WANT AD TIPS

This Is An Automobile Age

Six families out of ten in your neighborhood own automobiles or is it eight out of ten? The exact number doesn't matter. The point is that this is an automobile age. The automobile is fundamental to the prosperity and pleasure of a large section of the population.

There is significance in this fact for the Want advertiser. It means, for one thing, that for many people it is much more convenient to reply to Want Ads and investigate than it used to beand growing more convenient all the time. The automobile has a lot to do with the fine results so many readers get from Want Ads. Accordingly, a good "urge to action" to put in your Want Ad may be such as this: "Come out in your car today-just 10 minutes from the Civic Center." And carrying the thought farther, if you are on a paved highway it is a good plan to say as much-"Fine paved road all the way." One advertiser, living on the edge of town, always watches the weather. If it is sure to be pleasant the day a Want Ad is published, he includes in his message, "Fine day for an auto spin;

come out.' View the subject from a different angle—the car you yourself own. You can make it help you in several-ways. You give a phone number in your Want Ad. An inquirer calls up. You give information; the inquirer is much interested. When you state your address, though, the inquirer is disappointed. He doesn't happen to own a car. You are several miles from his home. "I'll come and get you in my car," you offer. Or, possibly, the article you advertise can readily be transported, in which case you say you will bring it to the inquirer's home for him to inspect.

A mechanic works in the city, but lives with his family on a tract near town. He has several fine Jersey cows, and the house wife makes splendid butter. The husband delivers it to Want Ad customers in his car, of course-just a matter of starting a few minutes earlier, that's all. When you use the Want Ads, remember this is an automobile
