NEWS OF THE WEEK.

The lumber cut on the St. John river, N. B., for the coming winter is estimated at 75,000,000, or about half of last year's cut. The low price causes the lumbermen to hold over a large part of last season's Ernest Kempt, oyster expert for the fisheries department, returned to Ottawa on Friday last, having com-pleted the season's work. His inspection tour has taken him well over the maritime provinces. The beds planted in P.E. Island are doing well, but information reached the department that the Shediac beds, which were the first planted, are not quite sacred from the intrusion of New Caps and Gloves.

Probably a more honorable or honest lot of men cannot be found on any railway in America than the conductors on the Intercolonial. It is said a suspicion prevails in Mr. Blair's department that all the money collected on the trains is not return ed to the treasurer. As a result of this an order has been issued transferring the conductors to different Messrs. Kelly, Rainnie and Millican of this city are to run be-tween Moncton and Campbellton, while the popular John Sproule of the Sussex express has been transferred to a run from Monc on to Halifax with an occasional run to Springhill on a freight train. Conductors Olive, McLellan and Corbitt of the northern division will come to this city and Sick Headache, Boils, Pimples, Tumors, run between here and Amherst, Conductors McGion and Hunter wi I take the Quebec to Moncton, and Halifax conductors will take the fast express changes will be made on Monday and will last two weeks, at the ex- to Burdock Blood piration of which time it will be probably ascertained that the conductor are not, after all, such a very dishonest
