AY, APRIL 9, 1902

w regarded here as a igh the interviews th dreibund will soon

of Humillation. h 29. - The toba created a degree of na far greater than that iated with trade dismic organs like the ote many columns to ; ion of the results sale disintegration of by American capital draws a carious con rival methods. pitalists," says vill risk millions th the greatest pluck capitalists will act em rather than be ber rs are the enjoyment ise rather dull and or They will feel disgra ot win, and will sta llar on exchanges wh fields of glory or h That else have they olitics offers no car found families, in e, and as for h like the Roman not have it, or do with content." for Quartz Miners. to an article in Daw ws of April 4th, 190 tralian Miner" artz miner owning in the Klondike dist uartz to the Munger M run $5.00 to the ton ed FREE of charge. ne miner MUST be pr mill during the entit ing his quartz. WARD SPENCER. Manager Munger Mi Public Notice and restaurants wis cooks, waiters, baker and yard men can do to the International h

Mr. Lessing, Prop. Bakery for Sale. rest in the best pay the city. Inquire for pa this office.

it in another

eek and Grand Forks. ck, per mon h....

the best out of the Sports- wake, flock to the garden, and after Perhaps the fact that they both Her mate chases her and pecks at one must be a sports- one skurry around the circle gravimatters of fly casting, tate to the canoe landing and stare some sense of kinship with him. She hour after hour, and she scuttles when it comes to guns entranced at the Indians who bring mowing in woodcraft, a their canoes alongside.

a parts if story swapping : Canoeing is fun-but canoeing with or of the usy urban dweller and feathers! Could anything out- her photograph taken. The photo- and gives the bully a fight worthy of 1 know a trout from a side of a story book beat that? of couldn't hit the side of . One chubby little five-year-old in a Supare Garden at close resplendent Russian coat and white tract a good deal of en- cap beckoned to an Indian valiantly from the show if he but, when the canoe headed toward in the right way. He him, clutched his French nurse desat least a day to it. perately and made round O's with did Mene and Mr. Friesser use every Oh, there's plenty of individuality he should take several his eyes, and his mouth. The nurse is cue is an acquaintance lifted him into the canoe and climbed hibits, human and brute, in herself.

The little man kept a tight hold camera. akes time. examine a guide or a on her hand, but never took his eyes one can a shotgun. Foth from the Indian. Not a thing did he nd reserve and need to see on the shore as they went glidgently, unobtrusively ingby

The trapper cleaning a gory skin in the guides will answer shudder, but the small boy didn't if they feel that it is of them; but it isn't the see him. In all the wide world there ant the talk that is heard existed for him nothing save the imcampfire or in the cabin passive figure plying the paddle.

er's sport is over and the When the ride was over the laddie ox? A score of times Mene coaxed mach is full, and the protest against getting out, and they place and struck an attitude beside ted, and the flask goes started on another round, the wide her. Before the photographer could blue eyes in the round, chubby face get to work, Olive invariably wheeled s lack snap and force. of their setting as the still staring in lascination at the around and presented an uncomof theirs. They are as Indian. The boy had loosed his hold promising back view. on the murse's hand. His own a camp as the artificial a end of the garden is pudgy little hands were clasping his in the manoeuvre. Mene stood m and rapids of the Can- fat little knees. He had forgotten sweating in his furs. The photohvor of the camp stories happy. Again and again the boat came scent in the garden diffte smell of the Maine would not budge. are splendid fellows, are restless down here. more tickets: h like theatrical posing me scenery. They are not rago at fly casting and laxed into a smile; while the onschool graduate does bey go in to shoot and a me unior branch of the last the nurse insisted upon going to show oil, and she loves a crowd. beats home Association "Whatever will your mamma say, guides go away and think Master Eddie ?" she scolded, as she pulled down his coat skirt and set- without any of her own kin?" the reand whittle. They's tled his hat. "Two dollars for porter asked. the high school boy and my in the woods and see boat rides." d foot up. Whipping an ol or shooting at a tarbrow. Water craft or "Don't bother," he said sternly. 'I'm finkin'.''

