Samuel Clarke
The death of Samuel Clarke one of the oldest citizens of the Miramichi, and a beloved member of the Presbyterian church, occurred at his home at Chelmsford Tuesday afternoon. Deceased was in his 91st year. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Elizabeth Gorbett of Chelmsford, and the following sons and daughters: Calvin, John W, Alex and Iris, all of Chelmsford; Mrs Robert Tozer of the North West Miramichi, and Miss Ella at home. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

Funeral of Percy Lindon
The funeral of the late Percy Lindon, was held on Friday forenoon, and was very largely attended. It was under the auspices of Court Loyalist No 824 Canadian Order of Foresters, six of whom—R A N Jarvis, Willis Nicholson, J H Troy, J Robinson Alton, James Stables and Clifford Alton—were pallbearers. Services were conducted at St Andrew's church and at the grave in Miramichi cemetery by Rev W J Bate. Beautiful floral tributes were sent by Court Loyalist, and by deceased's fellow-workers in the C G R freight office, as well as by others. Over 40 teams followed the remains to their last resting place.

Lt R K Shives to get D C M
Lt Robt K Shives, B A (U N B), of Campbellton, has been recommended for the Distinguished Conduct Medal for his work at the front as a member of the Royal Flying Corps. His feat of bringing his machine from within 12 miles over the German lines to the aerodrome, situated about twelve miles back of the British lines, after he had been wounded in a fight with a German airman, came in for due recognition by the officer commanding the squadron of which Lieut Shives was a member and the recommendation for a D C M was sent forward. He has also been recommended for promotion and will be given this as soon as he reports for duty again next month. Three days previous to being wounded Lieut Shives was recommended for a promotion and this would have gone through at the time had he come through his scrap with the German aviator un wounded.

Golden Jubilee of His Lordship Bishop Barry

Rev. Thos. F Barry, D. D. Lovingly Honored by the Clergy and Laity of his Diocese

(Chatham World, Aug 12, 1916)
Friday, at St Michael's Cathedral, large congregations of clergy and laity assembled to celebrate the golden jubilee of His Lordship, Rt Rev. Bishop Barry's ordination to the priesthood.

Bishop Barry was ordained a priest in August 1866, and was appointed Bishop of the diocese in 1900. At 9 o'clock a m. Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by Rt Rev Louis O'Leary, D. D., auxiliary bishop of Chatham, assisted by Rev J J McLaughlin as deacon, and Rev Eloi Martin as subdeacon, J H Hart, master of ceremonies, Bishop Barry on the Throne in magna cappa, assisted by Rev L N Dugal, V G D P, and Rev Wm Varrily D P, and Rev W Sornany, master of ceremonies at the Throne.

An eloquent sermon, eulogistic of the life and work of the venerable bishop, was preached by Bishop Henry O'Leary, D. D. of Charlottetown. At the conclusion of mass, addresses were read in both French and English by Rt Rev Wm Varrily and Rev S J Doucet and a purse of $1000 in gold presented by the priests of the diocese.

His Lordship made brief replies in both languages to the addresses, thanking the donors for their generous gift and filial devotion.

At 12:30 o'clock in St Thomas College, a banquet was tendered the Bishop by the priests of the diocese when about sixty sat down to an excellent repast. The dining hall was elaborately decorated for the occasion with the papal colors. A large white bell inscribed in gold letters "Fifty Years" was suspended above the guest of honor, and opposite was his coat of arms on a shield. Facing His Lordship was Bishop Henry O'Leary and on either side was Bishop Louis O'Leary and Mgr Varrily.

In the evening two addresses were read, one from the parishioners of the Cathedral parish by Mr R A Lawlor, K C, and the presentation of $1000 was made in their behalf by Mr R Babineau. The address from the people of Bathurst was read by Mr Edw O'Brien, and a purse of $500 was presented to His Lordship in behalf of the people of Bathurst by Mr Doucet.

His Lordship briefly and feelingly replied to both, thanking them for their generosity and asking for a continuance of their prayers for himself and God's blessing on his people.

Pontifical Benediction was then celebrated by Bishop Henry O'Leary, D. D. of Charlottetown. Later St Michael's Band serenaded the Bishop at the Palace, and Rev Fr Joyner responded with a speech in His Lordship's behalf.

