

"It seems like old times to see you Japalacing. That's the same high-class Japalac for you back in the nineties when savings were just as necessary as they are today."

You Too Can Save with Jap-a-lac

More than one generation can testify to the "Ways to Save" with Jap-a-lac Household Finishes. That's because Jap-a-lac is the ORIGINAL varnish stain—because it has faithfully served its millions of users year after year—and because it is still giving the same satisfactory service. You, too, can save with Jap-a-lac. Whether you revive a high-chair, sewing machine, or desk, you are making a worth-while saving. Every time you Japalac a floor you preserve the wood and save future expense. But the one important thing is Japalac with Jap-a-lac—for this Glidden product has been such a success for so many years that it is widely imitated. So be sure you get the original—the genuine Jap-a-lac.

AN INTERESTING WEDDING

One of the brightest social events of the season took place on Tuesday evening of this week, June 29th, in Wilkie, when Miss Honor Elizabeth Thelma Schaab, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schaab of Wilkie, was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Menzies of Calgary, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Menzies, "Morven House," Harrogate, England, the ceremony taking place at six-thirty in the Wilkie United Church. The pastor of the church, Rev. R. J. Smith, performed the nuptial rites in the presence of a number of the invited guests and a large gathering of friends and acquaintances of the bride, who has resided in Wilkie since childhood. The church entrance and auditorium were gaily decorated with a profusion of ground cedar ferns, peonies, sweet peas and other flowers which presented a very pleasing appearance and displayed a great deal of ability in the decorative art.

Promptly at six-thirty, the organist, Mrs. Fleming, swelled the strains of Lohengrin's bridal march and the wedding cortège wended its way down the aisle, led by the ushers, Harold Florence and Jack McLure, while little Rogene Schwalm of Saskatoon, cousin of the bride, took her place in the procession as flower girl. Leaning on the arm of her father and accompanied by her sister, Verley, as maid of honor, the bride joined the groom and attendant at the altar where the ceremony of the church was quietly and earnestly performed. At the conclusion of the wedding rites the audience joined in singing the old hymn, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," while Mrs. Fleming sang beautifully, "Ave Maria" during the time the register was being signed by the contracting parties and witnesses. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by the organist as the bridal party left the auditorium.

A number of motors were available to convey the invited guests present to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was afterwards held; the bride's mother, and her aunt, Mrs. Schwalm of Saskatoon receiving the guests at the house. After the reception the bride and groom, accompanied by a large number of friends in cars left for North Battleford on the first lap of their journey to Banff and Calgary where the honeymoon will be celebrated. The bride's going-away costume was of mist-colored Canton crepe and black silk Benzeline coat trimmed with fur and black hat to match. The bridal car was gaily decorated with the usual emblematic tokens of travelling newly-weds and a gay procession left town with the best wishes of all extended to Mr. and Mrs. Menzies for happiness, health and prosperity during their wedded life.

The bride is one of Wilkie's best beloved young people and in her costume of white bridal satin with crystal bead and pearl trimmings, carrying a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and Ophelia roses, presented a picture that will live in the memory of all. The bridal veil worn on this occasion was of hand-made Belgian lace, the handwork of Mrs. Debacker, a Belgian lady residing in Saskatoon, and as accompanied by the usual orange blossoms was a work of art that will be cherished down through the years. Miss Verley Schaab, who acted as maid of honor, was very becomingly gowned in a costume of orchid georgette crepe with hat to match. The bride's mother was attired in a black crepe-back satin costume with lace over-skirt and wearing a corsage bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Schwalm wore a powder blue Canton dress trimmed with lace with hat to match and carried a corsage bouquet of sweet peas. Mr. R. A. Fry of Calgary, assisted the groom during the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Menzies will reside in Calgary.—Wilkie (Sask.) Press.

FAREWELL TO HICKLING FAMILY

Last Saturday evening the neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Hickling and family assembled at their home on the 12th concession of Carrick, and presented them with the following address. Mr. and Mrs. Hickling were made the recipients of an electric reading lamp, Miss Hattie Hickling a brush, comb and mirror set, and the two grandchildren, Stephen and Elvira, were presented with Eversharp pencils. Mr. Hickling, who has spent the whole of his life on this farm, except for a couple of years he attended Cobourg College, was deeply touched by the kind words of the address and the generous gifts, but made a very able and appropriate response. The removal of this estimable family is a distinct loss to the neighborhood, but all join in wishing them happiness and health in their new home at Walkerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickling and Miss Hickling:—We, a few of your friends and neighbors, feel that before you leave the old home we must in some measure express our appreciation of your family.

The history of Bruce tells us that your father, the late Edward Hickling, took up this lot in 1853, 73 years ago. Some of us had the pleasure and privilege of knowing him and your mother, and enjoying the kindly christian hospitality of their home here, and now we see their great grandchildren with you in the old home. Some of us went to school with you, some of us with your children, and some with your grandchildren, and the memories and influences of these childhood days are never forgotten. We feel that the influence of a Christian family in a neighborhood can not be over estimated. You and your family have been public spirited and helpful in all that was for the good of the community and ready to do your part.

We are pleased that your son, James B., is to remain on the farm, which, through the good management of the family, is second to none in the neighborhood and we hope it may be in the Hickling family for many generations.

We are glad, too, that you are not going far away, and we pray that you may long be spared in your new home to meet and greet your old neighbors.

We ask you to accept these gifts as a token of friendship and good will and as a souvenir of many happy hours with your old Carrick friends.

Signed, Louis Schlorff, Thos. A. Hutton, Ernie Pletsch.
