Guelph Evening Mercury

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 16, 1872

Town and County News. The Hamilton Times records the death of Edward Jackson, an old resident of that city, and of Mr. W. M. Chapman, also a prominent resident, of American spotted fever.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Hugh Roberts, of Pilkington, who suffered from sun strokes last week, has so far recovered as to be able to go about again.

THE LATE ACCIDENT AT THE BRIDGE.—We are glad to hear that Mr. Cochrane is somewhat improved, which strengthens the hope that he will ultimately recover from the effects of his fall.

ANDERSON OPPOSITE THE MARKET will be happy to supply to the Teachers attending the examination school, text and class books for perusal. All books cheap at Anderson's, opposite the market, Guelph.

We beg to remind our readers of the Wesleyan Sabbath School Pic-nic, which takes place in Peterson's Grove, to-morrow afternoon. Our Wesleyan friends understand the secret of making their annual meetings of this kind attractive both to young and old, and we believe that efforts have been made to render this one more than usually pleasant. Lawrence's Silver Cornet Band will be on the grounds.

DR. ORTON'S PREGNATIONS.—Dr. Orton is here, there, and everywhere. We hear of him in Elora as a "Liberal" Conservative on Monday; in Garafra as a "thick and thin" supporter of Sir John on Tuesday, holding forth at a raising bee where considerable "physical force" was being employed; in Douglas the same evening, trying to persuade the "free and independent" that he was the man for Galway, since which time we have lost track of him altogether. Where he will turn up next it is impossible to say. The doctor is not meeting with that support which he confidently anticipated, and is considerably down in the month in consequence.—Fergus Express.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.—We have today the melancholy duty to announce the decease of Mr. George Hawes, of the Paisley Block, one of the oldest and most respected settlers in this district. Mr. Hawes, on coming from England to Canada, located himself in the Guelph district in June, 1836, where he has since constantly resided, having been but on two occasions ever out of the county. Mr. Hawes followed the occupation of a farmer until the last five or six years, when advancing years and declining strength warned him to transfer the burden of a Canadian farm to younger and more active shoulders. About a fortnight ago he was seized with severe attack of pleurisy, which he ineffectually battled against, ultimately carried him off, crowned with venerable years and amidst the universal esteem of his many acquaintances. As will be observed, his remains will be entered in the Union cemetery to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Hawes leaves a family of three sons and two daughters (all married) to mourn his loss.

MR. J. D. BOWMAN'S GRAND CONCERT.—The concert given last evening (Monday) in the Town Hall was a distinguished success in everything save the attendance which was disgracefully small. Those lovers of first class music both vocal and instrumental lost a treat which it will probably be a very long time ere they are again admitted to the opportunity of hearing. From the opening quartette to the Associate Artists' rendering of the National Anthem, the concert was a musical triumph; whether we regard the style, cultivation and voice of the various vocalists; the superb touch and brilliancy of the piano forte performances of Mr. J. D. Kerrison, either as soloist or accompanist, or the truly exquisite and enchanting music discoursed by Mr. Bowman on the violin, whose performances were the theme of universal admiration and rapturous plaudits.—Canada, and especially the neighbouring County of Waterloo, may feel justly proud that it has produced a violinist who is so intrinsically worthy of the first rank in his profession. Whilst deeply regretting the paucity of the attendance last evening, which, perhaps, in great measure may be due to the unusually trying weather at present prevalent, we would, in the interest of appreciative citizens—of whom we feel convinced we have many amongst us—heartily express the hope that Guelph may again ere long be revisited by these truly musical stars, and that their happy experience will be that they have not shown upon us (peculiarly in vain).

MASSON'S GRAND LODGE.—The business of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada was brought to a close on Thursday night, after a very profitable and harmonious session of two days. There were over three hundred lodges represented, and including visitors, some seven hundred brethren attended. The following is the list of Grand Officers for the current year: M. W. Bro. W. Mercer, Wilson of Simcoe, G. M.; R. W. Bro. Thos. White, jr., of Montreal, D. G. M.; R. W. Bro. James Bain, of Toronto, G. S. W.; R. W. Bro. Horace Merrill, of Ottawa, G. J. W.; R. W. Bro. Henry Groff, of Simcoe, Grand Treasurer; R. W. Bro. T. B. Harris, of Hamilton, Grand Secretary; Rev. and R. W. Bro. Lonsberry, of London, Grand Chaplain; R. W. Bro. F. Westlake, London, D. D. G. M. of London District. The next annual meeting of the Grand Lodge will be held in the city of Montreal.

