MARIE CORELLI IS FURIOUS

Speaks of Britain's "Pagan Clergy"—Archdeacon
Sinclair Attacked.

Marie Says They Play the Petty Tyrant With Domineering Obstinacy.

London, July 7.—Archdeacon Sinclair's description of London as a "Pagan city" has drawn from Miss Marie Corelli a furious attack on the clergy—or, at least, some of them. The article appears in this week's Byrtander.

"It is quite easy," observes Miss Corelli, "to say 'Pagan London,' but what if one spoke of pagan clergy? What of certain ecclesiastics who do not believe one word of the creed they profess, and who daily play the part of Judas Iscariot over again in taking money for a new betrayal of Christ? 'What of the ordained ministers of Christianity who are non-Christian in every word and act of their daily lives? What of the surprised hypocrites who preach to others what they never try to practice? What of the countless vicious and worldly clerical bon-vivants, who may be met with everywhere in the houses of wealthy and titled persons, clothed in fine linen and faring sumptuously every day, talking unsavory society scandal with as much easy glibness as any dissolute 'lay' decadent that ever cozened another man's wife away from the path of honor in the tricky disguise of a 'Soul'?"

"What of the spiteful, small-minded, quarrelsome little 'local' parsons, who, instead of fostering kindness, neighborliness, good-will and unity among their parishioners, set them all by the ears, and play the petty tyrant with a domineering obstinacy which is rather worse than pagan, being purely barbarous?" "And if the word 'pagan' be used at all, should it not be particularly and specially applied to those theatrical dignitaries of the church whose following of the simple and beautiful doctrine of Christ consists in a shameful disobedience to His commands—disobedience openly displayed in the ornate ritual and 'vain repetitions' which Christ expressly forbade?" "Disloyal to both God and the King, the 'pagan clergy' are doing more at this present day to injure the cause of true religion among the masses than is any lack of zeal or want of faith that may exist in the people themselves. Who can blame sensible men and women for staying away from church, when in nine cases out of ten they know that the officiating minister is less Christian, less enlightened, less charitable, and kind-hearted than themselves?"

In conclusion, Miss Corelli declares that "if London is indeed a 'pagan city,' as Archdeacon Sinclair solemnly declared from under the shadowy luminescence of his own big 'fairy lamp,' St. Paul's Cathedral, then the clergy, and the clergy alone, are responsible. On their 'ordained' heads be it! For 'pagan' people are merely the natural outcome of a 'pagan' priesthood."

WEST HASTINGS NOMINATION

The object being to nominate a Liberal-Conservative candidate to contest the next election for the legislature. Mr. M. B. Morrison, the present member, received the unanimous nomination. Speeches were made by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Messrs. Corby, Porter, Morrison and several others. Resolutions of confidence in Messrs. Borden and Whitney were carried amid much enthusiasm.

GREAT BRITAIN AND JAPAN

No Breach of Neutrality Committed in Sending Ships to Komader.

Any Raid on Seal Fisheries Will Be Dealt With by Japan Alone.

London, July 7.—In the House of Commons to-day, Premier Balfour, replying to a question of Gibson Bowles (Conservative), said that the action of Great Britain in sending warships to the Komader Islands for the protection of seals was taken at the request of the Russians and Japanese. No jurisdiction would be exercised over Japanese vessels, but the Japanese Government had requested that any raid should be reported to it and the Government of Japan would deal therewith. There was no breach of neutrality in Great Britain's action, and no international question could arise therefrom. Mr. Balfour, in the course of his answer, reminded Mr. Bowles that the Pribilof Islands did not belong to Russia, as stated in his question, but to the United States.

WANT DAMAGES

At the time of the cyclone in South Essex some weeks ago, the force of the wind destroyed a portion of a dyke on Pelee Island and the councillors of the island township at once placed a dam across the canal to prevent the flooding of about 8,000 acres of land. The waters held back by the dam flooded the farms of several farmers and they have retained A. St. George Ellis, of Windsor, to compel the councillors to repair the dyke, remove the dam and pay damages for the flooding of their farms.

ROOSEVELT COMING

Montreal, July 7.—The officials of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company have been notified that President Roosevelt and his family will visit Canada during the month of August, and will spend some time at Murray Bay, on the lower St. Lawrence. Before becoming President, Mr. Roosevelt frequently visited that part of the St. Lawrence.

That the American trunk lines will not get back any of the grain or corn trade that has steadily been taken from them by the company using the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence route is shown by a statement made to your correspondent by Mr. J. Corbett, foreign freight agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway Atlantic Steamship Company.

BAD BOYS

Two lads, aged about 12 years each, appeared before Judge Houston this morning on a charge of shooting a flobert rifle within the precincts of this city. The lads confessed that they had been shooting at Col. Sam Holmes' pigeons. The boys were remanded till Monday.

Judge Houston pointed out that the statute was very strict in regard to selling fire arms or ammunition to minors and he asked the police to prosecute the boys who had sold the boys the ammunition. An information will be laid. The statute provides a fine not exceeding $50 for anyone who sells fire arms or ammunition to any one under 16 years of age. There is also a fine of $25 for selling fire arms or ammunition to anyone and not keeping a record of the transaction. There is also a fine of $10 and not more than $100 for pointing a fire arm at anyone.

JUVENILE WRECKER

"Small boys have been getting busy again," said special agent Skirving of the Pere Marquette last night. On Wednesday they placed some scrap iron on the Grand Trunk tracks near the Sarnia station for the fun of 'seeing the engine go up in the air,' as they said. Pere Marquette trains run over the Grand Trunk tracks for some distance when coming out of Sarnia. The Pere Marquette train bound south on Wednesday evening was swinging along towards the town limits when engineer Mike Mannion espied a suspicious object ahead, and quickly brought his train to a standstill. The suspicious looking object proved to be a pile of scrap iron, which would probably have put up a strong argument with the locomotive as to the right of way. It was immediately wired for, and, arriving in Sarnia next morning, shortly had the culprit captured. He is a small boy of about ten years of age, and account of his youth the railway don't know exactly what punishment to impose. It seems to me a good hard flogging would make these bad boys a little better."

WANTED TO SEND OLD MAN TO JAIL

solve a question that may mean extra expense to the township.

An old man named William Johnston, of Elmstead, lives in a hovel, and is in such a condition that he should be removed to some institution for treatment at once. He is not eligible for admission to the county house, and the township councillors do not wish to pay for his maintenance at the Windsor hospital. One of the councillors hit upon a scheme to unload the old man upon the county, but so far he has failed to carry out his designs. His proposal is to have Johnston committed to the county jail as a vagrant and, once behind the bars, his board will have to be paid by the county. If he is too ill to remain in jail, the councillor figures that the county will be compelled to send him to some institution for medical treatment. The township father paid a visit to Windsor yesterday.
