

HORRORS AT LAKE BENNETT

F. W. Herring, Tells of Murders, Accidents and Mortalities, En Route to Klondike.

Fund Raised by Masons From All the World Over to Assist Distressed Brethren—First Masonic Funeral and a Masonic Graveyard.

Another most interesting letter has reached The Advertiser from Mr. Frank A. Herring, formerly of Fullerton street, this city, and this is the last he expects to write until he reaches Dawson City. The letter is as follows:

Lake Bennett, May 22.
I am writing you again, as I have a few spare moments. I often wonder if my letters have been received in London. The man whom we have been trusting to receive and deliver letters has been arrested at Sheep Camp for opening the mail. Many men have been sending letters containing money to their friends, and as there is no post-office or chance for registration, they had to trust to man's honesty. The Northwest Mounted Police have taken hold of it, and now I feel sure you will get them.

The war excites these Yankees. We have some hot times in our town. A paper of any kind sells for 25 cents. We do not work nearly so hard as when we were packing. I do not mind the work in the least, although a few months ago I should have considered even this extremely hard. The most dangerous and difficult part of the work now is packing, or hauling timber from the mountains to the boat-yard. We climb to the mountain top, get our timber or logs, and pitch them into a gulch below, where there is several feet of snow. Then we descend, dig them out, put them on the pit, and haul or pack them to our boat-yard. I can work now with the very best of the men. An average strong man cannot stand the climbing or walking, but I am away ahead of the "average" now, and can do the work with little trouble or weariness. I have hobnails in my leather shoes, and find them a benefit in climbing and walking. Last Sunday we did not work, but all attended the funeral of a brother Mason. The poor fellow died after a few hours' intense suffering from injuries received while at work.

ACCIDENTS AND MURDERS.

The other day a dog team came running down the road, and on the sled was a poor fellow dead. The same day the Indians shot and killed two men for their outfit. The Northwest Mounted Police arrested, tried and found the Indians guilty, and they are to be hanged on May 23. Today the ice and snow is very soft on the lake. One man fell in and two other fellows were drowned. It is a treat for a day to pass over without someone being drowned.

BEAUTY AND COMFORT.
This is a city of tents. It is quite a pretty sight at night to see the white

Eacrett's Bazaar

Specials for Saturday and Monday:

We have a few more Screen Doors and Windows in some sizes and will sell the balance of the Doors at 60c, complete with hinges and screws, which is 5c cheaper than we sold them last week. This is a positive loss to us, but we will clean them out at this price. We also have a few more Screen Windows, 36 inches wide, former price 36c; we will sell the balance at 20c. We have had a special run on our $1.89 Chamber Sets and will sell them next week at $1.50. No. 8 Copper Bottom Boilers for 80c—these are McClary's make. Preserving season is just on. Now we have a nice line of Granite Preserving Kettles which we will sell from 25c up to 85c—best goods. Gem Jars at the very lowest prices. Glass Fruit Nappies, 15c per half dozen. Tumblers, 15c per half dozen. Toilet Soaps of all kinds; 3 large cakes Castile for 5c; 3 large cakes Hyacinth, in a box, for 10c. 3 bars Laundry Soap, 6c. Sweet Home Soap 6 for 25c. Four-Ball Croquet, 75c. Umbrellas and parasols recovered, also baby carriage tops, in all shades of Satin.

mass gleaming in the moonlight when everything is very quiet and still. I have my tent fixed up very nicely; the boys all call it the drawing-room, and no dogs are allowed into it. I made a bunk of slabs and poles, then put on pine and birch boughs (for a feather bed), then spread my rubber blanket, then my big soft robe, then a double blanket, then lie down, spread a blanket and pull one-half the robe over me. I have a lovely bed, and other smoke, sleep or read to my heart's content. It is light here nearly all the time—in fact it is never really dark. We can see to read at 11 p.m. and at 3 a.m.