A cowardly outrage has been perpetrated by the strikers in New York, two men having been beaten and fatally injured by twenty-five ruffians who sought to coerce them.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES Insulters of Justice Keough Committed for Trial.

Irish vs. Chinese Laborers. Ovation to National Bands.

Dublin, July 15.—The parties concerned in burning of Justice Keough in effigy have been committed for trial at the Fermanagh Assizes.

San Francisco, July 15.—A special despatch says that two Irishmen demanded employment on a farm near Baatas, Alameda County, last night and were told by the farmer he had sufficient Chinamen engaged to harvest the crops and would not require their services. This morning they were detected firing the grain stacks and were captured. The prisoners were tried by the neighboring farmers and hanged.

Portland, Me., July 15.—The Irish National Band received another ovation at the city hall this evening, where they gave a concert.

Chicago, July 15.—The French Band was formally received by Mayor Medill this morning. A concert was given by the band to-day, which was attended by an immense and enthusiastic audience.

Town Council. The regular meeting of the Town Council took place on Monday evening, the Mayor in the chair. Present—Messrs. Kennedy, Snider, Stevenson, Bell, Elliott, Crowe, Mitchell, Bruce, Howard, Allan.

The Mayor read a communication from the Town Solicitor to the effect that Judge McDonald had dismissed the appeal of the town against the increased assessment by the County Council; also a pleasant little account of $57.50 as costs.

A number of petitions were received, the most important of which was read by Mr. Mitchell from Wm. Clark, A. Lemon, John McCrea and about sixty others, asking the Council to amend that portion of the Market By-law referring to the places where meat shall be sold by permitting vendors of fresh meat to sell in shops as before the passing of the by-law. Referred.

Mr. Robertson read the report of the fire and water committee, to the effect that they had inspected the tank on Nottingham Street, and found that the stream which supplied it was dry; and recommending that a new tank be substituted. Adopted.

Mr. Bruce stated that the volunteers had returned from Windsor late at night, and with Mr. Massie he had taken the responsibility of providing them with accommodation for the night. He moved seconded by Mr. Howard, that the sum of $66.87 be granted to defray such expenses. Carried.

The Council then adjourned.

Hotel-Keepers vs. Sleeman's Brewery. A return match between the above representatives of the liquor interest was played on the grounds of the latter on Monday afternoon, when victory declared for the manufacturers by 19 runs. This we understand is the first time that the Hotel-Keepers have been known to have succumbed in their base ball matches, and much credit is due to their opponents for having vanquished them in the glorious style they have done. The conquerors enjoyed their "beer" at the conquerors expense.

Base Ball Notes. A match was played at Georgetown on Saturday afternoon between the Pastimes, of Acton, and the Restless, of Georgetown, resulted in a victory for the former—score 45 to 25.

The Regulators defeated the Second, Nine of the Stars, local clubs, on Saturday afternoon by a score of 40 to 20.

A match came off between the Silver Leafs and Red Stockings, both of this town, on Saturday. The former came off victorious by a score of 14 to 10.

BASE BALLISM.—That this pastime, now so universally indulged in, in our muscular town, is oftentimes attended with considerable danger, no one who has had occasion to traverse the "short cut" across the Market Square after 6 o'clock in the evening, but must have had personal, and not infrequently practical, experience of. Yesterday evening the victim of these Market Square base ballists was a lady passing along in the usual course of travel, and who received the full force of a ball, "red hot" from the bat, in her face, which might have sadly disfigured or seriously or even fatally hurt her. Instead of the players being put to the blush by such a "contempt" they readily continued their game and the lady had to dodge her "base" assailants "red hotter" to escape being struck a second time. We learn also that opposite the Central School base ball is played to the personal danger of the passers by, and surely our streets and most frequented thoroughfares are not proper places to practice a sport, healthy, harmless and invigorating in itself, but dangerous to the lives and limbs of the citizens, especially the fairer portion, who have no right to be either insulted or debased from what is a just and lawful right of promenade the various thoroughfares in safety. Let the proper authorities see to this matter before it assumes a more serious aspect.

The Press Excursion.

Notes of a Trip to Muskoka. The Canadian Press Association arranged that the annual excursion of the members this year should be to the District of Muskoka—a trip which would be at once healthful, full of recreation, and which would likewise afford them an opportunity of making themselves acquainted with the scenery, capabilities and resources of this recently settled but interesting portion of the Province. In accordance with this arrangement the excursion party, numbering about eighty ladies and gentlemen, started on Tuesday morning, the 9th inst., by the Northern Railway. After a pleasant ride over this excellent and well managed road, Bell Ewart was reached. Here they left the cars and got on board the Emily May, a well appointed, staunch and swift steamer which daily plies between this port and Orillia.

