Sheep Raising in Canada.

None too soon an effort is being made to place the sheep industry of Canada upon a more stable basis than is at present the case. The number of sheep owned in the Dominion has been gradually lessening, so that it compares not at all favourably with other great agricultural countries. In 1881 there were 3,048,678 sheep in Canada; according to the latest returns there are now 2,705,390. In the United Kingdom, on the other hand, there were in 1909, 31,836,833 head, in the Argentine, 67,211,754, in Australia, 87,042,266, and in New Zealand, 23,480,707. There have been other signs as well that the interest in sheep-growing has been on the wane in Canada, and that as compared with these countries it has, in the words of Dr. J. G. Rutherford, the live stock commissioner, permitted sheep-raising to become a somewhat insignificant phase of its agriculture, "notwithstanding its great adaptability both as regards soil and climate for the growing of mutton and wool." This was one of the features of Canadian farming at which the Scottish Agricultural Commissioners, several of whom were expert sheep-farmers, expressed astonishment. It is, therefore, gratifying to learn that it has been decided that the time is ripe for the Dominion government to "consider a comprehensive policy, and to undertake definite and extended measures likely to operate towards the encouragement, improvement, and development of the industry as a whole." To this end two practical men—W. T. Ritchie, of Manchester, England, and W. A. Dryden, of Brooklyn, Ontario—have been appointed to make a preliminary report upon the sheep and wool trade in Great Britain, the United States and Canada. It may be hoped this first step will lead to further action towards establishing sheep-raising as "a recognized factor in promoting the national prosperity" of Canada.—(From "Canada," London).

Notes From Harbor Grace.

The ladies of Christ Church are busily engaged preparing for their Sale of Work, which is to take place on the 22nd and 23rd November. Another contingent of our young men who were unsuccessful at the fishery the past summer will leave by train to-morrow for Sydney and other places to work for the winter. The funeral of the late Mrs. M. Murray took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended by sorrowing friends. You reported the sad death of this lady in your paper on Saturday. The body was brought from St. John's by Saturday evening's train. To the bereaved father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Spence, Mr. Albert Spence, train despatcher with the Reid Nfld. Co., and the other members of the family we tender our deepest sympathy. His Lordship Bishop March and his popular priest, Rev. W. Finn, returned by Thursday's express from their visit abroad. We join with all our citizens in bidding them a very hearty welcome back. A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crocker was attacked by a vicious dog on Thursday evening last. Fortunately Mr. Edmund Rogers came along at the time and turned the savage brute away; Mr. Rodgers had considerable trouble and risk in beating the brute off. The dog was immediately destroyed. The many friends here of Mr. E. H. Davey and family heard with regret the sad news of the death of his esteemed wife, and he has the sympathy of all his acquaintances. Rumor says your correspondent Mary has started a "horneet's nest" by her last letter, and that libel suits are mentioned, and we are not sure that mourning suits for Tom are not spoken of. Be careful, Mary. A large number of the members of the Knights of Columbus from St. John's, Bell Island, and other places are now in town. A banquet is to be given to-night in honour of the return home of His Lordship Bishop March and other clergy. Prof. Nichols will visit Victoria St. school this p.m., and deliver a lecture on drawing to the scholars there. The Agricultural Exhibition held on Wednesday and Thursday last was a grand success. The Agricultural Society as a body is to be congratulated for their untiring efforts for the good of the cause of Agriculture in this Bay. Mr. Norman Munn and Mr. John Brunlees, the Secretary, who spared no time or trouble to make the arrangements perfect are deserving of special mention. The pictures of the Exhibits taken by our local photographers are worth seeing and we hope to have them in the next edition of Pictorial Harbor Grace, soon to be issued. Visitors who have seen exhibitions in Canada say that our Exhibition could not be surpassed. CORRESPONDENT, Harbor Grace, Oct. 24, 1910.

The Bishop of Nfld. at Pouch Cove.