He was still traversing primeval wn world the guides and wings. They'll be glad forest streams in company with a wild Indian. then the show is over. us don't feel the same are not in the right sethad then they are quite cal. One small boy leaned over the her mates, I suppose. When I took eing out of it. avs and Penobscots who "Say," he asked confidentially, "do me feature of the of playing at being pic- you believe they're real Indians? On lone little musk ox, the only captive Oh, the happy, happy farmer wades as, but then it amuses w York folk like to look only white folks painted and dressed a Chicago backyard and calling Out to where the wintry demons sciskin and beads and up? They ain't like Buffalo Bill's across a continent to its, kin in the head dresses they will Indians. Their noses ain't right and frozen land, the kin it could not re- And he chops and nearly freezes their cheeks ain't right. They might member, but of which something in lia cheerfully be just anybody."

THE DAILY KLONDIKE NUGGET: DAWSON, Y. T.

lad he got into his fur Esquiman often crossed with them to gain the toggery and went into the iron cage fighting strain. Now the mate of the white bully centre would, if a railway line were Bellow and Bellow shot Pritchett. or stall where Olive, the musx ox is something of a fighter herself, constructed, be brought within very odges. Olive is a good natured brute and but she'll put up with almost anyshe hadn't any objection to Mene. thing for the sake of a quiet life. hailed from Arctic lands gave her her and claws at her, and bullies her looked him over, smelled him care- meekly around without an effort at fully and then ignored him.

Julius Friesser, her keeper, tried the limit of her patience. a live Indian in buckskin and beads to explain to her that she must have grapher went into the cage and set any hero. As often as not, she up his tripod and camera. He wanted the musk ox at the other end of though there's no quarter on either thelittle pen.

She wouldn't go. She was inter- in being done up by a member of his ested in the photographer. In vain own family will and blandishment. In vain did in the Sportsmen's Show exhibits if they offer her carrots. She took the one has time and interest to look carrots and wandered back to the for it .- New York Sun.

The Happy Farmer.

self-defence, but finally she reaches

Whenever the photographer stepped Oh, the happy, happy farmer, who out and tried to dictate a pose, lives seven miles from town, Olive rushed him and he skipped Has no furnace in the basement that nimbly behind his camera. must now be shaken down ! "It's not that I'm afraid," he exwill talk, in a per- front of his cabin made the nurse plained to the gazing crowd, "but I He doesn't have to hurry out to catch the train and then would hate to have her hurt my camera." the slave of other men ; It wasn't logical, but what is logic in dealing with an opinionated musk No superior berates him for the small mistakes he makes. came back to earth long enough to the shaggy little brute to the right He is not denied employment for some little rule he breaks, from the duties of the day, ing footpads on the way She seemed to take a positive joy Oh, the happy, happy farmer, he just

Their flavor differs to be afraid, but he was exstatically grapher lost his temper. Finally they gave it up The crowd drifted away. Mr. back to the landing. The youngster Friesser, who had been genially un-

The nurse perturbed, rubbed the shaggy head as shrugged her shoulders and bought it fished around his pockets for apples. He and Olive understand For exactly one hour and a half each other, and it's a great thing they rode round and round the strip for the only musk ox in captivity to of water, and even the Indian re- have a friend who understands her. "She doesn't pose very well," the lookers pointed out the small boy friend said laughingly, "but she's and laughed. He never knew it. At very feminine for all that. She likes

She enjoys this sort of thing on that account. "But doesn't she get lonesome Oh, the happy, happy farmer doesn't "Oh, no. She was only four Master Eddie wrinkled his small months old when Capt. Bodfish got her, you know, and she and I are good company for each other. "The only times I've seen her un happy have been when I've taken her out in the snow: I suppose it stirred up something in her blood. She To a perch beside some neighbor who Some of the children haven't his sniffed and sniffed and threw back fine imagination and are over-criti- her head, gave long queer calls-for railing and talked to the Sun report- her back indoors she seemed unhappy."