DEAD HORSES IN HEAPS.
I had a hard time today and am very tired tonight, and my feather bed feels good. I took five good dogs and pulled a load of slabs and poles into camp. For the past five days I have been watching a poor old horse trying to climb the mountain for food, but he will never reach the top. The Northwest Mounted Police today collected 56 horses and put them on a bier and burned them. A horse dies and we never feed our dogs now, and they are as fat as they can be.

DANGER AHEAD.
The chief talk now is the danger of the rapids, and we fear for the many hundreds of small boats. We have two large scows just finished today, 40 feet long on top, 25 feet on bottom, 10 feet 8 inches wide, and 4 feet deep, all made of 2-inch pine plank, and very strong. So I do not have the slightest fear for us shooting the rapids. We are sure to come out on top. We have had experience and knowledge of these rapids going with us as guides.

Well, today the poor old starving horse I've been watching for days died on the mountain side, and his carcass rolled down to the foot, or gulch.

CHARITABLE MASONRY.
The Masons held a meeting tonight for the purpose of deciding what should be done with the graves of the brother Masons who have died or been killed, at which 120 attended, and all volunteered to help in some way. A subscription was taken up, and quite a sum collected. It is to be left here as a Masonic fund for Masons who are in want or distress. The chairman of the meeting was an Englishman, and all nations were represented, even Africa and India. I feel a grand privilege to be able to call a brother to one's side in trouble or in need of a friend at any time.

MASONIC GRAVEYARD.
May 23.—Today all the Masons met at the graves of the poor unfortunate fellows, and we made a graveyard; that is, fenced in a lot 12 feet square, each man taking a post, plank, hammer or tools of some kind. Each post was marked by the giver, and all countries were represented, even Africa and India. I feel a grand privilege to be able to call a brother to one's side in trouble or in need of a friend at any time.

MORTALITY AMONG WOMEN.
A woman died here yesterday of spinal meningitis. Ten out of every twelve deaths are due to this disease. Three funerals in one day this week, and all from the same cause.

ON MOUNTAIN TOPS.
I have just returned from the mountain top, one two miles high. It was a glorious sight, and I enjoyed it immensely. I have gathered some plants and flowers and sent home. How I wished for my friends to be there to enjoy the beautiful sight. It seemed to strange to see pine trees, flowers and shrubs in bloom so beautifully, and just below us the snow and ice covering the ground. There is a beautiful day, and quite warm. The lake is open for a distance of 20 yards from the edge, and a number of small boats are out, but we are not in such a hurry, and shall wait three or four days yet. Our boats are finished. We shall live, eat and sleep right on the boats. They are so large and roomy. Tomorrow is the 24th May and we are going to celebrate it right royally. Well, this is my last chance to send a letter until I reach Dawson City, which, if I have a fairly good trip, we hope to do in ten days or two weeks. With regards, etc., I am yours,

F. W. HERRING.

PLENTY OF GOOD CLOTHES.

[London Daily Mail].
In the gentle art of changing clothes Fregoli is a child compared with the Prince of Wales. Among the things his royal highness is two princes, two dukes, two field marshals, an earl, a baron, eight knights, a great steward, a grand master, a colonel of guards, a horse, of foot and of artillery, an admiral, a Highlander, a Trinity brother, a barrister, a bencher and an English gentleman, and he wears the costumes and the orders of them all.

The wolf of starvation howls at the doors of those thousands of men who are well to do and surrounded by plenty. In health, in the majority of cases, is starvation, pure and simple. It means that body, brain, nerve, bone and sinew are improperly or insufficiently nourished. Improper, insufficient nourishment is starvation.

When a man's head aches it is because the tissues of the brain do not receive sufficient nourishment from the blood, or receive impure and unhealthy nourishment. When a man gets nervous and sleepless, it means that the blood is not properly nourishing the nerves. When his skin breaks out with blotches and pimples and eruptions, it means that the skin is being fed upon the impurities of the blood. Almost every known disease is primarily due to improper nourishment through the blood, which is the life-stream. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the greatest of all blood-makers and purifiers. It gives edge to the appetite, corrects all disorders of the digestion, makes the assimilation of the life-giving elements of the food perfect, invigorates the liver, promotes secretions and excretion, and vitalizes the whole body. It makes firm, muscular flesh, but does not make corpulent people more corpulent. It cures 98 per cent of all cases of lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and kindred affections, which, if neglected, lead up to consumption. It is the best of all nerve tonics and restoratives. Kept by all medicine dealers.

