The ladies are looking forward to having their evenings very profitably employed for the next few months.

NOUVEVILLE. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Calvert will regret to hear of the loss of their young son Willie, whose death occurred on Saturday afternoon, a few hours before the birth of Mrs. T. Landry, Mr. A. Francoeur and Mr. V. LeBlanc, accompanied by Mr. Henry Arseault motored to Campbellton on Monday. The three former were enroute to Chateaufort.

The P. Q. Lundy Co. have received and this will afford employment for a large number.

Once more the death bell has rung and its sad peals announce the death of Mrs. V. LeBlanc, whose death took place in Chateaufort after a short illness. The remains were brought to her home here, where burial and services were held. The deceased leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband and a young daughter, a father and mother, four sisters and six brothers. To the bereaved family our sympathy is extended.

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the parents and friends of Arthur LeBlanc, who passed away at the Hotel Dieu of Campbellton on Saturday the 8th. Deceased who was in his 25th year, had been suffering from a wound received while testing a newly purchased gun. The funeral services held on Monday were largely attended. The mourners were many and the whole congregation seemed to feel the loss keenly.

CAPE COVE. Rev. A. Oakley, pastor of Cape Cove

Miss Eve LeGrand is the guest of her brother, Mr. Ernest LeGrand of St. Adelaide de Pabos this week.

Miss Leonie MacNeil was the guest of Mrs. Aubin, Little River E., on Friday evening.

We are pleased to welcome in our midst again Mr. Alfred LeMoignan, who has been visiting his home in Jersey, C. I., for the past few months.

Foot Saved in 4 Days!

"Nothing but Zam-Buk could have done it," says Mrs. A. Berryman, 100, John Street, North, Hamilton,—"in describing how her right foot, cramped by a wagon wheel, blackened and inflamed, and I fainted away with pain. When it was quite impossible for me to move about, my husband's mother got me to try Zam-Buk. It was surprising! Within TWO DAYS all swelling and discoloration had disappeared and pain was banished. In FOUR DAYS, through this timely use of Zam-Buk, I could get about as usual, the injured foot was thoroughly healed."

Zam-Buk is the powerful antiseptic healer which quickly from the skin of corruption and disease and grows new healthy tissue. No common ointment or salve can possibly compare with Zam-Buk. Get a box to-day! 50c. all dealers or FREE SAMPLE for 1c. postage from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

RATTEE-KINNEAR. The marriage took place on Tuesday evening at five o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, 141 St. Julien street, the Rev. I. A. Montgomery officiating assisted by the groom's father, of Miss Frances Elizabeth Kinnear, second daughter of Rev. George F. and Mrs. Kinnear, to Rev. Neil Macdonald Rattee, son of Rev. E. J. and Mrs. Rattee, of Longueuil. The ceremony was performed in the bay window of the drawing-room, which was banked with palms, ferns and cut flowers. A number of ribbon was formed, through which the bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away. The bride's sister, Mrs. Albert Grande played the wedding march. During the signing of the register, the bride's cousin Mr. James Kinnear sang "Love's Coronation." The bride wore a gown of white tulle, with tulle and lace, lined with silver lace and court train, lined with shell pink georgette, embroidered in butterfly design of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Louise MacDiarmid, as bridesmaid, wore a gown of pale yellow tulle, with trimmings of gold lace and hat of black panne velvet and carried a bouquet of calliendulas and maiden-hair fern, tied with mauve tulle. Little Beryl Grande, niece of the bride, as flower girl, was dressed in white silk and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of sweetbush roses, tied with pink ribbon. Mr. Joseph Rattee acted as best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls, to the bridesmaid a pearl and cameo ring and to the flower girl a gold locket. The bride had on a white tulle gown with a pearl and cameo bar pin. Mrs. Rattee wore a gown of steel beads, with a corsage bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Boudreau, the groom's mother, was in black satin. After the reception, Rev. and Mrs. Rattee left for Halifax, from whence they are sailing to British Guiana to engage in missionary work there, the bride travelling in a navy blue tulle suit, with grey fur and hat to match, trimmed with grey ostrich tips.

MARSHALL FOCH HAS

MANY INVITATIONS

Paris, Oct. 15.—Marshal Foch would be compelled to travel more than 20,000 miles to visit nearly every state in the American Union if he should accept all the invitations he has received from the United States since it was announced that he would cross the Atlantic this fall.

Friends who call upon the Marshal are shown a stack of invitations more than a foot thick which he has received.

There are hundreds of them, including greetings from governors of various states, mayors of many cities, public bodies of every sort and private messages from prominent residents of the United States.

"Which of them will you accept?" an American visitor asked the Marshal recently.

"All of them," he replied, "and I would like to visit every state in the Union."

It has been impossible to fix the Marshal's itinerary, which thus far includes a trip across the continent to San Francisco.

The Marshal's only apprehension as to the hospitality of the American people is the possible effect it may have upon his digestion.

Remembering the condition in which Marshal Foch returned from his visit to America, Marshal Foch frequently murmurs "Poor Foch."

The Generalissimo of the allied armies is still amused over Marshal Foch's pleasantry when the chairman of the entertainment committee in Boston showed him upon his arrival late one evening the programme for the day following.

It began in the early morning with a sightseeing tour; then followed a reception of delegations, a midday banquet and speeches, and then an afternoon reception. A public dinner and reception was scheduled for 10 p.m. and this was to be followed by a ball.

"What do you think of it?" the chairman is reported to have asked the Marshal.

"It lacks something," replied the Marshal. "I see nothing regarding my funeral arrangements at the end of the day."

It might be remarked that Marshal Foch is abstemious in his daily life, his habits being almost ascetic in character.

Col. Francis E. Drake, deputy commander of Paris Post, American Legion will accompany Marshal Foch to America at the latter's request.

PT. LA NIM. Miss E. Gilker has been spending a few days here at the home of Mrs. J. McCurdy.
