FOUND DEAD BY SIDE OF ROAD St. Stephen, June 6.-Caleb Bartlett was It is a little early for the supply of country produce to come in, in any quantity. The next few weeks, however, should see a marked improvement. Dealers this week are paying the following prices, Butter 28c.; Eggs, 18 to 20c.; Beef, 10 to 12c.; Veal, 9 to 10c.; Pork, 10c.; Fowl, 18c.; Potatoes, per bbl., 80c.; Carrots, per bbl., $1.00.; Turnips, per bbl., 50c.; Hay, per ton, $17.00.

corner of the Board road, this morning and reported the fact at the first house they came to, which was Harry Ashley's at Oak Bay. The body was identified as that of Caleb Bartlett, a former resident of that section of the county.

He had evidently fallen from his carriage, and his face was in a pool of water and mud. The coroner, Dr. James D. Lawson, after viewing the body, decided that he had smothered. Mr. Bartlett was sixty-seven years of age. He leaves one team from Robbinston, Me., and a st. Garders team. The home team had control through practically all of the game and easily won, the score being 28 to 12.

MRS. WESLEY NEWTON. The death of Mrs. Wesley Newton of Grand Harbor, Wednesday morning, June 1, was a great shock to her friends and pleasant as at any other time. Students In crand Harbor, Wednesday morning, June 1, was a great shock to her friends and cast a gloom over the community at large. In the large of the large of the large, and though she was seriously ill, yet her death came very unexpectedly. She had been married only one year and nine months. Besides a sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn, a father, Capt. J. A. Ingersoll; three sisters, Mrs. Claudia Carson of Grand Harbor, Mrs. Dr. Robinson of Keswick, N, B., and Mrs. Colman Dalzell of Seal Cove; three brothers, Colman, Clyde and Wesley, all of Seal Cove; besides a large number of relatives and friends. Her genial disposition and her Christian life endeared her to all, and wherever she went she made hosts of friends. Interment took place at Maple Grove, June 4, services being conducted by Rev. Jas. Mason, assisted by Rev. J. E. Gosline. The large gathering at the funeral and the many floral tributes from by key, jas. Mason, assisted by key. J. E. Gosline. and Pythias.

Therefore resolved, that this Lodge desires to place on record its deep sense of loss and sincere feelings of sorrow, because of the death of our late Brother, as also its very high appreciation of his many noble and estimable qualities of heart and mind; of his loyalty to his King and Country; of his devotion to the principles of our order, and of his sacred regard for his home and family.

And this Lodge further desires to give expression to the deepest feelings of sympathy for the widow and orphans from whom have been taken the love and care of a husband and father, and to express the fervent hope that He who is a Father to the fatherless may ever guard and protect them.

And further resolved that a copy of these resoulutions be inserted in the minutes of this Lodge and published in the Bracon newspaper. Also that a copy be forwarded to the widow of our late Brother, signed by the Chancellor Commander and the Keeper of Records and Seal, and sealed with the Seal of the Lodge.