The sail on Lake Simcoe was most pleasant and enjoyable. The fierce heat of the summer sun was tempered by a delightful breeze, and the tired toilers at the desk expanded their lungs with the pure and refreshing air which swept over the placid waters. The rich and ever changing scenery which the low, wooded banks presented was also the theme of constant admiration, and not a few in whom the poetic faculty had not been entirely blighted by the stern realities and matter of fact routine of the office, began to sigh for

"A house in the wilderness, With roses and camberies."

Soon the port of Beaverton, on the eastern shore, was reached, and from thence we sped on under full steam for Orillia. Before reaching this place, we passed through a narrow marshy strait, through which a channel has been dredged—which connects the waters of Lake Simcoe and Couchiching. Across this strait a long trestle work has been built for the use of the railway which is now under construction from Orillia into the Muskoka District. Only a few yards from it is another trestle work of the same description for the extension of the Midland Railway from Beaverton to the Georgian Bay, near Penetanguishene. Both of these works will be furnished with drawbridges, for the convenience of steamboats and other lake craft.

Orillia was reached by one o'clock, and the party, on landing, received a cordial greeting from a large number of citizens who had come down to welcome them. An adjournment was made to the Queen's Hotel, where, on the balcony, was stationed a brass band, whose inspiring strains gave additional evidence of the hearty welcome accorded by the good people of Orillia. This town has made wonderful progress within the past two or three years, and the completion of the line to Beaverton and early extension of the same line into Muskoka, as well as its being connected by the Midland with the Georgian Bay and Lake Ontario at Port Hope, will give it an impetus which will greatly accelerate its growth and prosperity.

The town is pleasantly situated on a rising ground, the streets are well laid out, and in the business portion of the town there are a number of handsome stores, where apparently a large trade is done. On the outskirts are pleasant groves of trees, amidst which nestle trim little cottages, with here and there a more imposing residence from which can be obtained an extensive view of the lake and the cluster of islands that dot its surface. We know no pleasanter summer resort than this thriving and healthy town, and the number and size of its hotels give assurance of ample accommodation to visitors.

After a pleasant sojourn of two hours, the excursionists left Orillia at three o'clock on the Ida Burton for Washago, which was reached shortly after 5. This place, which for the present can boast of only one tavern and half a dozen houses, has no attractions for the traveller. It is at the head of the lake, and is the terminus of the Government road which traverses the portage between Lakes Couchiching and Muskoka, fourteen miles long. It is expected that the railway will be opened to it this fall, and infuse into it a little more life and vigor.

Here the party took possession of Harvie's & Co's line of stages and set out on their ride of 14 miles for Gravenhurst. The afternoon was excessively hot, the road was exceedingly dusty and the land on either side for most part was as rough, rocky and uninviting as ever met the eye of a wearied traveller. For the first two miles there was scarcely anything but rock to be seen—huge, rough and in many places bare even of the slightest covering of earth or moss, for the fires had recently swept through the stunted pines, whose roots seemed to have stolen their subsistence grudgingly granted by the thin soil which covered their crowns and sides, and which had been burned up too, leaving nothing but the bald, bare surface of the rocks, the charred and blackened roots still clinging to their sides, and the stumps standing up like grim and ghastly emblems of desolation. The scene was somewhat relieved when we reached the river Severn, some two miles from Washago, which is here a large stream, with a tolerably swift current. Here are a few houses, a wayside tavern, and two or three blooming gardens, which looked all the more beautiful for the contrast presented by the rude rocks with which they are surrounded. But soon this oasis in the desert is passed, and the wagons are once more running over rocks, or between them, and still stennell'd by the burned and blackened trunks of the pines. Occasionally we come on more level patches, where some hardy settler had manifested his pluck and perseverance and hope in the future by making a clearance wherever he could get a foothold, and where the deep green colour of his spring crop, or the full luxuriance of his hay field contrasted strangely with the uniform gray or dark red of the surrounding rocks. It is no less extraordinary, but still it is true, that almost every acre of land along this road, which can at all be cultivated, is taken up and in crop, which shows that the soil, where there is any, is fertile, and repays the labours of the farmer. Some of the gardens looked really pretty, and the common vegetables usually raised in Ontario are here raised in perfection.

(Concluded to-morrow).

The Shooting Affray in Arthur

FULL PARTICULARS OF THE AFFAIR. From our co-correspondent.