Last Sunday, 21st Sunday after Trinity, His Lordship Bishop Jones visited the Mission of Pouch Cove for the purpose of holding Confirmation. In their desire to show honour to their Bishop, some forty men early in the week erected two fine arches of green boughs, one at the south entrance of the church, and the other on the road near the west end of the graveyard, along which the Bishop was to pass. To our great disappointment a heavy gale of wind, with pelting rain came on early Saturday morning, when the largest and finest arch, after having for several hours withstood the violence of the storm, at last succumbed to its great force and fell with a crash. The gale continued unabated till the afternoon and the arch having been so much shattered from the effect of the storm, it was useless to attempt to re-erect it so as to be in readiness for the next day (Sunday). A bright and pleasant morning ushered in the day, to which so many were eagerly looking forward. The religious exercises of the day began with an early celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30, when the incumbent, Rev. T. G. Netten officiated and eighty-five persons partook of the Blessed Sacrament. Flags were now being run up in every direction. Almost every parishioner had a flag flying near his house. Festoons of flags hung over and on each side of the arch at the entrance of the church. Others were hung across the road at intervals leading to the Parsonage. Some time before the hour for the Confirmation service the church was rapidly filling, and several benches had to be brought over from the schoolroom to provide seats for the overflowing congregation. About 11 a.m. the Bishop arrived, attended by Rev. M. K. Gardner as chaplain. His Lordship robed at the schoolroom, where the clergy, the surpliced choir and the candidates for Confirmation were also assembled. A procession was then formed in the following order: The Bishop, preceded by his chaplain bearing the pastoral staff, the choir, the female candidates all dressed in white, then the male candidates, and in front of all the incumbent, leading the procession to the church. On entering the sacred building the organ pealed forth strains of the hymn "A. & M." "The Church's one foundation," which was heartily sung as the long procession wended its way up the central aisle. A variety of beautiful flowers, most of them of a white color, had been placed behind the altar rails and upon the altar, and seemed to harmonize with the happy occasion. The Confirmation service, always a beautiful one, was unusually impressive on the present occasion. Thirty-seven candidates knelt reverently and received the "laying on of hands." The female candidates in their pure white dresses and Confirmation veils seemed to speak of that spotlessness of life and character which becomes those who are endued with the Holy Spirit. It was the privilege of candidates and general congregation to listen to a powerful and impressive address from His Lordship's lips. The Bishop prefaced his address by congratulating the congregation on the various and marked improvements which had been made in the sacred edifice since his last visit. He referred to the good work done by the C.E.W.A. of All Saints Church, evident in the providing of several things for the furnishing and adornment of the church chancel and sanctuary, over $500 having been expended by them on the interior of the sacred building during the last few years. He also noted with pleasure that the men were not behind in good works. He then turned to the candidates and tenderly addressed them, as a very father in God, exhorting, warning and encouraging them, as he pointed out the trials, the difficulties, the temptations which would be about their way. He bid them be loyal soldiers of Jesus Christ, whom they had that day vowed to serve, and be loyal members of that church for which the Redeemer died and into which they were baptized. He charged them to go on to seek for still more grace in the Holy Sacrament of Christ's Blessed Body, keeping ever before them the glorious prize, the immortal crown, which fadeth not away. His Lordship also addressed the parents, urging them to help and encourage their children in keeping their solemn Confirmation vows, and not to throw any hindrance in their way to their going early to the Lord's Table, that they might increase and grow in that Sacramental grace which had just been given them through the laying on of hands. During the singing of the last hymn a collection was taken up towards the Church Ship Fund, and exceeded that taken up on any previous occasion. During the afternoon His Lordship, accompanied by his chaplain and the incumbent of the mission, drove to Torbay. The way to the church was lined with flags, while several of the congregation had lent pots of beautiful flowers for the adornment of the Sanctuary. Here 14 additional candidates were confirmed. After the administration of the sacred rite, the Bishop gave another impressive address. The breathless attention with which the candidates and congregation listened showed how eagerly they drank in His Lordship's striking words. Immediately after the service the Bishop and his chaplain returned to St. John's. These visits of our Bishop have an inspiring effect upon us all, and leave behind pleasant recollections which do not quickly fade from our minds. —Com. Pouch Cove, Oct. 21st, 1910.

