> The legislature opening next Thursday will be the political and social event of the week and for a month or so the Celestial City will be througed with the wire pullers and fashion of the province. Some grave rumors are affoat in St. John concerning the health of Governor Tilley, whom I scarcely need say the people have as great regard for as when he represented them. The stories which reach here represent Sir Leonard looking as though he had just recovered from a long and severe illness and physically unfit for the duties which devolve upon him at this sessors.
