East Middlesex Patrons Meet for Organization.

The Peterboro Patron Candidates Decide to Withdraw-W. R. Meredith the Champion Political Shuffler.

SPLENDID LIBERAL MEETING AT ILDERTON. The large Masonic hall was filled Saturday, mostly with the supporters of R. W.

Jackson. The withdrawal of Mr. James Gilmour from the contest appears to put a new complexion upon the whole matter.

The chair was occupied by Mr. John Campbell, of Lobo. Mr. R. W. Jackson addressed the meeting, stating his views with reference to the Government policy, and dealing with the leading questions now being discussed. He regarded the Mowat Administration as a great benefit to the farming community, as well as to every other class. He was therefore prepared to give an independent support to it if elected, and desired the support and votes of those present. Mr. J. W. Rosser was the next speaker. He answered the objections to the Mowat Administration which had been brought forward by the Patron and P. P. A. candidate, Mr. Shore. Mr. Shore admitted at Ilderton that he had voted for the separate schools 40 years ago, and that since then he has had his eyes opened. He also admitted that he had voted for the National Policy fifteen years ago, but that since then he had had his eyes opened. Mr. Rosser, however, thought that if it took Mr. Shore 40 years in one instance and fifteen years in another instance to get his eyes opened he did not think with sufficient rapidity to represent the electors of East Middlesex. For his part he would rather have a man who would see these matters in the right light at the time they were being discussed and introduced rather than one who took so long to get his eyes opened. He also talked upon the charge of centralization which had been made against Mr. Mcwat with reference to the Baptist College, and completely disposed of the charge.

If and surveyors, 213 Dundas street. I field Block. H. C. McBride, F. W. Far meeting vigorously. He took up the different questions one by one. He agreed with Mr. Rosser that it was desirable to have a man who could see right at the start, and predicted that Mr. Shore would in time EMOVED—J. A. wrong, and would get his eyes opened also wrong, and would get his eyes opened also in that respect. He took up the various VETERINARY SURGEON charges with reference to the separate schools and answered them, also those relating to mining and the crown lands, and closed a vigorous and elequent address by asking all present for their support on the 26th of June for Mr. R. W. Jackson. Mr. T. H. Purdom closed His address was mostly confined to general principles, and the reasons why support should be given not only by Reformers, but Jackson as against Mr. Shore. The contest was not really between the old lines. Mr. Shore could not be called a Conservative candidate, nor could Patrons be expected to vote for him as against Mr. R. W. Jackson, who was himself a farmer and a Patron. Believing that it would be in the nterest of East Middlesex to be representd by Mr. Jackson rather than by Mr. shore, he arged the electors on the 26th of une to give him a good majority. The meeting closed with three cheers

There were perhaps fifteen Patrons in attendance, and the chair was occupied by Mr. A. F. Anderson, the county president. Addresses were delivered by the candidate, Mr. Wm. Shore, Allan Bogue and Mr. Alexander, the Patron candidate for North Middlesex. The latter detailed the plan of organization, the method of selecting committees, scrutineers, etc., in vogue in his riding. He gave Mr. Gilmour credit for having good sense in withdrawing from the contest, and expressed the hope that Mr. Shore would be elected by acclamation. Acting on Mr. Alexander's suggestion Mr. Charles Girard, Westminster, was appointed campaign manager. The following township chairmen were also appointed: Westminster, Mr. James Crinkaw, White Oak, Dorchester, Thos. Lane, Mossley; Nissouri West, Wm. Scatcherd. Wyton; London township, Joseph Ferguson, Birr; Londou West, R. S. Rockett. Thase chairmen will appoint committees and select scrutineers. The meeting then adjourned. VARIABLE AS THE WIND. It was settled long ago that Mr. Meredith could take more positions on the same question than any man who has ever figured in our politics. He has been for the ballot and against the ballot; for the Irish electors and against the Irish electors; for the separate school amendments and against the separate school amendments. But in all Mr. Meredith's eccentric and tortuous public record there is revealed no more remarkable performance than that part of his speech at London which deals with the question of prohibition. PETERBORO PATRONS IN DOUB T. Norwood, Ont., June 2 .- About two months ago the Patrons of Industry of East Peterboro nominated Wm. Quinn, of Douro, for the Legislature. A convention of Patrons was held in the town hall of Norwood yesterday where some discussion took place in regard to Mr. Quinn's expenses. Many of the members favored a withdrawal as the chances of electing the nominee were considered very slim. A motion was carried leaving it to the candidates themselves as to whether they should stand or not, whereupon Messrs. Quinn and Lang withdrew. This leaves two candidates in the field. Thos. Blizzard, M.P.P., the Liberal candidate. and John Lancaster. Both are Patrons of Industry, but adhere more strongly to the old parties. CARDWELL LIBERALS. TOTTENHAM, June 3. - A large gathering attended the Reform convention here on Saturday, and after several nominations unanimously elected Mr. Wm. Wright, of Bradford, to contest Cardwell. This gentleman will decide by Monday whether he will stay, and if not Dr. Robinson, of Brampton, will accept.