The address from the parishioners of the Cathedral parish was as follows:

May It Please Your Lordship
It is not given to many of "God's Chosen" to labor during half a century in the vineyard of the Lord. You are, however, My Lord, one of the privileged few, and the fiftieth anniversary of your Ordination to the Holy Priesthood no doubt fills your heart and soul with many stirring emotions of wonder and awe at the greatness of God's mercy and of thanksgiving and gratitude for the multitude of His graces. Permit, My Lord, that we the congregation of the Cathedral Parish of St Michael in offering you our most heartfelt congratulations, join with you in expressing to the Most High our earnest gratitude for having spared you so long and enabled you to labor so zealously and so well in our midst. Although your "Golden Jubilee" is an occasion of great rejoicing to the entire Diocese of which you are the Chief Pastor, yet may we not claim a special part in the rejoicings of the day? When, with hands still moist with the Holy Oils of Ordination you looked out upon the new and vast field of labor, thus opened to your view, we the Parishioners of Chatham fell directly beneath your gaze, and we were the first to profit by your zealous ministrations during the early years of your priesthood. The needs of the Diocese and the wishes of your Superiors led you from us to other spheres of activity, but when the Holy See placed the crown upon your labors and the Priesthood of God reached its plenitude in your Episcopal Consecration, you returned to us and we who profited by the zeal and devotion of the young "Father Barry" became the subject of the greater and more efficient efforts of the venerable "Bishop Barry" of Chatham.

It would be vain for us to endeavor to express in weak words our deep appreciation of all that you have done for us. Nor need we do so, for every stone in this wonderful temple erected to God's glory, as well as of the imposing structure that makes its complement as the "Bishop's Palace"—every voice that rises in prayer or in instruction in St Thomas College and in St Joseph's School are so many witnesses who proclaim aloud our gratitude for what you have done for the temporal and spiritual betterment of the Cathedral Parish. They testify to all the earnest zeal and devotion, the administrative ability and persevering charity of the Bishop to whom we owe so much and whose Golden Jubilee to Priesthood it is our honor and our pleasure to celebrate today.

In this twilight of your life as the sun is setting in the Golden radiance of your Jubilee our hearts are pleased and rejoice to note that the radiance foretells the clear and glorious dawn of the bright eternal day. May God grant that the twilight be peaceful and long enduring, softened by the sympathy and friendship of your clergy and cheered by the earnest gratitude and devout prayers of all your faithful people.—May the Mantle of Our Lady of Lourdes be wrapped about your declining years, and the great St Michael our Patron, exercise for you his most powerful protection—is the humble Jubilee wish and prayer of

Your faithful Parishioners of St Michael's Cathedral Parish.

THE URBAN STOCK COMPANY IN GREAT PRODUCTION

The Urban Stock Company, headed by Miss Marion Johnston, will commence a three night's engagement at the Opera House on Thursday, Aug. 17th in "Sinners" by Owen Davis. This new American comedy drama enjoyed a run of 321 consecutive performances at the Playhouse in New York City. In brief: Mary Horton goes to New York City to earn money for her sick mother, back home in Great Falls, N. H. She has exhausted her small resources and unable to find work she by chance meets Hilda Newton, a former friend of her old home. She knows that Hilda is not leading the right life, but she is hungry and lonely and goes to Hilda's apartments to stay for a while. Hilda feels for the girl and tries to protect her, but a little supper party is about to be the test, when word comes that her mother is dying. She hurries home and several weeks later the gay New York friends on an auto trip call at her home. The dear little mother does not realize that they are not of her world, she loves her little girl Mary, therefore all must be right—it is not—but it turns out so. The experience of the girl in the big city, the pious hypocritical lover from the old home; the strong, manly lover who has made money and now thinks he cares for the bright life; each have their part, but the tender little village mother is the dominant factor in this heart drama which is human. The play is in four acts.

Other plays to be produced during their engagement here will be Denman Thompson's famous and ever popular drama "The Old Homestead" and that breezy farce comedy "Nearly Married." Specialties between the acts. Seats will be on sale at Dickson & Troy's.