At Mount Cashel.

The twelfth anniversary of Mount Cashel was celebrated yesterday. His Grace Archbishop Howley went there and celebrated Mass at 7.30 a.m. All the inmates of the school and the teachers attended, as well as the people attending in the neighbourhood. The orphans received Holy Communion. After Mass there was Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at which the hymns were nicely sung by a choir of orphan boys.

OUR IRON ISLE.
Rev. Fr. McGrath arrived Friday after a vacation to Canada and America. He looks fine after his holiday and was warmly welcomed by all his flock. In future Father Kelly will conduct Sunday services at the mine's chapel.
The despatch announcing the result of the first game played by the Dominion football team in Sydney was received with much pleasure, and as predicted in the Telegram on their leaving, our boys are "making good" in football circles in Cape Breton. Well played, Newfoundland! but excellent Bell Island.
The s.s. Euphrates left here Sunday at 7 a.m., taking quite a crowd for Harbor Grace, including many of the Knights of Columbus, who went to attend initiation services to be held there Monday.
In reference to remarks made by our friend in the Herald, referring to the Dominion team going to Sydney, we regret he should have taken that as an opportunity to make a personal "hit" at Mr. Joseph Murphy, and we may say had Mr. Murphy been a supporter of the football team favored by the Herald's correspondent, no such remark would have been publicly made. Mr. Murphy, though being a foreigner, is as much respected as any Bell Island subject at Wabana.
Messrs. J. K. Butler and W. A. Coughlan, of the Dominion Co., left to spend the week-end with relatives—the former at Topsail and the latter in St. John's.
A new surface pit has been opened at the eastern end of the island by the D. I. & S. Co., where stripping will be done the winter and the ore ready for shipping next summer.
The s.s. Ellen with the D. I. & S. Co.'s "footers" is due on Thursday at Wabana.
Quite a few steamers are now employed between Bell Island and parts of Conception Bay, the latest addition being the s.s. Victor. Already the Euphrates, Mary and Progress are so engaged.
Mr. Con McKinnon contemplates opening dancing classes here the winter.
The news of the engagement of Miss Nellie Deluchery, so well known here, to Mr. R. C. Power, the Newfoundland agent for the I. C. S., was favorably received on the island. Miss Deluchery spent a few months here last spring, being the guest of Miss Lucy Walsh.

Schooner Bonnie Lass Badly Buffeted.

Yesterday the schooner Bonnie Lass, McDonald, of Salmonier, arrived from that place to James Baird, Ltd., fish laden. She left Salmonier Friday last and had fine weather until Sunday last when just after rounding Cape Race she was overtaken by the storm which was rapidly increasing, until dark a regular hurricane had set in from the S. E. with a huge sea running and a dense fog. After hauling in, as the captain thought he was near Cape Spear, a huge sea struck her and carried away her rudder. To try to navigate the Narrows with her rudder gone would be to court disaster, so the vessel was hoisted to and lay outside the port until yesterday morning. Her jumbo and foresail were badly torn in the storm. When the Ingraham went out for her it was dangerous work to get alongside the craft to give her a line. As the tug crept near her she was thrown in on the schooner by a huge wave and smashed off her bowsprit. The vessel will be repaired here.

Meeting Last Night.

A meeting of the Manufacturers' Association was held at the Board of Trade Rooms last night to make arrangements for the Exhibition in the Prince's Rink. Nearly all the details were disposed of. The Rink will be open to the general public on Tuesday night next, and the people of the outports who may be in town are specially invited. Tuesday and Thursday afternoons the Rink will be open to school children in charge of their teachers. Bands will play music on those evenings.
