A PREVALENT DISEASE WITH A NEW NAME.—The following racy passages are from the able pen of Dr. Griffith in his New Dominion story, "Help in the Distance," which we think is well worth perusal: "A very treacherous disease—fog on the brain; highly deceptive, and if not removed in time becomes incurable, even with the most active remedies; alarmingly injurious and obstructive to energy of body or mind; manifesting itself by a desire to walk in smooth, even, and well-beaten paths, and a terrible aversion to 'going up hill.' A wish to have plenty, and live luxuriously, without any trouble to obtain it; an irresistible tendency to get into debt (for unnecessary purposes) with no human probability of ever getting out of it; depending upon others to do everything; feeling ashamed of being seen doing some domestic duty, perhaps, in one's own house, or carrying small parcels, &c., through the principal streets, for fear of meeting an acquaintance, if the patient thinks himself 'above the common.' The progress of the disease may be known by the patient dwindling away to one idea, fit, in some cases, for his accustomed employment (if he have any), when first affected, but gradually less fit, until at last he is fit for nothing; next he has no idea at all—what he does he does mechanically, he is a nuisance to himself and others, and a drone in society. Alas! he is fogged all over."
PERUVIAN SYRUP.—This valuable medicine has been silently making its way into public favor by the numerous remarkable cures it has performed. Its singular efficacy is owing to the probability of iron which in this preparation remains unchanged, and is the only form in which this vital element of healthy blood can be supplied.

Special Notices.
Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year. It is fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to perfect health.
Mr. JOHN BROWN, of Baldwin, Clearing Co., N. Y., writes: "I was seized by a neighbor to get one bottle of the Balsam for my wife, being assured by him that in case it did not produce good effects, he would pay for the bottle himself. He is so certain of its medicinal value, that he has sent me a second bottle. My wife at this time was so low with the physicians' treatment that she could not get up. She had lost all her strength from the cold, coughing constantly and raising more or less blood. I commenced giving the Balsam as directed, and was so pleased with its operation that I obtained another bottle, and continuing to give it. Before this bottle was entirely used, she ceased coughing, and was strong enough to sit up. The fifth bottle entirely restored her to health, doing that which several physicians had tried to do but failed."
