TRATHROY LOSES RUNAWAY GAME

Rain Falls With Two Out in Eighth Round.

SMITH HAMMERED HARD AT PETROLEA THURSDAY

Visiting Twirler Found for Sixteen Safties, Every Local Boy Making a Wallop.

Rain very kindly interfered in behalf of the visitors from further slaughter after the eighth round, the tally being 13 to 4, with two out, when J. P. caused a willing of collars in the bleachers in that period.

The visitors played very close to er orless ball and slammed Clarke for ien hits. but they were unable to make the circuits safely, while the locals scampered around for a baker's dozen.

Smith, Strathroy's pitcher, was pelted and then some three London players touching him for three hits, two for a pair each, while the others slugged out enough to make it sweet sixten. The score:

HAILWORTHY BEST IN READVILLE TROT

In Hard Race Takes the Prize Stake From Dudie Archdale in Fast Time.

ABBE ALWAYS WINS

Transformed Pacer Wins His Eighth Straight Victory of the Season From Fine Field.

Readville, Mass., Sept. 3. - Hailworthy won the fifteenth renewal of the classic Massachusetts $10,000 trotting stake here today, but his victory was shared by the trim little mare, Dudie Archdale, as in the opening heat of the race she won in 2:06%, which equalled the record of the stake made by Sadie Mac in 1905. The Harvester, champion trotting stall on of the world, with a record of 2:02, was started to lower the mark, but when the time came for the attempt it was raining hard, and he did remarkably well in turning the course in 2:0314. He was at quarter in 31% seconds, half in 1:021/2, three-quarters in 1:32%, and the mile in 2:03%, thus making the final half in 1:00% Six of the best class trotters in the country and abroad, as one of the number was the European bred and owned Willy, scored for the word in the Massachusetts. Geers, behind Dudie Archda raced Willy into submission 50 yards from the wire in the first heat, winning handily. Willy was placed second, though he was beaten out for the place by Hailworthy, the latter being placed back a position for a running break in the home-

In the second heat Hailworthy came with a wonderful burst of speed and nipped Dudie Archdale by a neck. Only the heat-winners were permitted to start in the third heat, and Hailworthy won by half a length.

The Bunker Hill and Norfolk stakes were two remaining features of the day's card. For the former Ross K. was best liked by the Talent, but Ess H. Kay won

"Pop" Geers behind The Abbe had his hands full in defeating Evelyn W., in both of the heats required in deciding the stake. The 2:16 trot brought out the largest
