The marriage took place at Cranbrook on New Year's Day of Miss Hazel Madden, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Madden, of the Windsor Hotel, Lundbreck, to Mr. O. J. Sparrow, travelling agent for the Western Canada Wholesale Co., Fernie. After a two weeks' trip to coast points, the young couple will take up residence at Fernie.

Don't forget "Green Stockings," the comedy which will be put on tomorrow evening at the Grand theatre by the Cranbrook Amateur Dramatic Club. They have already produced this comedy with splendid success at Creston, Cranbrook and Balfour and we feel sure the people of Fernie will turn out in large numbers to the performance. Reserved seats $1; general admission 50c; children 25c. Proceeds in aid of I.O.D.E. work.

A change in the system of paying the employees of the C.P.R. comes into effect this month. The payments will be twice a month after this. It has been customary to pay on the 15th of the month, the company holding back the pay for the first 15 days. In future the men working by the day or hour will be paid on the 15th for the last part of the previous month and on the last day of the month for the first 15 days. The monthly men will receive half of their pay on the 15th and half on the last day of the month. Fifteen days' pay will be withheld as at present and the doctor's fee will be deducted from the pay at the end of the month.

Just how serious the United States coal shortage really is may be understood when it is known that ocean vessels loaded with supplies for the Allies have been held in port for days because it was impossible to supply them with bunker coal. In fuel as well as in food the whole world has now reached the point where it is living from hand to mouth.

Chief Welsby while making a trip to Crow's Nest the other day, quietly confiscated two suspicious looking suit cases which contained 24 bottles of booze. The suit cases were cached away in one of the passenger coaches, with no apparent owner in sight. The Chief did his best to locate the owner but those cases were evidently travelling alone, so he quietly gathered them in and they now repose in a cell in the local provincial building, where they are zealously guarded by the entire staff, who anxiously await the thirty days required under the Act before said booze must be destroyed.

END STOMACH TROUBLE. GASES OR DYSPEPSIA

"Pape's Diapepsin" makes sick, sour, gassy stomachs surely feel fine in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach-headache, you can get relief in five minutes by neutralizing acidity. Put an end to such stomach distress now by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder caused by food fermentation due to excessive acid in stomach.
