PARIS

(From our own Correspondent.)
PARIS, Feb. 13.—Paris curlers left for Toronto to-day to play for the Governor-General's trophy, they having already won three districts.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church gave a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hicks, Mechanic street, Tuesday evening. The following splendid programme was given: Piano solo, Mrs. Jefferson; song, Mr. McCullen; recitation, Elina Hicks; violin and piano, Miss Randall, piano violin, Mr. Gribble and Miss MacQueen; recitation, Miss Aherns; song, Mr. Murray Taylor; song, Mr. McMillan; violin and piano, Mrs. MacQueen and Mr. Gribble. Rev. Mr. Macbeth moved a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hicks on behalf of the Ladies Aid, and to those taking part, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. S. Foulds was laid to rest this afternoon. Mrs. Foulds will be greatly missed by her many friends in and around Paris.

Mr. K. G. Hammond, scout commissioner, put our boys through the different forms of instruction last evening. The boys have been trying for the King's colors. We understand the lads did splendidly last evening, and run a good chance for the same. If they win them it means a trip to England next summer.

Not What He Meant.
A party of four just returning from a theater called in at a fashionable restaurant. The prim old maid who was the guest of the evening was charmed with everything, especially the music. While the waiter was standing by the table she asked him to find out the title of the piece the orchestra was playing. The willing waiter promised, but other duties claimed him for awhile, and when he returned the lady had completely forgotten her request. When he bent toward her and softly whispered something in her ear she recoiled with horror. Then, recovering from the shock she turned with cold, relentless fury upon the hapless man who waited.

"How dare you!" she cried. "How dare you!"

It took the terrified waiter quite a time to explain why he had merely breathed the title of the piece so softly. "What Can I Do to Make You Love Me?"—Tit-Bits.

Extreme Case of Eczema

So quick to relieve the itching, so certain to heal the sores, it seems a waste of time to try other preparations in treating eczema and salt rheum when Dr. Chase's Ointment can be obtained.

You may know of many cures brought about by this great ointment, for it has a record unparalleled in the history of medicine. This letter is a fair example of many received.

Mr. Wm. Angus, postmaster, Loggoch, Man., writes: "My father was almost covered with salt rheum or eczema, and though he doctored and tried almost everything he could hear about, he only got worse. Some one advised Dr. Chase's Ointment which he used, and to his surprise and relief, after using three boxes he was cured, and has never had it since. My wife was also cured of salt rheum on her hands by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, after other treatments had failed."

A Ready Weapon Against Pain—There is nothing equal to Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil when well rubbed in. It penetrates the tissues and pain disappears before it. There is no known preparation that will reach the spot quicker than this magic Oil. In consequence it ranks first among liniments now offered to the public and is accorded first place among all its competitors.