"I was taken ill in February, 1892, with headache and pain in my back," writes H. Gaddis, Esq., of 31, South Street, London, W. "I called in a doctor and he came three times. He said I was bilious but I kept getting worse. I took a course so that I could not sleep only by being propped up in bed. My lungs hurt me, and I got so poor that I was just skin and bone. I thought I was going to die. I used two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it made me sound and well. I saved my life."

No remedy relieves constipation so quickly and effectively as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They never gripe.

TWO SCORCHERS

Ray & Hawkshaw's Flour Mill at Lucan Burned.

Large Quantity of Grain and Valuable Machinery Destroyed.

Belmont Has a Big Blaze—Several People Barely Escape Cremation—Church at Aughrim Burned.

THE LUCAN FIRE.

Lucan, Ont., June 17.—The most disastrous fire the town has known for years occurred this morning, between 1 and 2 o'clock, when Ray & Hawkshaw's large flour mill, together with all the contents, and about 100 cords of wood, were totally consumed. The mill was recently remodeled and refitted with new and improved machinery. The proprietors are young men, who took the business when it was almost a failure, and succeeded in establishing the most prosperous trade in its history. Two thousand bushels of wheat and that much of grain into four ready for shipment were a total loss. The origin of the fire was in that part of the large engine room farthest from the fireplace, and the circumstances are very mysterious. There is $4,500 insurance on the building and machinery, the interested companies being the Commercial Fire, of Berlin, and the Canadian Millers' Mutual, of Hamilton.

AT BELMONT.
Belmont, June 17.—A disastrous fire occurred in this village early yesterday morning.

About 1 o'clock the villagers were aroused by cries of "Fire!" and E. S. O'Brien was discovered in flames. The building was owned by Mr. Archie McKellar. Above the store lived a family named Winegarden, and in the same building, Dr. Arkell had his office and bedroom. The flames spread rapidly, and soon caught on to a shoe store occupied by O. Dean, and dwelling house, occupied by Mr. John Taylor, property owned by Mr. James Campbell, which was soon a mass of flames. A building belonging to W. T. Winegarden on the north side was also totally destroyed.

Mrs. Winegarden and family barely escaped with their lives, as they occupied rooms immediately above the fire started. They lost all their effects, and barely escaped in their nightclothes. Dr. Arkell also had a narrow escape, having lost everything but his bicycle and one case of instruments. He had a small insurance of about $150. James Campbell had his building insured for $200. McKellar's $400. So far the cause of the fire is a mystery. It was by the most heroic efforts that the fire was prevented from crossing the street, which, if it had, there is no telling where it would have ended, as the Masonic Hall, a large store, and a dwelling house would be at once involved. The loss altogether will amount to $2,500.

All the buildings were of frame, and burned in a flash. There was an east wind blowing, and the residence of W. A. Taylor, W. H. Odell, G. Watcher and A. McKellar, and the Masonic Hall were in great danger.

CHURCH AT AUGHRIM DESTROYED.

Aughrim, June 17.—On Friday evening, during the electrical storm, old St. John's Church, Aughrim, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground with all its contents, with the exception of a large Bible and Prayer Book. There was no insurance.

Preparation Being Made to Quit the Camp.

Shooting of the 26th, 27th and 28th—How Cheasley Broke His Arm—Lord Roberts Bugler in the First Hussars.