A very sad affair occurred on the evening of the 12th of July, which resulted in the death of a young man from Orangeville, named David Hunter, who was entirely innocent. The row commenced in the following manner:—It seems that in the evening a party of Orangemen started from the village in a wagon to go and see a sick brother named Bolstone, about four miles away, who was reported to be dying. On their way they stopped at the hotel near the railway station to get a drink. While there the evening train going to Monr. Forest arrived at the station. While the engine was taking wood and water some of the party who were in the wagon went over to the train and got into an altercation with the employees on the railroad, which continued until the train got in motion, when some person fired two or three shots from a revolver at the train, firing indiscriminately among the passengers, killing Hunter, who was in the prime of life, and who had given no offence to any one. According to report he bore an excellent character and was riding in company with a young woman to whom he was engaged to be married in a few weeks.

It appears the unfortunate young man, hearing the row, stepped out on to the platform of the car and was looking back at the crowd when he received the fatal shot. He fell back into the arms of a young man named Bacon, who was with him, exclaiming "I'm shot." His comrade said, "surely not, David." When he replied, "Yes, I am shot through the breast, I shall be dead in a few minutes." He walked through the car and back, when he sank down on a seat, the blood coming out of his mouth and nose. He was asked if he was badly hurt, when he told the young woman who was with him to have the man hanged that shot him, and died immediately after. Meanwhile exertions were made to stop the train, which was done in a few minutes. The railway officials sent to the Village for a constable and doctor, but the young man was dead before medical aid arrived. A coroner's inquest was held on the body on Saturday by Dr. Erenyrd, of Mount Forest. There were twenty-four witnesses to be examined, and the jury was adjourned from Saturday night until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock p.m.

The authorities have arrested a party by the name of Moore, a blacksmith of Arthur, who is suspected of having fired the shots at the train. Great indignation is manifested here among the people, and there seems to be a desire on the part of all respectable people in the community to have the guilty party punished. The exciting events which have happened here of late have thoroughly roused the people to a sense of justice, and they are determined to vindicate the law, which seems to have been asleep for the last five or six years, and which has resulted in sinking the community into a state of lethargy from which such an unprovoked act as the above can only arise from.

Interesting to Every One. Dr. Kitto's Illustrated History of the Bible is now being circulated in this section, and according to the testimony of ministers and learned men everywhere, this is the most valuable work ever issued in explanation of the scriptures for so reasonable a price. Already more copies of this work have been sold than of any work ever published, except the Bible itself, about half a million copies having been sold in the old country, and now it is republished in this, and about 800,000 have been sold. Over 500 orders have been taken in London, Ontario.

It is highly recommended by all leading clergymen. The following are the opinions of the ministers of Guelph in regard to this valuable work: Dr. Kitto's History of the Bible is, in my opinion, one of the best books on the subject. It is very valuable for Sabbath School teachers, and private students of the Bible. Parents will do well to purchase it for their children. JOHN HOGG, D.D., Pastor of St. Andrew's Church.

Dr. Kitto's History of the Bible is of great worth in every respect, and deserves a place in the library of the minister, every good Sabbath School teacher, and scholar. I know of none better for general use. REV. E. B. BALDWIN, Wesleyan Minister.

I heartily endorse the above recommendation in regard to this valuable work for family use. PASTOR KEOX Church.

Kitto's History of the Bible is a standard work. It is calculated to be immensely useful to ministers, students, Sabbath School teachers, and scholars, for family reading; also it cannot be too highly recommended. REV. THOS. WAIDROPE, Canada Presbyterian Minister.

I have had in my possession for some time the work above recommended, and have found it of great value for family reading. My little boy has read it over with profit and delight. PASTOR BAPTIST Church.

Dr. Kitto's Illustrated History of the Bible is a work of real merit and rare worth. It is with pleasure that I recommend it to my people and Sabbath School. I know the work and can speak from experience. MICHAEL BOOMER, I.L.D., Dean of Huron.

Dr. Kitto's History of the Bible is an excellent work, and it affords me much pleasure to have the opportunity of cordially recommending it to the Christian public. REV. GED. WOOD, Primitive Methodist Minister.

Rev. W. F. Clarke is away from home, but his family take a copy of the work for him. The citizens of Guelph will please take notice that it is seldom if ever that our clergymen ever recommend any work circulated by agents, but in this case they have not only waived all their objections and recommended the work but have also ordered a copy for their own benefit, with the exception of one.

DEMOCRAT'S MONTHLY for August is on our table, replete with its usual fund of information and entertainment for the household. "Beck at the Farm" is the most charming illustration of American life we have perused for some time. The many items of worth in the Monthly, and its repertoire of fashions should be seen by those who do not subscribe, and they would do so at once. $8 per year, with a premium worth fully the amount paid.
