EXPLOSION OF A BOILER.—A fearful catastrophe occurred on the 8th concession of Mersea, near Leamington, on Monday last, at 3 o'clock, p. m. The boiler in Mr. Thompson's steam saw mill exploded with tremendous violence, blowing the building to atoms and the machinery to pieces. Not a particle of the building or works was left standing, but strewn and scattered over the ground in all directions. The most intense excitement prevailed when it became known that the proprietor, Mr. Thompson, and five other men were buried beneath the ruins. Little hopes could at first be entertained of their lives. The inhabitants, alarmed by the report, hurriedly rushed to the scene of calamity, and set to work vigorously to remove the debris. All the sufferers were soon extricated, and, strange to say, were found alive, but all more or less injured. It is feared that Mr. Thompson cannot recover. His arm is broken, shoulder dislocated, face and head fearfully cut and braised, and he is also injured inwardly. The engineer was baldly scalded and otherwise hurt, and is not expected to recover. Another man had his arm broken. The three others were scalded and injured more or less, but not dangerously. Essex Record.

BREAKFAST—EPPS'S COCOA — GRATEFUL and COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately favored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors bills.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled "James Epps & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk.)

The all-gone feeling which people sometimes speak of is caused by want of proper action of the liver and heart. These may be assisted, and the bowels regulated by Parson's Purgative Pills in small doses.

Corn and flour are staple articles; but not more so than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, where known. It is good for children or adults, for any internal soreness of the chest or bowels, and the best Pain Killer prepared, under whatever name.

HAIR RENEWER

Nine years before the public, and no preparation for the hair has ever been produced equal to Hall's "Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer," and every honest dealer will say it gives the best satisfaction. It restores GRAY HAIR to its original color, eradicating and preventing dandruff, curing BALDNESS and promoting the growth of the hair. The gray and brashy by a few applications is changed to black and silky locks, and wayward hair will assume any shape the wearer desires. It is the cheapest HAIRDRESSING in the world and its effects last longer, as it excites the glands to furnish the nutritive principle so necessary to the life of hair. It gives the hair that splendid appearance so much admired by all. By its tonic and stimulating properties it prevents the hair from falling out, and none need be without Nature's ornament—a good head of hair. It is the first real perfected remedy ever discovered for curing diseases of the hair, and it has never been equalled, and we assure the thousands who have used it, it is kept up to its original high standard. Our Treatise on the Hair mailed free; send for it.