It was a pathetic picture, that the dead now, do yer, or are they of its kind, standing in the snow of shows among strangers, but Mene

snow and ice

Then she turns and makes a stand wipes up the cage with him, and side, he seems to take a certain joy easy reach of Seattle.

In Kentucky.

Work behind a desk and worry as And he needn't, when he's weary Hurry to some distant station, dodg> hustles out of bed And goes, shivering, for the kindling, which he chops out in the shed ; Then, while maw is getting breakfast he runs out to milk the cows

And to pry the frozen hay up from dusty, dusty mows ! Oh, he milks, away at Bossy, and his hands are cracked and sore. But he thinks with kindly pity of the pale clerk in the store, And he curries down the horses and at last, all hairy, goes

In to breakfast with the odor of the stable in his nose !

have to pay a cent

To a landlord who is heartless when he comes to claim his rent ! The luckless clerk is worried when some other man than he Is promoted to a station where he knows he ought to be

And his wife - his poor wife - hags him just because she cannot fly is roosting rather high ; He must walk an aisle from morning till they close the doors at night. And goes home to find the water in the laundry frozen tight.

in snow up to his knees have been overturning trees, while the mad wind howls away, boat, which is now being agitated in over business, and when they met on both cities, Tthis important mining the streets today Princhett shot

3

With a bullet through his heart

Pritchett fired the third shot at Bellow, but missed. Prichett then fell and expired. Pritchett was one of ne Syndicate,

CIAL COMPANY Retail At Right Prices. K BUILDING, King Street *********** April 7. NO SMOKING y. Thursday or Prilar *********** 0000000000000 VICE

rse, $125.0

days, stopping at first-tablished line and a son Every Tulesday. The y at the Pass & Yukon Ticket 6.

000000000000000

JOR CO

EVER

STAGES

He was relieved to know they d trousers and Derby were real, but he doesn't think much m dresses and hats at it's all a matter of of the Penobscot and Ojibway types. There's a little Indian boy, aged 5, Olive made in the narrow pen with ce the New York folk who fills the hearts of the white the camera trained upon them and a pay for their whims youngsters with envy. He's a mere gaping crowd standing round. Both prefer blue-checked

you bet.

inice clothes

on their bravery over scarp of a boy, but he has a knile- exiles from the same land, both novel and striped trousers. such a knife.

Itis almost as big as the boy, and can read and write English and says and girls wear the naits blade is long and shiny. It is he is happy. Olive says nothing, but all day, but blossom sharp too, for its owner sits in seems content save when the snow street fashion when front of the tent and whittles splen- calls her.

There's one animal in the show did big shavings from beautiful soft to see them at home, ay brave, as he held his sticks. A whole group of boys stood that is distinctly unhappy. That's the pine-covered rail- looking enviously across the water, the Axis deer. He's a beauty, but the other morning, and commenting admiration cannot soothe him, and ed slangily with a Sun he trots restlessly around his pen, They've got to dress on the joys of Indian life. "Gee, ain't that a knife," said making sudden little darts toward wa here, but they look

one. "I expect he's had one ever the netting, as though bound to since he could hold anything. They break through and escape. You Here is more sentiment. The deer train them that way. I bet he's got y were Indians when wants his wife and baby. He's fathreal clothes. You a tomahawk too, and it won't be no time till he'll be shooting things and er to a wonderful leggy little baby He just keeps forever paying woof us were Indians. cutting them up. I tell you that's at the Central Park Zoo, and he home. That's right. buy some clothes down the way to do-no learnin' arithme- hasn't been allowed to have even a And at night he needn't dress and glimpse of the infant. tic and spellin' and things. up home and mash the

