time comes for them to leave the home next to thrust them out a pr y its the demons of intemperance and importe, all waiting for them along seemingly fair paths. Let our prayer be: 'Use me, my God, in Thy great harvest field which atracheth far and wide.'

it looks now as if we could at least be assured a good breakfast for the in-ture as eggs, becon and butter are all on the downard treck in price. The vision of a ten dollar price per bushel for beans has also vanished and now hear exters can get that atticle for four dollars or less per bushel.
