toast with an insufficient amount of milk, the girl thought, but knowing her friend must practise strict economy, she said, "Shall I moisten the toast first with hot water? You have so much toast." Would any of you have said, "You have so little milk?" Either way was truthful, but the former held the essence of Christian courtesy.

We hear about, and meet, so many disagreeable Christians; and some people believe that it is their Christianity that makes them rude! Did Paul teach rudeness? Did Jesus Christ? When we are self-absorbed, and inattentive to the comfort of others, when we go about thinking more highly of ourselves than we ought to think, and despising others for their little acts of self-forgetful kindness, let us not console ourselves with the thought that we are sincere.

"Politeness is to do and say The kindest thing in the kindest way."

And everything that is unkind is un-Christian.

GOLD WATCHES

Were never so reasonable in price as they are to-day —if you buy them right—neither were they ever more artistic and attractive in appearance.

It is to your interest, if intending to buy, to inspect our large Stock, and be convinced of this. We can show you literally hundreds of different styles and prices, ranging from $15 to $200 each—all of which are guaranteed by us.

BILIOUS HEADACHES GO.

I had rheumatism in my knees and fingers, bilious headaches, etc., every few weeks. Mr. Higgins, Empire Laundry, urged me to try ST. LEON MINERAL WATER. I did, and it set me all right; headaches and pains all gone. My wife and three children also use it. We all find St. Leon Water very good and healthy.