The oldest Indian girl is pretty. good houses up there She knows it. In her simple Ojib- stay at the Zoo and look after the and halls and churches way fashion she flirts with any one baby. Her mate considers that if the managers of the Sportsmen's been educated. Don't from a guide to a Willy boy. The Ojibway fashion seems to be Show had hearts in their bosoms, if re blanket Injuns. Not much like that in vogue on Fifth they ever had been fathers themselves pointing. It marred avenue and on Broadway, with, per- they wouldn't keep him away from his deputation from the local board of of the feather-decked haps a little of the emphasis of the family. He raves against their lack trade has waited upon the provincial cance and the paddle Grand street variety; but in conjunc- of consideration. water, but the Ojib-In earnest. He didn't bright Indian face, and picturesque his own. Olive, the musx ox, was to Alberni on the other side of Van-Inderstood who paddle the canoes the island and take show turn smiling faces to the girl. deadly hatred, and resented her pres- M. P. P. of Alberni, who, representand twice for 10 cents vative with her smiles and friendli- her to the other side of the island. ney, and dreaming es they will make turn their faces home- mau boy, and no one else. Mene is til he took pneumonia and was to Comox by way of Alberni. ay last week the four shy, but that doesn't make any diff- chastened by illness. Now the only The government has now promised in ten-cent fares, and erence. ng closing, that they friendly enough for two and the white pheasant. I lou miles in the couple have good times together and He's a mighty fighter, that pheas- permit of it. This party will report are their best cus- average of twice every five minutes. family man, and about once a day usually a grown-up Mene had troubles of his own one there is a scrap in the white pheas- becoming a very important mining along to give the day last week. He was invited to ant cage that is worth the price of center, will be considerable. Innumerable have his picture taken with the admission. All white pheasants, it direct communication between Seat-73, with nurses in their young musk ox and being an obliging seems, are fighters. Game birds are the and Nanaimo by means of steam-its blood spoke when it sniffed the And the echoes of his mauling ring among the trees all day 1 And there was a touch of senti-

The snow gets in his boot tops, and ment, too, in the picture Mene and the frost bites at his ears, While the noises he produces are the only sounds he hears, And at night he thaws the pump loose and goes out to do the chores.

Where the snow in long, thin ridges filters through the stable doors.

Oh, the happy, happy farmer, what a careless life he leads ! Instead of always buying, he just raises what he needs.

His neighbors don't ignore him if he's not as rich as they All he has to do is work to keep the old gray wolves away.

The coal man and the plumber never crowd him to the wall; for farm implements, that's all, blow three dollars for the treat Moreover, Mme. Axis is obliged to Of beholding a performance that's worth fifty cents a seat.

-Chicago Record-Herald

New Railroad.

Nanaimo, B. C., March 24. government a second time in the in-tion with flowing black hair and a He has always had a fine temper of terests of a railway from this city Indian garbs it has a charm of its installed next to him when the show couver island. They were ably asown, and most of the men about the opened, but he hated her with a sisted this time by G. A. Huff, ex-Her younger sister is more conservence so hotly that they had to move ing the citizens of that place, spent several days in Victoria pushing the ness. They are for Mene, the Esqui- The bull elk had a temper, too, un- scheme of a railway from Nanaimo

The small Pocahontas is fighting rival of the Axis is the to put a surveying party in the field just as soon as the weather will pose for their photographs on an ant, and a swaggering, bullying upon the feasibility of the route. "The trade of Alberni, which is fast

Keep ported on local and foreign events. You can do this by subscribing for the

DAILY NUGGET

The Nugget has the best telegraph service and the most complete local news gathering system of any Dawson paper, and will be de livered to any address in the city for $3.00 Per Month!

Japan American Line

Carrying U. S. Mails to Oriental Points.

Steamer Every 2 Weeks

For Japan, China and All Asiatic

612 First Avenue, Seattle

Points.

Ticket Office