One day more and the four battalions of infantry now encamped on Carling's Heights will take their departure for home. The different sections will be marched off in time to arrive at the depots twenty minutes before trains are due to leave. The several corps will leave as follows:

Twenty-first, Essex Fusiliers, by C. P. R., at 11:25 a.m.
Twenty-sixth, Middlesex Light Infantry—No. 1 company, by wagon, Delaware at 8:30 a.m.; No. 2 company by C. P. R., at 9:30 a.m.; No. 3 company, by C. P. R., at 11:25 a.m.; No. 4 company, by wagon, at 12:30 a.m.; No. 5 company, by C. P. R., at 7 a.m. (Adelaide street station); No. 6 company, by C. P. R., at 7:15 a.m.; No. 7 company, by C. P. R. (special), at 8:30 a.m.; No. 8 company, by G. T. R., at 7:50 a.m. (East London station).
Twenty-seventh, St. Clair Borderers, by G. T. R., at 8:30 a.m.
Twenty-eighth, Perth Battalion, by G. T. R. (special), at 8 a.m.
Twenty-ninth, Waterloo Battalion—Nos. 1, 2 and 6 companies by G. T. R. at 7:15 a.m.; Nos. 2, 4 and 5 companies by C. P. R., at 8:30 a.m.

Before corps are marched off the ground on departure, all kitchen trenches, refuse pits and other holes must be filled in, all refuse buried or burned, and the ground left clean and tidy. Quartermasters must remain behind to hand in their stores.

AT THE BUTTS.
The shooting of the different battalions at the ranges was not so good as expected, but this is accounted for by the heavy rains, winds and disagreeable weather in general. Scores:

WATERLOO BATTALION.
The scores made by the Twenty-ninth

Battalion were: No. 1, 19 per cent; No. 2, 42.96; No. 3, 34.93; No. 4, 49.16; No. 5, 33.45; No. 6, 28.21.

The scores of the Twenty-eighth Battalion have not yet been compiled. Capt. W. Chapman, of No. 4 company, Twenty-seventh Battalion, won the Kingsford medal, which was presented by Capt. Kingston in 1897 for the best shot in the company, to be competed for annually. His score was 64, out of a possible 80.

NOTES.
Lieut. Kinsman, of the First Hussars, is in the hospital with an injured arm, caused by his horse rolling over him. The First Hussars are not without notable. Trumpeter Wigle acted as bugler to Lord Roberts of Kandahar in the jubilee parade in London last year, and sounded the advance for the procession to move. Sergt. Gibbons, 42nd squadron, was the right-hand man of the front rank of the Canadian contingent, which headed the procession. Quartermaster Whidden was also present in the front row.

Mrs. T. A. Mara, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Long, and Mr. H. Dignan were the guests of Col. H. A. L. White and Major Moscrop last evening at dinner. The board of officers appointed to examine into the cause of the breaking of Pte. Cheasley's arm, have found that a sergeant of the Twenty-first, in the garb, came to Sergt. Rumball, of No. 6 company of the Twenty-sixth, and ordered him to turn out his section, as there was a row in the "barracks tent." The section was turned out and marched to a room in which some of the Twenty-first were assembled. Here they were placed under guard, and marched into another room, one by one, on to a blanket, which was pulled from under their feet as they stepped on it. Cheasley broke his wrist in the fall, and will be laid up for four or five weeks. All the officers of the Twenty-first will be brought before the D. O. C. Arrangements are being made to take the cavalry to spend Saturday night and Sunday at Delaware.

A MOTHER SPEAKS.

Tells how Dr. Chase Saved her Boy.

His Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine a Precious Boon.

MRS. A. T. STEWART, Folgar, Ont., says: "From the 7th of January to the 8th, we were up night and day with our two little boys, employing doctors and trying every kind of patent medicine we ever heard of. At this time we did not know of Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine until after the 30th, when our youngest darling died in spite of all we could do. Sometime in February the doctor told us our other boy couldn't live till spring. We were both discouraged, when I got my eyes on an advertisement of Dr. Chase's Syrup.

"I tried at once to get some, but none of the dealers here had it. A neighbor who was in Kingston managed to purchase two bottles which he brought straight to us, and I believe it was the means of saving our only boy.

"One teaspoonful of the Syrup stopped the cough so he could sleep till morning. He is perfectly well now, and I would not be without Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house."
