POISON LIKE UNTO VENOM OF SNAKES

Professor H. Strauss, M. D., of the Royal Charity Hospital, says, "The cause for an attack of gout, rheumatism, lumbago, is supplied by the increase of uric acid in the blood serum, the result of various causes, the most frequent of which is renal. Before an attack, one suffers sometimes from headache, neuralgia, twinges of pain here and there."

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when the back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you have rheumatic pains or lumbago, gout, sciatica, obtain at your nearest drug store "Anuric" (anti-uric-acid).

This is the discovery of Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. "Anuric" is an antidote for this uric acid poisoning and dissolves uric acid in the body much as hot coffee dissolves sugar. "Anuric" will penetrate into the joints and muscles, and dissolve the poisonous accumulations. It will stamp out toxemia.

Montreal, Que.—"I cannot praise Dr. Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid) enough for what it has done for me. For three months I was under the doctor's care and got no better. I was always complaining of my kidneys. I did not know what to do. I read about Anuric and made up my mind to try it. I have taken two boxes and don't complain any more. I have gained in weight and am still gaining. My appetite is great and sleep has come to me. That is what the Anuric Tablets have done for me. I do truly recommend them to those who are suffering the way I did. The tablets are mighty good, though not expensive. Easy to buy, but hard to beat."—T. A. BROWN, 358 Dorchester St. W.

Send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

Durham will enter a hockey team in both the Northern and O. L. A. intermediate series this winter.

IMPRISONED IN COFFINS.

The most terrible prison in the world is in Urga, Mongolia. It consists of a triple stockade enclosing a number of underground dungeons which are pitch dark and almost devoid of ventilation. But this is not all. The wretched prisoners condemned to inhabit them are shut up separately in heavy iron-clamped chests, in shape resembling coffins. There is a small hole in the side of each, just big enough for the poor wretch inside to thrust out his head or his manacled hands. They see daylight for but a few minutes daily, when their food is thrust into their box-prison through the hole. They cannot lie down flat they cannot sit, for they are not only manacled but chained to the coffins. The majority are in for life sentences and no prisoner is ever allowed out of his box under any circumstances, except when he is to be executed or, as happens very rarely—to be set free.

Incensed because her son had been reprimanded, a Chicago woman shot a teacher twice. The shooting occurred after the woman had called at the McLaren school to interview the teacher. There was a short argument and the woman drew a revolver from her skirt and fired twice. She escaped.

Eight thousand returned soldiers in Toronto are out of work, a large portion of whom are married, with families.

One of the biggest robberies in the history of the industry occurred near Montague, P.E.I., where the ranch of the Imperial Silver Black Fox Company was broken into and fifteen animals stolen. There were seven breeding females and seven pups, and valued at ten thousand dollars.

A report from Cargill says:—Dogs chased a flock of sheep owned by Jos. Hehn of Greenock, clear across the concession the other night without worrying a single one. Their escape from death by the dogs is believed to be due to the bell worn on the neck of one of the animals. The bell idea was something of an experiment in regard to protecting sheep from dogs, and it has apparently met with success.

Gavin Kirkwood, of the T. online, Brant and Elderslie, was foreman of the petit jury at the Bruce Assizes last week, presided over by Justice Middleton, which sat on the case of Ball vs. Beamish. Albert Ball of Hanover sued Constable Beamish for $5,000 for assault resulting in Ball being crippled for life according to the evidence of Dr. Sinclair of Walkerton. Albert Ball is a married man with a family and his aged mother lives in the house next to him. Ball's sister is a nurse and she was home on a visit. She objected to her brother getting older to drink from a barrel at their mother's home and she got his father-in-law to take him to a corn patch on the pretence that he was going to buy corn from Ball, while she spilled the elder. In the meantime Ball's wife and family went to his mother's and Ball came after them with a lantern. As the back door was hard to open, Ball took a spade to pry it up from the bottom and in so doing made considerable racket. Constable Beamish heard the noise and came over and see the fun. Ball sued the Constable