Annual Meeting of the Toronto General Trusts Company.

An Enormons Business.

Steady And Rapid Growth of Transactions.

Satisfactory Reports Presented and Unanimously Adopted - Election of Directors-Vote of Thanks to Officers.

The twelfth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Toronto General Trusts Company was held at the company's office on the corner of Yonge and Colborne streets, Toronto, on Monday, the 28th ult., at 12 o'clock noon. In the absence of Hon. Edward Blake, the president, Mr. John Hoskin, Q.C., LL.D., occupied the chair, and among those present were: Messrs. E. A. Meredith, LL.D., vice-president; W. H. Beatty, George A. Cox, J. D. Edgar, Q.C., Edward Galley, George Gooderham, Æmilius Irving, Q.C., Robert Jaffray, J. W. Langmuir, A. B. Lee, G. W. Lewis, Mr. Macdonald, J. Kerr Osborne, William Ramsay Bowland, Scotland), J. G. Scott, Q.C.,

James Scott, and T. Sutherland Stayner. Mr. Langmuir, the manager, was appointed secretary of the meeting, and the report of the directors for the year ended March 31, 1894, was read as follows:

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT. The directors of the Toronto General Trusts Company have pleasure in submitting their annual report, accompanied by the usual financial statements showing the business operations of the company for the year ended March 31, 1894. The shareholders will be gratified to find that these statements show that the progress and growth of the company's business during the past year have been greater than in any previous year of its prosperous history. The value of new estates and work assumed by the company during the past twelve months is $2,550,506 65, as com pared with $2,000,212 38 during the preceding year. This large addition to the company's business brings up the aggregate volume of assets remaining in its charge at the close of the year (after the distribution of estate funds to beneficiaries and the closing up of other matters) to very nearly $10,000,000, not including trusteeships for bondholders. The varied character of the new work assumed by the company during the year is seen in the following summary: Administration of intestate estates.$ 178,619 68 Administration of estates with will Receiverships..... Committeeships Investment agencies....

Estate management agencies....

Total.....$2,550,506 65 administrator, trustee, etc., affords cause for much satisfaction, it necessarily inby Conservatives as well, to Mr. R. W. creases in a corresponding degree the duties and responsibilities of the company. which were further enhanced by the large amount of trust funds remaining in the kidneys. company's hands for investment. To adequately cope with this largely-increased volume of business it became necessary to entirely reorganize and increase the staff of the office and to divide the work into two distinct branches, viz., the estates and agency department and the investment department. The new system has now been in operation since the close of the financial year, and your directors have pleasure in reporting that it works most satisfactorily, and that with such additions from time to time as may be found necessary it seems capable of meeting all future demands on the staff. During the past, as in former years, the company has assumed the position of trustee under mortgages made by corporations to secure their bond or debenture issue. The company's duty was simply to see that the issue of the bonds or debentures was correct and regular, and that the holders of the bonds or debentures were secured the benefit of the assets covered by the trust deed, and in none of these cases has anything been advanced by the company upon the mortgages, bonds or debentures, nor has it assumed any part whatever of the mortgage liability. The directors feel it right to make this explanation as to the company's liabilities in such cases, in order to remove a misapprehension which seems to exist in the public mind on the subject, as in recent articles which have appeared in our papers it is erroneously assumed that at least in one of these cases the company had incurred serious pecuniary liability; in fact, that it had loaned a very large amount of its funds to the corporation, instead of, as was the case, simply becoming a trustee for the lenders. The number of estates which have come into the company's hands during the past year is very large, but not a few of these are estates where the assets are very trifling and where the amount of compensation which the company received is altogether inadequate for the work performed. Filling, nowever, as it does, the position of a public corporate trustee, your directors have not felt justified in declining, except in very special cases, to undertake the management of these small estates. It has accepted them, however, rather as a matter of accommodation than for the sake of reward.

The net profits for the year, including $2,983 74, balance brought forward from last year, as will be seen, amount to $56, 096 11, out of which your directors have declared a dividend of 10 per cent on the paid-up capital stock, absorbing $21,787 36. The reserve fund has been increased by $15,000, and now stands at $240,000, and
