INCORRECT.—The statement in last week's Maple Leaf that there were several cases of typhoid fever in Hillsboro and vicinity, is not correct. There are two cases of fever but the doctors appear to know nothing about any typhoid fever in this village.

STORE CLOSED.—Archibald Steeves' store will be closed all day next Saturday. Mr. Steeves is engaged in "taking stock" and in order to facilitate the work has decided not to open to the public on that day. His customers will do well to bear this in mind and make their purchases on Friday.

REMOVED.—Samuel Spencer of Surrey has moved his family to Hopewell Cape.

George Bailey of Baltimore has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Spencer. George Ferguson has moved from his former residence on Lower Lane into part of the house on Main Street, occupied by Mrs. Mainwaring.

I. O. G. T.—At the regular session of Weldon Lodge, No. 177, last Thursday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing quarter:

John F. McLatchy C. T.; Maria Morfano V. T.; Laura Stiles S. J. T.; Martha Bray R. S.; L. Harvey Steeves F. S.; Wm. G. Duffy T.; Avar Steeves C. J. Jas. Gallagher M.; Mary Currie G.; Murdoch Steeves S.; Vinnie McLatchy P. C. T.

NOT SOLD.—Messrs. F. W. Emmonson, A. Kilam, M. P. P. and Co. who went to Albert to purchase the possession of the Albert Southern Railway were unable to effect their purpose. The trouble was caused by Mrs. Oliver, to whom the stock and bonds had been transferred and who acted according to the instructions of C. A. Peck Esq., refusing to sign the agreement. The contemplated justification at Albert had, therefore, to be indefinitely postponed or made less public than had been anticipated.

JOURNALISTIC.—The Summerside Journal, one of our brightest and no wisest exchanges, has again been enlarged, now being a 40 column paper. We are pleased to see it prospering.

The St. John Evening Gazette has also been enlarged and improved. It is a fearless, outspoken, wide-awake paper, loyal and patriotic and, deserves success.

The Eastern Chronicle of New Glasgow, N. S. has lately changed proprietors, Mr. James A. Fraser now being at its helm. The Chronicle is bright and interesting but sadly waywardly.

W. O. T. U.—Mrs. Harvey Atkinson, of Moncton, met a few of the Hillsboro ladies, at Mrs. Council Wood's on Friday last, and organized a W. O. T. U. The following were elected officers:

Wood, Secretary; Miss Clara Bishop, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Archibald Steeves, Treasurer; Mrs. J. N. Wells, Superintendent of Literary Department; Mrs. John I. Steeves, Superintendent of Juvenile Department; Miss Emma King, Superintendent of Missionary Department; Mrs. Lewis, Superintendent of Musical Department. They are to meet fortnightly. The next meeting to be held in the 1st Hillsboro Baptist Vestry, on Saturday afternoon Nov. 10th.

HARVEY FAIR.—The people of Harvey were favored with a fine day for their annual exhibition last Thursday. The attendance was not large owing to many of the farmers being employed in the harvest field, for the same reason the entries were not as numerous as usual but the exhibits were generally of superior quality. Some very fine vegetables were shown while the cattle and horses made a creditable display. The ladies work was greatly admired, a silk cravat work sofa robe was by Mrs. Dibble (formerly Miss Violet Casey) deserving special mention. It contained 1075 pieces and had 1667 different styles of embroidery stitches. It was very handsome and was admired by every person.

The dinner prepared by the members of the Harvey Sewing Circle was highly appreciated by all who partook of it.

BARBURNED.—Last Monday evening a barn belonging to W. Harding Steeves of Weldon, A. Co., was destroyed by fire, together with its contents.

The barn, which was nearly new, was 42 by 54, with 18 feet posts, and contained 60 bushels wheat, 80 bushels buckwheat, about 50 and 60 bushels oats, about 20 tons hay, mowing machine, ploughs, harrows, 2 sleighs, pump, double wagon, double and two single harness, (one silver mounted), horse frame 30 by 28, 3 horses, 4 cows, etc. Mr. Steeves succeeded in saving his horses and 2 cows; everything else being consumed with the barn. In trying to save his cows Mr. Steeves narrowly escaped death as he had to dash through the flames after the cows had dropped in their stands. His face was burned and his chest continues sore from the effects of inhaling the hot air. As there was no insurance the loss is very heavy, being variously estimated at from $1000 to $1500.

MARRIAGE AT CALEDONIA.—The Baptist Church at Caledonia was brilliantly lighted and well filled last Sunday evening, to witness the marriage of Mr. William H. Reid, of Caledonia, to Miss Mary A. Turner, second daughter of Deacon John W. H. Turner of same place.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. K. Filmon, and was very impressive. The bride was attended by Mrs. G. D. Reid, of Caledonia, and the groom was supported by G. D. Reid, his brother, of the same place.

The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers by the many friends of the bride and groom.

After the ceremony a large number of invited guests repaired to the home of the bride's father where a most enjoyable evening was spent. The happy couple left for St. John, Tuesday morning, to spend a few days with relatives and friends at that place.

Harvey Notes.

Mr. Henry Stiles, of Beaver Brook, has just finished painting the outside of his house. The body was formerly white. It is now French grey with dark stone trimming.

Capt. A. Berryman, of Germantown, is thinking of painting his house fall. If just a little money and care were spent annually on country residences how differently the country would look.

Germantown has lost one of its most respected citizens. Mr. Pierce Kinzie died on Friday, Oct. 26, in the 66th year of his age.

Mrs. Rufus Smith, of Germantown, has been ill for some time. For several weeks she had appeared demented, but it was thought that she had come to herself again. Yet on Friday morning last, in the temporary absence of her husband, she attempted to commit suicide by jumping, with the largest blade of a large pen-knife, which she took from her trunk. She cut quite a gash in the throat between the jugular veins on the left side and the windpipe. Dr. Parry was called in and dressed the wound. Mr. William Kinney took her, on Tuesday, to the Provincial Insane Asylum.

The Dinner and Sale provided by the ladies on Fair day realized upward of $55.00.

The election for Councilors resulted in the return of Messrs West and Smith, the old Councilors. But it was a close election, 300 being but 7 less than West and Stratton 7 less than Smith.

Mrs. Rufus Tingley returned from Hillsboro last Saturday.

D. H. Calhoun went to St. John last Monday.

While Mr. Rufus Smith, of Germantown was out to the barn last Friday morning his wife attempted suicide by cutting an ugly gash in her throat. Dr. Parry was called in and the cut proved to be nothing serious.
