The entire structure at S a. m. was a mass of ruins, though the walls had not yet fallen. The building is located between the New York Central tracks and the Erie Canal, and extends from Union to Liberty street. There are no adjacent structures, so the fire did not spread be-yond the building in which it started. The building was worth over $100,000, was owned by Mrs. Anna E. Van Deusen, and was partly insured. The stock in the various stores is a total loss, and as yet no accurate estimate can be made. The firmen fough the flames valiant. noon and evening. In the afternoon Con-nelly and Bell, of the local club, defeated the Canadian champions, Capps and Suth-erland, of the Toronto Royal Canadians, three out of five games, and won by a total of 61 pins. Bell was in fine form, and Connolly also heat his man. The Royal Canadians journeyed from Toron-to with a strong aggregation, and rooted strongly for their great favorites, but the strong rollers from the local club ably demonstrated their superiority, and won on their merits. Up to the end of the second game the H. B. & A. C. were slightly behind, but they made a very strong finish, and surprised the trundlers from Toronto. toon and evening.
